Foreign and Domestic Goods

Before enumerating our stock we wish to make known to the public a most singular fact: That the onward march of our glorious army, the great success of Burnside and Goldsboro in North Carolina, the energetic advance of Foote and Grant on the Cumberland, the fall of Forts Henry and Donelson, and the capture of sixteen thousand prisoners, should cause such a sudden downfall of prices in Cotton Goods in Carlisle, while it has made no material change of prices in our Eastern cities, nor the opening of cotton ports along our coast has not lowered the prices. But the opening of the great "Cotton Emporium," or "Regulator," as some of our customers have styled our establishment from Chambersburg, that has had the desired effect and brought goods to their proper prices. In view of the above fact we would respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage. Look to your interests then and sustain the house that is the means of lowering the extravagantly high prices.

OLD FOLKS.

ALL attired in ancient costumes, will give two of their grand Old Fashioned Concerts at RHEEM'S HALL, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 12th and 13th.

The entire Company will appear in their ancient costumes, many of which were worn from 60 to 300 years ago, presenting a singular contrast to the fashions of the present day. The Programme will consist of the ancient style of Fugue and Fireside tunes and Anthems, interspersed with appropriate modern selections and patriotic songs especially adapted to the times.

This is the only organization in the World who are exhibiting to the present generation the peculiar Music, Manners, and Costumes of their Fore-Fathers and Mothers. The Old Folks will be assisted by Mrs. Emma J. Nichols,

The Young American Songstress, and

Mrs. GEORGIE SHEPPARD, the Accomplished Vocalist, also Mr. J. T. Gulick the celebrated Baso, and Mr. J. H. Holloway.

Mrs. Nichols will appear at all the Concerts of the Old Folks, attired in a Full Court Costume, worn by Queen Elizabeth, of England, 300 years ago.—This dress was presented to Mrs. Nichols while concertizing in England with Father Kemp, the particulars of which will be stated at the Concert.

"Aunt Rachel," "Cousin Reuben," and "Granny Slocum," will also be present and "fine in singin."

Father Gulick will lead the exercises, deacon the hymns, and give the pitch from a veritable Pitch Pipe of ye olden time.

An afternoon performance will be given on Thursday at 3 o'clock, for the accomodation of Ladies and Children.

TICKETS 25 cents. Children 15 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Commence at 7½.
