PEOPLE'S BOOK STORE.

THE OLDEST STAND. NEWEST STOCK.

J. J. SPRENGER. W. M. WESTHAEFFER.

HAVING just received their Fall Stock of Books, Stationery, &c., are now prepared to hold out inducements to the public, such as have never been offered in the history of Lancaster Book Stores.

The liberal encouragement extended by the public, since we are in business, has spurred us to renewed energy. To sell books as low as the lowest, and as good as the best, is now our aim. In consequence of the stringency in the Money Market, and the extraordinary low prices at which books, Stationery, &c., sold at the late Trade Sales in Philadelphia and New York, Teachers of Public Schools will find it greatly to their advantage to call on us before selecting their books, &c.

We would here respectfully say that we employ no Country Agents, preferring to remain at home, and give the purchaser the benefit of any expense which would otherwise arise by selling our Books, &c., at a lower figure.

We have all the school books now in use in the County of Lancaster, all of which, we are prepared to sell wholesale or retail, making the most liberal reduction to dealers.

Our Stock of Miscellaneous Books, is unusually large this season, and much of it is of a character not to be found elsewhere. The Reading Public will possibly do us the favor to bear in mind, when they select their books for the winter. We intend to sell the best of the country, both English and German, which will be received on the first day of publication.

In our stock of Foolscap, Letter, Note, and all other papers, we do not comment as we pay particular attention to this branch of our business.

We have the most extensive assortment of Gold Pens for Ladies and Gentlemen, and take great pleasure in making the public acquainted with the fact that we sell these articles on such an unparalleled rate of cheap, that no one who can judge of the qualities of an A No 1 Gold Pen, will feel satisfied that he has got the article that he came down-town to make writing a pleasant task.

OUR STOCK OF FANCY GOODS, such as Portemonnaies, Purses, Card Cases, &c., &c., is as extensive and cheap, and we invite the especial attention of the ladies to the same. We have also a very fine stock of Albums, Pocket-Books, Writing Desks, &c. We keep constantly on hand a great variety of Mourning for Private Houses, and are prepared to furnish parties of any size at the shortest notice and a very low price. Our receipts of goods by Express are almost daily, so that we are enabled to supply such articles as may be ordered in a short or reasonable time.

In conclusion we can safely accord a continuance of public patronage, with the assurance that no effort will be wanting on our part to merit the distinction and liberal patronage so generously bestowed upon the "People's Book Store."

No Sign of the Golden Mortar.
