SPRING FASHIONS.

At the Fashionable HAT EMPORIUM.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has just returned from the city, with a well selected, and entirely new stock of

HATS AND CAPS,

of every description, which he now offers, at his new store, Front street, adjoining the Washington House, at the lowest cash rates.

Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.—The stock is entirely new, and of the latest styles.

JAMES D. GRIFFITH.

Also, a fresh supply of Hats and Caps.

☞ Prompt attention given to ordered hats.

Columbia, April 2, 1858.

AND STILL ANOTHER CARD.

An Ordinary Old Style Arrangement.

AS it has become customary for the Merchants of our borough, to specify their mode of doing business, the undersigned respectfully call the attention and solicit the patronage of the inhabitants of Columbia, to the store of I. O. Bruner & Co., on the corner of Third and Union streets. They do not intend to put people to the expense of maintaining several or even one person to pass people's goods in the city, but buy their own goods for cash, collect their own sales, dirty their own store windows, and are willing to credit all who, in their judgment, do not expect to pay cent from the day of sale.

We have just received a new and full assortment of dry goods, which, in quality and style, the best ladies and children's shoes of the manufacture, have a full supply, intending to sell at lower rates than any other store in the city.

I. O. BRUNER,
H. P. BRUNER.
