THE FAREWELL OF THE OLD YEAR.

When the moments of friendship are numbered,
How it it appears
That the love which in laughter has slumbered
Awakes now in tears!

We are friends that have journeyed together
Long time, you and I,
Through sunshine and stormiest weather,
But the Old Year must die.

And while in your hearts will awaken
A bitter regret,
And the paths that your feet have forsaken
You cannot forget.

Yet I pray you to mourn not my going,
Though we have been friends.
What am I but one billow, whose flowing
Has touched shore and ends?

And the tide of my joy and my sorrow
Lives but as the trace
Of the waves, that the tides of the morrow
In twain shall efface.

Yet I leave you, as waves leave their treasures
Of coral and shell,
A gift, passing sorrows and pleasures,
Our friendship to tell.

I leave you the friendships, whose growing
Has been from by birth;
There is naught the tide brings in flowing
Can equal in it worth.

For as shells from the murmurs of ocean
Steal echoes that last,
So in friendship is stirred the emotion
Of years that are past

—Francis William Bourdillon.

A VISIT.

He timidly climbed up the brown stone steps,
He timidly rang the bell;
He felt that this visit might be his last,
But why so he could not tell.

As he stood at the door the winter wind
Whistled in the streets about,
But above its roaring he heard her say,
"John, tell him that I am out."

As the door was opened with stately mein,
He said to the butler tall,
"Pray, go to Miss Jones with my compliments,
"And tell her I did not call."

—Williams Weekly.

Everyone is entirely willing to be his neighbor's physician; yet tried remedies should only be employed. The popularity of Lazador is constantly increasing, which testifies to the real worth of this valuable family medicine. It costs only 25 cents.

Always reliable and efficacious. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup never disappoints mothers and nurses, but cures at once the troublesome diseases of babyhood. Sold everywhere at 25 cents a bottle.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

HOW I SUFFERED

Seventeen Years from a Skin Disease—Could Not Walk or Even Myself—A Mass of Disease From Head to Foot—Cured in Eight Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies.

At the age of three months a rash (which afterwards proved to be eczema or salt rheum) made its appearance on my face. A physician was called. He said nothing was the cause; he prescribed some cooling medicine, but the rash spread to my entire head. Another M. D. was called, he was supposed to know all about the case, called it "King's Evil," and prescribed gunpowder, brimstone and lard mixed into a salve; but the disease continued. They could not do anything with it. Another prominent man, who had had great success with scrofulous cases, some of them did me any good at all, but made me worse. The disease continued spreading; it spread to my arms and legs, till I was laid up helpless, and from constantly sitting on the floor on a pillow my limbs contracted so that I lost all control of them, and was utterly helpless. My mother would have to lift me out and into bed. I could get around the house on my hands and feet, but I could not get my clothes on at all, and had to wear a pair of dressing gown. My hair had all matted down or fallen off, and my head, face and ears were one sore scab, and I had to have a bandage on my head all the time in the summer to keep the flies off. My parents consulted a prominent physician and surgeon here in Chicago (the other physicians before mentioned were of Dundas and Hamilton, Canada) he said he could do nothing for me. He wanted to cut the sinews of my legs, so that I could walk; but I would not let him, for if I did get better I would have no control of them.

The disease continued in this manner until I was seventeen years old, and one day in January, 1878, I read an account in the Tribune, of your CUTICURA REMEDIES. It described my case so exactly that I thought, as a last resort, to give them a trial.

When I first applied them I was all raw and bleeding, from scratching myself, but I went asleep almost immediately, something I had not done for years, the effect was so soothing.

In about two weeks I could stand straight, but not walk, I was so weak, but my sores were nearly well. As near as I can judge the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me in about six to eight weeks, and up to this date (i. e. from January, 1878, to January 1887) I have not been sick in any way or had the least signs of the disease reappearing on me.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influences. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffing and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste and hearing, and beneficially influencing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and an IMPROVED INHALER, price, $1.
