AN ORDINANCE SELECTING AND APPROPRIATING a certain tract of ground in the Twenty-second Ward as a park and open place for the health and enjoyment of the people, authorizing the placing of the same upon the City plan, and directing the Commissioners of Fairmount Park to assume the custody and maintenance of the same.

Whereas, On November 28, 1911, Henry Pratt McKean, Thomas McKean, Maria McKean, Allen and Phoebe Warren McKean Downes conveyed to the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, as a memorial to their father, Thomas McKean, and their mother, Elizabeth Wharton McKean, a portion of their old homestead, containing about ten and one-half acres, bounded by Wissahickon avenue, Walnut Hill Road, Schuylkill street and Abbotsford avenue, as a public park, to be called Fernhill Park, and also donated the sum of $26,000 for the improvement of the same; and

And Whereas, The City of Philadelphia, recognizing the liberality of the above said donors, and desiring to preserve for use as a public park the beautiful property of the McKean homestead tract; now, therefore,

Section 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain: That by virtue and in pursuance of the authority vested in them by the fourth section of an Act of Assembly, approved May 11, 1887, they do select and appropriate for park purposes and for the health and enjoyment of the people forever all that certain tract of ground lying in the Twenty-second Ward bounded and described as follows: All that certain lot or piece of ground, situate in the Twenty-second Ward of the City of Philadelphia, bounded by the southeast side of Abbotsford avenue, extending southeastwardly along Morris street, and the line of the southwest side of Morris street, continued southwestwardly to Roberts avenue, the northwest side of Roberts avenue, and the northeast side of said street; also including the strip of land one hundred and twenty-five (125) feet in width, or thereabouts, on the northwestwardly side of Roberts avenue, from the southwestwardly line of Morris street, continued southwestwardly, as the same are confirmed on the City plan, and containing 42.65 acres.

Section 2. The Mayor is hereby authorized and directed to enter security in the name of the City of Philadelphia for the payment of any damages that may be awarded by reason of the taking of said ground, and the City Solicitor is hereby directed to file in the Court of Quarter Sessions a petition on behalf of the City, setting forth the ground herein appropriated, to the end that said Court shall appoint a jury to assess damages as provided by law.

Section 3. The tract of ground taken by authority of this ordinance is hereby transferred to the custody and management of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, to be controlled and managed by the said Commissioners as a park or open public place for the health and enjoyment of the people, subject to such regulations as the said Commissioners shall adopt. Provided, that the City shall have the right over any streets now upon the City plan, extending across or through said park.

Section 4. The Director of Public Works and Board of Surveyors are hereby authorized and directed to place the said tract of ground, described in Section 1 of this ordinance, upon the City plan, to be called Fernhill Park.

Approved the Thirteenth day of December, A. D. 1915.
