THE DYING SUMMER

The aster glows the fading leaves beneath,
The golden-rod gleams by the hedgerow brown,
As though the dying Summer in the Frost-king's teeth
Had hurled her gauntlet down.

So when the shades of solemn silence sink
Upon us, and we reach life's latest breath,
The soul exultant bids, e'en on the grave's black brink,
Defiance unto death.

We perish not, the mounting spirit towers
In conscious immortality sublime,
And gains, beyond death's feeble, fleeting hours,
Eternal summer-time.

Trained Nurses For the Poor.

From the New York Tribune.

Nurses trained in hospitals can now be obtained in nearly all the large American cities. The movement which began in the New York hospitals has made such rapid progress that there is scarcely a town in which scientific surgery is practised in public institutions where there is not a training school for nurses either organized or projected. Physicians themselves have everywhere welcomed educated nurses. Some old-fashioned practitioners, themselves hopelessly behind the times, at first raised the objection that a little learning in the trained nurse would be a dangerous thing, that she would assume to know more than the doctor, and that she would be constantly criticising the treatment and neglecting to follow directions. This objection has been found to apply to the old-time, uneducated nurse, rather than to the educated woman trained in hospital wards to obey orders implicitly and to hold her tongue. Physicians of high rank in the profession now invariably prefer hospital nurses because they not not only possess skill and experience, but also understand what medical discipline means. In every city where the hospital nurse has been employed, a public demand for a training school has immediately arisen. In the course of a few years one of the most honorable and remunerative professions for women has thus been opened.

The efficiency of the trained nurses, and their superiority to the garrulous and fussy beldames whom they have supplanted, have enabled them to command a good price for their services. Twenty dollars a week is the ordinary rate for such nurses, and in critical cases these wages are sometimes raised one-half or even doubled. The expensiveness of these nurses renders their employment something of a luxury, and the advantages of their superior training and experience are confined mainly to wealthy families, who have perhaps the least need of their services. The poor in tenement houses are the class upon whom educated nurses can confer the largest benefits, and unaided they cannot employ them. A society has been formed in Philadelphia which aims to provide the poorest class of patients not only with bed-linen, soups and table luxuries, but with hospital nursing. The example is one which charitable organizations in other cities will do well to follow. The sick poor, who cannot be removed to hospitals and cared for there, need nothing so much as intelligent nursing; and benevolent organizations that can supply trained helpers from the schools will do a most useful and necessary work.

The Cleveland Administration

From the Springfield Republican.

The Cleveland administration has paid $135,000,000 of the rebel debt—beg pardon—of the debt of the United States in eighteen months. Why should John Sherman sneer at the financial admininstration, when the condition of the treasury is in every respect more stable to-day than when Arthur went out of office, except that the silver coinage has continued to flow.

The Richest Man in the World would be poor without health. The dying millionaire consumptive would exchange all he is worth for a new lease of life. He could have had it for a song had he used Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" before the disease had reached its last stages. This wonderful preparation is a positive cure for consumption if taken in time. For all diseases of the throat and lungs it unequaled. All druggists. W,S&W

"Diseases, desperate grown, by desperate applances are relieved, or not at all." The point of wisdom is to check them before they reach so far by buying a bottle of Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents.

"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to directions.

Try St. Jacobs Oil. It has permanently cured millions of people of rheumatism.

AMERICANS AS ATHLETES

The love of out-door sports and athletics in general is getting to be almost as distinguishing a characteristic of Americans as of Englishmen. G. D. Baird, of New York City, says:

"I heartily recommend to the athletic fraternity the use of Allcock's Porous Plasters. They have been a standard remedy in our family for years for all chest and lung disorders, as well as for treating inflammations."

Do Not Be Deceived

Hypocrisy is the compliment that vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the compliment failure pays to success. The name—not the character—of Benson's Capcine Plasters is imitated by unscrupulous parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Capicin," "Capsicum," "Capsicine," "Capucin" plasters, with the manifest intention to deceive. So cunningly and boldly is this done that careless people are doubtless sometimes beguiled into buying such articles in place of the genuine. Happily the number who follow this vocation decreases every year through the refusal of reputable dealers to handle the imitation goods, meanwhile be cautious. In the middle of the genuine is cut or poroused the word "Capcine," and on the face cloth is the "Three Seals" trademark. Ask for Benson's—then examine. One Benson is worth a dozen of any other kind. MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Care for the Children.

Children feel the debility of the changing seasons, even more than adults, and they become cross, peevish, and uncomfortable. The blood should be cleansed and the system invigorated by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Last Spring my two children were vaccinated. Soon after, they broke all out with running sores, so dreadful I thought I should lose them. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured them completely; and they have been healthy ever since. I do feel that Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children to me." MRS. C. L. THOMPSON, West Warren, Mass.

Purify the Blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown. Send for book containing additional evidence.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Hoods Sarsaparilla beats all others and is worth its weight in gold." I. BARRINGTON, No. 130 Bank Street, New York City.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

ECZEMA

AND EVERY SPECIES OF ITCHING AND BURNING DISEASES CURED BY CUTICURA.

ECZEMA, or Salt Rheum, with its agonizing Itching and burning, instantly relieved by a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single application of CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure. This repeated daily, with two or three doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the New Blood Purifier, to keep the blood cool, the perspiration pure and unirritating, the bowels open, the liver and kidneys active, will speedily cure Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Lichen, Pruritus, Scald Head, Dandruff, and every species of Itching, Scaly and Pimply Humors of the Scalp and Skin, when the best physicians and all known remedies fail.

ECZEMA.

I gratefully acknowledge a cure of Eczema, or Salt Rheum, on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help myself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced my case hopeless; permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. WILL McDONALD, No. 2542 Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill.

ECZEMA.

Some five months ago I had the pleasure to inform you of my improvement by the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES in my case of severe Chronic Eczema Erythematosa, and to-day cheerfully confirm all I then said. I consider my cure perfect and complete, and attribute it entirely to your remedies, having used no others. FERNAN ESENCHARDO, No. 2306 Penna. Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

ECZEMA.

I have suffered from Salt Rheum for over eight years, at times so bad that I could not attend to my business for weeks at a time. Three boxes of CUTICURA and four bottles of RESOLVENT have entirely cured me of this dreadful disease. MR. JOHN THIEL, Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Catarrh Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent and an Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.
