CITY ITEMS

FINE OLD BRANDY FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES.—The proprietors of the popular old grocery stand of the late C. H. Mattson, Arch and Tenth streets, have now on hand a very superior article of Old Brandy, admirably adapted for medicinal purposes.

MESSRS. CHARLES OAKFORD & SONS, under the Continental Hotel, are now selling their entire stock of elegant Summer Goods for Children and Youth at and below cost of importation.

FOR THE LUXURY OF AN ELEGANTLY-FITTING SHIRT, go to the popular Gentlemen's Furnishing Store of Mr. George Grant, No. 610 Chestnut street.

FINE MILITARY GOODS, of every description, suitable for Army and Navy officers, can be had, at moderate prices, at Oakford & Sons', under the Continental Hotel.

LET A MAN LIVE as long as he will, the first thirty years of his life will always seem the longest; and the daily routine of our after life passes like the round of a clock, while the hands on the outside and the movements within mark the passing of time by others, till the weight has run down, and the pendulum stands still. In order that a man should pass his life pleasantly, he should act according to the laws of Nature, and enjoy life by enrobing himself in the neat and substantial garments manufactured at that great one-price Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street.

EFFECTS OF MENTAL EXCITEMENT.—A scientific writer says that bad news weakens the action of the heart, oppresses the lungs, destroys the appetite, stops digestion, and partially suspends all the functions of the system. Powerful emotion often kills the body at a stroke; Philo Diagoras, and Sophocles died of joy at the Grecian games. The doorkeeper of Congress expired upon hearing of the surrender of Cornwallis. We hope no such effect will follow to any of the patrons of Charles Stokes & Co.'s One-Price, under the Continental, from joy on trying on their first suit from that establishment.

COULDN'T BE EXCUSED.—The chap who claimed exemption on the ground that he was entirely dependent upon a widowed mother for a support, did not get through, and he had to take his place in the ranks along with the man who had conscientious scruples upon the subject of hard tack and salt pork. Conscripts must come up to the building and don the Federal uniform; while those who are drawn to stay at home may enjoy the high privilege of wearing civilian suits that are made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

DYSENTERY, summer complaint, diarrhœa, cramps, colic, cholera, and all affections of the bowels, are cured promptly and effectually by Dr. Jayne's Carminative Balsam. Being pleasant to the taste, it is readily taken by children, and having maintained its popularity for over thirty years, it is confidently recommended as a standard household remedy.

Prepared only at 242 Chestnut street.
