PROSPECTUS OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, FOR 1862.

THE January number will commence the Ninth Volume of this Magazine. Its very large and still increasing circulation is gratifying evidence of public appreciation, and no industry will be spared to render the forthcoming volume adequate to the requirements of times so pregnant with great events as those of to-day. The life of the Republic the best interests of the nation, demand of literature, in manly and generous union and the conducters of this Journal will renew their efforts in enlisting the best talent of the country to support with vigor and eloquence those opinions and principles which brace the great public heart to stand firm on the side of Freedom and Right. An elevated national American spirit will always be found illustrated in these pages. The ATLANTIC MONTHLY will never give place to the best literature, and it will be the constant aim of its conductors to render its variety greater and its attractions better each month than the last.

Among the contributions already in hand for 1862, are the following well commend themselves as sufficient inducements for every family to provide the forthcoming numbers for household reading:

PROFESSOR AGASSIZ will begin in the January number a series of articles on Natural History, and other kindred topics, to be continued from month to month throughout the year. The name of so distinguished a man of science in connection with this announcement is a sufficient guaranty of the great benefit to be derived from his monthly contributions.

A NEW Romance by NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE will appear in THE ATLANTIC early in the year.

A new Story by the late THEODORE WINTHROP, author of "Cecil Dreeme," will be commenced in the January number.

DR. GEORGE B. WINSHIP well known for his remarkable experiments in Conversation, has written for THE ATLANTIC "The Autobiography of a Strength Seeker," giving an account of his method of training for feats of strength, with advice on matters of Health.

The author of "Life in the Iron Mills" gives a Story of "To-Day," will contribute a series of Tales during the year.

Articles by PROFESSOR JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL on topics of an equal interest will appear frequently.

BAYARD TAYLOR has written a story which will be printed in the February number.

The Staff of Writers in Prose and Poetry contributing regularly to the ATLANTIC MONTHLY comprises among its pages or pillars the following:

James Russell Lowell, Charles E. Norton,
Henry W. Longfellow, George S. Hillard,
Ralph Waldo Emerson, Henry Giles,
Nathaniel Hawthorne, Rev. Walter Mitchell,
O. W. Holmes, Mrs. H. B. Stowe,

"Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the Kind in the World."

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, in whose pages a re to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the cheap monthly, and the more philosophical quarterly, but filled with the best features of the dairy journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TUCKER'S Guide to American Literature London

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has had so many readers, and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The articles never lag, and the mechanical execution not one the less a more unremitting friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore)

TERMS

The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or TWENTY FIVE CENTS a Number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and Muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish to bind their back numbers uniformly bound, at Twenty-five Cents each.—Twenty-two Volumes are now ready, bound in Cloth, and also in Half Calf.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with Booksellers and Agents for disposing of the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs of Two Persons at Five Dollars a year, or Five Persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system encumbered, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely dose of the right remedy. The Ayers Pills, and cleanse out the disorder in the most—purge the blood and let the humors move on unobstructed. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which if left to fester, breed disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangement, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they remove the natural action of the system, and with it the heavy feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in every of the deep-seated and dangerous disorders to which the human flesh is subject, and which, if not promptly met, grow and fasten upon the vitals, they take root and fasten, and many of them become incurable, if not fatal. Many of these diseases, which are insidious in their first approaches, and which, if neglected, or treated with the ordinary remedies, they may run for years, or even for a lifetime, are cured by this, the most powerful of all purgatives, when they are taken in time. Some of the most stubborn and dangerous diseases, such as Dropsy, Pleurisy, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Piles, Ulcers, Eruptions, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Dysentery, Worms, Paralysis, Fits, Blindness, Deafness, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Sore Eyes, Sore Throat, Mercurial Disease, Mercury in the bones, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Nodes, Blains, Swellings, Lumbago, Gravel, Stone, Gout, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Tic Doloureux, Female Complaints, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Hearing, Nasal Discharges, Ringworm, Erysipelas, Scald Head
