BILL NYE IN WASHINGTON.

His "Inauguration" the Chance There of Sleeping in a Hotel Elevator.

From the New York World.

SUNDAY—WILLARD'S HOTEL, OUT NO. 24 IN THE ELEVATOR, March 3.—We American people, accompanied by forty-nine bands, are here. We are here partly on account of our loyalty and partly in pursuit of Gen. Harrison, the last time we were the first to mention his name as a candidate. We are here to say some things about the president who goes out to-morrow, and who, therefore, cannot help us any more. Also to say good things of the new one who will kiss the Bible to-morrow and open a carload of parsnips for the patriotic A-mer-ican citizens, who are here not because they want anything at all but just because they want to show the new president they are going to stand by him even when he could get along very well by himself and would rather do so.

Everything is "inauguration" here. I inaugurated last night the custom of sleeping in the hotel elevator. It is a new thing with me. I have slept before all the crowned heads of Europe. Also in the park, but it is different from any of them. I have also slept in a foldingbed, in the gloaming and in a railroad accident, but the hotel elevator is more surprising than any of these.

This morning my wish-bone stuck out through the back of my overcoat. A fat man, who first thought of Gen. Harrison as a candidate and who never said anything else all his life, sat down on me and, drawing a deep sigh, remained sitting on me till I woke up and inserted my scarf pin in the northeast corner of his soul. He then arose and said that a sudden thought had just occurred to him.

Washington is a big amphitheatre of wet plank seats, which you can occupy tomorrow at from 25 cents to $5 per square. If I could have each an audience right along I would like to go into the president business for 75 per cent. of the gate receipts and pay the advertising expenses myself.

Indiana is all here with the exception of the postmaster at Indianapolis.

John C. New is entirely happy and well pleased to stay at his handsome Hoosier home while Gen. Harrison has to earn his salary here. Mr. New has tested the sweets of public life under Gen. Grant, and is honest in the statement that he would a good deal rather let "Lige" represent the Journal then to leave his comfortable home and become the servant of the United States at twice the salary of a cabinet officer.

As I seem to be swallowed up entirely in the crowd here, having registered in the elevator only, will the World kindly say to-morrow that I am here and that I am thoroughly beloved by all who know me.

BILL NYE.

A Corner in Grain.

From the Lowell Citizen.

Wife—I see that our neighbor, Bonds, is down again.

Husband — What is it this time? Wheat, I suppose?

Wife—No, I think from his appearance it was rye that has floored him now. And I don't want you to dabble with it any more, either.

The Time honored Notre Dame, Baltimore, Md

We have had ample opportunity to convince ourselves of the efficacy of Salvation Oil. We cheerfully submit our names to the public as reference, Respectfully, Sisters of Notre Dame, Aisquith & Eager Sts, Baltimore, Md.

No wonder people have confidence when the best physicians are prescribing Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Doubt Brightening into Hope,

And hope into certainty, is the pleasing transition through which the mind of the nervous, dyspeptic invalid passes who tries a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is alike incomparable and inimitable. Increased vitality, a gain in weight, tranquillity of the nerves, sound appetite and sleep are among the blessings which it is within the beneficent power of this medicine to confer, and it is not surprising that after acquiring this new dowry of health the grateful sick should sometimes utter their praises of the Bitters in terms bordering on extravagance. "Out of the fulness of the heart the mouth speaketh," and the proprietors of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have sometimes been obliged to suppress these eloquens lest they should be accused of blowing their own trumpet too loudly. For constipation, biliousness, kidney complaint and incipient rheumatism the Bitters is also a deservedly popular remedy.

Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 931 Arch street, Philadelphia. Ease at once, no operation or delay from business, attested by thousands of cures after others fail, advice free, send for circular. mar10-lyd&w

CURES RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism

According to recent investigations it consists in a state of lactic acid in the blood, produced by the fermentation of the lactic acid in the stomach and bowels, and deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the pain, swelling and stiffness. But in the opinion of many people who suffer it is due to the presence of impurities in the blood, which the kidneys fail to get out of the way. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying and vitalizing action neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I was laid up for six months with rheumatism, and used many kinds of medicine without good result till one of my neighbors told me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had used half a bottle I felt better, and after taking two bottles I think I was entirely cured, as I have not had an attack of rheumatism since." ROBERT H. DEDOE, Rossville, Staten Island, N. Y.

Cures Rheumatism

"I had attacks of rheumatism which incapacitated me severely. I took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am pleased to say the rheumatic pains ceased, my appetite and digestion became better, and my general health greatly improved. I am firmly convinced that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me, as I have felt no recurrence of this blood disease." WM. SCOTT, Geneva, N. Y.

"After an extensive practice of nearly one-third of a century, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is my cure for recent colds and coughs. I prescribe it and believe it to be the very best expectorant now offered to the people."—Dr. John G. Levis, Druggist, West Bridgewater, Pa.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again a little troubled with the disease, I was promptly the same remedy. I gladly offer this remedy for the benefit of all similarly afflicted."—F. H. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb.
