NEW PAPER HANGING ESTABLISHMENT.—At this time of the year, when housekeepers feel in the notion of fixing up and making improvments for their comfort, it will not be amiss to direct their attention to the new establishment of Messrs. LONGSTRETH & BROTHERS, in Third street, above Market, Philadelphia, whose advertisement will be found in another column. The assortment of Messrs LONGSTRETH is perhaps one of the finest and most beautiful to be found in the city, and it will be well worth a visit from our readers, in all sections, to examine their stock before making their purchases

☞The Verdict of the public has long since been given and it is now an old and well-established fact that the cheapest, best, most extensive and most fashionable stock of gentlemen's clothing to be found in this or any other city, is at Rockhill & Wilson's, 111 Chestnut st., corner of Franklin Place, Philadelphia. Their spring supplies are unusually fine Go and examine them.

Philadelphia, April 2, 1853

PHILADELPHIA AND NEW YORK CLOTHING STORE (near the Bridge, Front street, Columbia,) re-opened.—Ready-made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, also a choice assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings on hand, and constantly receiving new styles, which will be cut and made to order in the best manner and most approved styles

N. B. Patterns furnished by gentlemen will be made and trimmed in best customer style, at reasonable rates and short notice.
