We heard of one event—one pleasant surprise that occurred at the dinner table of a friend of ours on Christmas day, which, for its novelty is worth recording. The family were seated at the festive board returning thanks in the fulness of their heart for the blessings bestowed upon them, when a loud tapping was heard at the door of the dining-room. Our friend answered 'walk in,' when a young woman entered, bearing on a waiter, a mammoth pie, and advancing towards him, said in as pretty a tone as can be imagined, 'May it please you, sir, Mr. St. Nicholas desires you to accept this pie.—It was too big to drop down the chimney this morning, so he has sent it to you from an upper window.' The girl curtseyed and went her way. Our friend's little ones sent forth a joyful shout, and he himself, we presume, was a little mystified. The pie, however, was placed upon the table, and with a good sharp knife he began to cut—no juice exuded—no perfume of spicery was exhaled: but there was that which resisted the knife. Our friend lifted the upper crust and peeped in, and lo! the contents! Christmas presents innumerable!—Embroidered collars for the wife, and a cameo breast-pin for the single sister. Portfolios, nightcaps, working implements, &c., for the guests, boxes of sweetmeats and confectionary for the children, and omnibus tickets for a relative who is a thorough utilitarian, &c., &c.—Boston Transcript.

OPINION OF THE PRESS.

☞ From the Huntingdon, Pa., Journal of November 3d, 1841.

☞ It is not often that we notice any of the thousand medicines advertised in our or any other paper. But when any medicine is offered to the public which we feel assured is really valuable, we cannot do otherwise than to say so.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will be found advertised in our paper, of this week. It is the preparation of a practising physician, and cannot bear the name of quack medicine; and furthermore, we have seen the efficacy of it tested, and are willing to add ours to the general recommendation.

A. Williams, Esq., 58 William street New York—himself cured of Asthma of 24 years standing by this medicine—says that he took a half dozen bottles of Wistar's Balsam on his voyage to Liverpool in March, 1843, and had the satisfaction of curing a number of inveterate cases of difficult breathing and asthma, while on board the ship. The fact is there is no medicine like this in the whole range of remedial agents.

"WHO MAKE YOU DAT WIG?" said a little French perfumer to us the other day. "Madame la Nature, assisted by Dr. JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC," was our reply. "Sacre!" exclaimed the coiffeur, "why your tele was smood as de block in my shop tree mont ince." "Very true," was our reply, "but as my head is not a block," Dr. Jayne's Tonic—which will make the hair grow on any thing but a block—has restored it as you see." Shrugging his shoulders, and venting another "Sacre!" in a tone of mingled astonishment and admiration, the little hair dresser went on his way marvelling.

Comly's Spelling Book Enlarged.

A New Spelling Book, compiled with a view to render the arts of Spelling and Reading easy and pleasant to children, by John Comly; to which is added a variety of useful exercises, so arranged as to familiarize the pupil with the correct Spelling, Pronunciation and Meaning, of about two thousand ambiguous or difficult words.

As many of the ambiguous words require more than the mere sound to distinguish them, they have all been associated with brief but clear definitions, which will enable the pupil more easily to understand and remember them. Philadelphia: Published by Kimber & Sharpless, No. 56 North Fourth Street.

☞ These books have been introduced into all the Schools, Public and Private, in this Borough; and also at Orwigsburg, and the adjacent Townships,—they are far superior to Cobb's Spelling Books and are offered at the same price.

☞ The subscriber has made arrangements by which he is enabled to supply the Books, Wholesale, at the Publisher's prices, and by Retail at less than Philadelphia prices

The Philosopher's Stone.—In other words a panacea for all diseases—was diligently sought for, but never found, by the old alchemists. In these modern days, however, one medicine has been invented which is a specific for at least a dozen diseases. We mean Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, which is certified by men of the highest standing in society, to be a speedy cure for worms, intermittent fever, dyspepsia, piles, dysentery, acidity of the stomach, and all other complaints affecting the stomach and bowels. Its stomachic, as well as alternative qualities, are highly beneficial in all cases where disease is accompanied by a partial prostration of the bodily powers. While it removes obstruction, it imparts tone and vigor to the digestive functions.

The Most Common Saying

IS that I would not give one bottle of Dr. SWAYNE'S Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, for half a dozen of any other preparation. I have tried all the popular ones, but this stands unrivalled for the cure of the following diseases, viz:—Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Spitting of Blood, Palpitation of the Heart, Whooping Cough, Tickling or rising sensation in the throat, Bronchitis, Asthma, or weakness of the Nervous System, or impaired constitution from any cause, and to prevent persons from falling into a DECLINE, this medicine has not its equal.

And when too much calomel or quinine has been used, this medicine will prevent its evil effect on the system, and repair the biliary functions. As a proof of the above medicine giving great strength and clearness to the voice, a gentlemen from one of our large auctioneer establishments in Philadelphia, who has been using this Syrup, says that it is the greatest medicine to cry on he ever saw. Of course, the Minister or Lawyer, who have to exert their voices, would be equally benefitted. Reference will be given to the auctioneer, by calling at my office.

CAUTION.—All preparations from this valuable tree except the original Doct. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, are fictitious and counterfeit.—Prepared only by Doct. Swayne, whose office is now removed to N. W. corner of Eighth and Race streets, Philadelphia.

WORMS ARE SWEPT AWAY from the stomach and bowels by Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, as by the besom of destruction. They perish under its searching influence instantly, and are expelled with the means in which they are imbedded. The cure is in almost all cases permanent, and if a recurrence of the disorder should take place, a few doses of the preparation will never fail to produce the desired object—for the effect does not weaken with repetition.—Those who suffer from piles or remittent fever, or any complaint where a mild tonic or alterative may be desirable, will find in Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, a most valuable remedy.

NO HUMBUG. LIGHT AT HALF PRICE.

THE general introduction of Neal's Patent Lard Lamp, for burning common Lard, will be a saving in the item of light, of at least 50 per cent. in this community, and the immense sum of money which is annually drained from Schuylkill county, will be retained in a great measure at home, and circulated among our farmers in the neighborhood, for lard. This is certainly a great desideratum.

The following are voluntary certificates, given by citizens of this Borough, in favor of the Lamps, who have had them in use:

POTTSVILLE, November 27th 1843.

MR. BANNAN:—We have tried Neal's Patent Lard Lamp, and find that it gives a much better light than with the use of Sperm Oil, and gives quite as much light as two candles. It is entirely free from any unpleasant smell—the smoke, what little there is, soils nothing, and it is a saving of about 50 per cent. over the use of the best Sperm Oil, at the present prices. The common Lard, as it comes from the Butchers, is used in these Lamps.

CHARLES LAWTON,
JOHN G. MARTIN,
JOSEPH F. SEIDERS
DANIEL H. LEIB.

MOUNT CARBON, November 24th, 1843.

MR. BANNAN:—I have used Neal's Patent Lard Lamp, for about four months, and find it superior to any Lamp, I have ever used. With Lard it gives a much better light than with oil, is a very great saving, and is free from all unpleasant smell. I find also that I can burn the most common 50 cent oil, mixed with half Lard for winter use, which gives a much brighter light than the best Sperm Oil, and is as free from that unpleasant smell, which renders Lamps disagreeable, as the best sperm oil is, at half the price.

JOSEPH ALLEN.

We may here remark that if any person becomes tired of using Lard, or if the price should approach to near the price of Oil, he has a much better Oil Lamp than any now in use, unless it is the Diacon Lamp, which costs a very high price. With one of these Lamps the wick can be constantly supplied with Oil, by a very simple process.
