HER ANSWER.

On my right at a dinner sat Mollie,
On my left there was little May Belle,
Who is always so sparkling and jolly
And who likes me, I fancy, quite well.

The former somehow spoke of ages;
"Now, what would you take me to be?"
I asked. She replied "Of Methe pages
I suppose you have turned twenty-three."

Miss Belle, on my left, was abstracted,
And did not our words overhear,
Nor knew she the answer expected
As I whispered quite low in her ear:

"And what would you take me for, Mary?"
And then this small maiden perverse,
From out of abstraction, quite wary,
Responded, "For better or worse."

Messrs Bostwick and Rockefeller's Gifts.

From the Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

"Mr. Bostwick and the Rockefellers are liberal givers, and the Baptist educational and missionary societies have had occasion from year to year to thank the Standard Oil people for their generous contributions."—New York Tribune.

And The Tribune might have added that what they give is given in a manner the most pleasant possible. There is a great difference in rich men as to the way in which they give. Some seem to take a delight in saying the most disagreeable things to the agents of good causes who solicit their favor. We once heard it said of a rich man that his highest idea of heaven was to have two or three preachers around him soliciting aid for good causes, to whom he could say ugly things, which he would not dare to utter to any other gentleman. Then there are others who make none but conditional subscriptions, and they often make the conditions so difficult that one is tempted to suspect that they wish to get the credit of being generous, and yet escape paying the subscription. But "the Standard Oil people," in whose praise The Tribune speaks, are as much noted for the beautiful and unostentatious manner in which they give as for the greatness of their gifts. We shall never forget a call we made on Mr. John D. Rockefeller, at his home in Cleveland, a few years ago. We handed him a note of introduction from the preacher who baptized him (the Rev. Dr. Duncan, then of Cincinnati, now of Rochester) and told him about Richmond college. He listened a moment and asked, "what do you wish me to give?" We answered: "Ten thousand dollars." As quick as thought he answered: "I will give you $5,000 now, and if I should ever be inclined to give another $5,000, you will know." It was all over in ten minutes, and we left feeling that it was worth five times five thousand, the way he did it. A few days after that we called at Mr. J. A. Bostwick's home, in New York city, and handed him a note of introduction from the Hon. J. L. M. Curry. A few words passed, and Mr. Bostwick said "I will be happy to send you my check for $2,000.

The Baptists of the whole country have abundant reason to thank these great givers as The Tribune says; but their gifts are not circumscribed by denominational lines. They give in every direction and to almost every good object; but they have a system of their own, and to write to them is only to waste time and stationary. Men who give in that way should not be worried with promiscuous appeals. Happy New Year to "The Standard Oil people!"

Defying Justice.

From the San Francisco Alta.

They tell a story in a Shasta town about a justice of the peace who fined a citizen $15 for some offense. "I won't pay it," said the man, "Will you pay ten?" demanded the justice. "No." "By God, then, gimme five," pleaded the justice, but the delinquent swore he wouldn't pay a cent, and he didn't, and that was the end of it.

Seventeen Western Horses Sold.

From the Reading Times.

Wednesday afternoon, J. G. Keiser, sold seventeen head of fine Iowa horses at the Hotel National, corner Eighth and Washington streets, at an average price of $175. Buyers were present from Schuylkill, Lancaster and Berks counties. Davis and Hornberger were the auctioneers.

Compensation.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch.

Prospective lodger—"And is there a fire in the room?"

Landlady—"No, but there is the most beautiful picture of an Italian sunset you ever saw."

Where Are You Going?

If you have pain in the back, pale and sallow complexion, bilious or sick headache, eruptions on the skin, coated tongue, sluggish circulation, or a hacking cough, you are going into your grave if you do not take steps to cure yourself. If you are wise you will do this by the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," compounded of the most efficacious ingredients known to medical science for giving health and strength to the system through the medium of the liver and the blood. Tu,F&w

The Only Way to Conquer Dyspepsia.

It is perfectly preposterous to introduce pepsin and other artificial solvents into the stomach, in the expectation that they will assist digestion by acting on the food itself. They will not. Nor is it possible thus to overcome dyspepsia. The only way to conquer that disorder, and prevent the numerous diseases and disabilities which it assuredly provokes, is to renew the activity of gastric action by strengthening the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters eradicates the most inveterate forms of indigestion by restoring vitality to the alimentary organs, and those which are tributary to them. The liver, the bowels, the kidneys and the nerves, no less than the stomach, experience the invigorative effects of that standard tonic, which possesses alterative properties that greatly enhance its beneficial influence, and give a permanence to its effects which they would not otherwise possess. janitos

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Do Not Move Blindly.

Go carefully in purchasing medicine. Many advertised remedies can work great injury—a is worse than none. Burdock Blood Bitters are purely a vegetable preparation; the smallest child can take them. They kill disease and cure the patient in a safe and kindly way. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Depend Upon It.

Mother Shipton's prophesies and Louis'ana elections are very uncertain things, but Thomas' Eclectric Oil can be depended upon always. It cures aches and pains of every description. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

First Rate Evidence.

"Often unable to attend business, being subject to serious disorder of the kidneys. After a long siege of sickness tried tried Burdock Blood Bitters and was relieved by half a bottle." Mr. B. Turner, of Rochester, N. Y., takes the pains to writes. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

How Much Will Do It?

How much of Thomas' Eclectric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an ache; and but a trifle more is needed for sprains and lameness. Rheumatism is not so readily affected; an ounce and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however, is so sure to cure with the same number of applications. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

"Don't Hurry, Gentlemen."

Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till I get there." We say to the dyspeptic, nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thoughtlessly for some remedy of doubtful merit, uncertain of relief, when you can get at the druggists for one dollar Burdock Blood Bitters a most sure to cure and certain to benefit. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Newspaper Editor.

O. M. Holcomb, of Bloomville, Ohio, rises to explain: "Had that terrible disease catarrh, for twenty years; couldn't taste or smell, and hearing was failing. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. These are facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patent medicine." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will, by its own action, reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past few years obliges us to admit that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms quickly yield to it. 15-2wdeod&w

MEDICAL.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

WE SUBMIT FACTS

In regard to Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism, and ask you if you are afflicted with this disease to try the medicine which has so greatly benefited others. Hundreds of people who suffered the tortures of rheumatism, even in its severest forms, have been perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. It corrects the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of the disease, and gives strength and vigor to every part of the body.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla last spring, and can truly say it helped me very much. To those suffering with bilious complaints, nervous prostration or rheumatism, I earnestly recommend it." MRS. E. CARPENTER Kalamazoo, Mich.

"Some twenty years ago I had my right ankle dislocated, and it has been weak ever since. About ten years ago I was exposed to severe cold and came near freezing. Since then I have often been troubled with rheumatism, affecting me most in the right ankle. I suffered severely during last winter, and tried Hood's Sarsaparilla as a help. It gave me almost immediate relief, and I keep it constantly ready for use. If it does as well for others as it has done for me, it is worth many times its cost." L. T. BUNT Kenton, Ohio.

A Happy New Year to All.

We take this opportunity at the opening of the New Year to express our thanks to our many friends for so liberal share of their patronage during the past year, and especially for that during the late Holiday Season. Our effort in bringing new articles as they appear in the market to Lancaster has been appreciated, and it will serve as a stimulus in the future. We shall endeavor during the year we have just entered to follow up that same line of policy and give to the people of Lancaster, as far as possible, the same privilege as those enjoyed in larger cities. All new wares shall find room on our shelves, and through them into the Lancaster city and county homes. Our prices shall always be as low as possible, quality being considered.

A hearty invitation is extended to all to visit our store, whether purchasing or simply looking shall receive the same courteous attention.

Our motto shall be, "Fair and honest dealing with all."
