Cheerily, Cheerily, Sing We All!

Cheerily, cheerily, sing we all,
On Christmas-Eve the shadows fall,
On Christmas-Morn the sunlight breaks,
And all the world to gladness wakes.
The leaves are dead. The birds are fled.
The little brooks' tongues are tied with cold.
But bells may ring, and children sing,
For bright and warm is our Shepherd's fold.

CHO.—Cheerily, cheerily, sing we all,
For the day of the year, it draweth near.
We children love our own to call,
Christmas, sweet Christmas, welcome here.
Oh, day of days most dear, most dear,
Christmas, sweet Christmas, welcome here.

Heavily hung is our Christmas-tree,
It's boughs, they glitter for you and me.
The hemlock branches, piled with snow,
In evergreen woods bend not so low.
God giveth all. The ravens call.
He hears them. So let us begin,
He hears alway, when children pray;
For he himself a child hath been.

CHO.—Cheerily, cheerily, sing we all, etc.

Dear Lord we would not selfish be,
All hearts are not so glad as we.
Remember, then, thy poor to-night,
And flood their darkness with thy light;
The hungry feed, the wanderers lead,
The sorrowing soothe, the captive free
And pity, we pray, on the children's day,
All those who have no Christmas tree.

CHO.—Cheerily, cheerily, sing we all, etc.

Labor a Necessity.

We are in this world to do. Did ever a people realize this—that we were put here to act? The curse put upon Adam effects us all—we must all work in some way. Idleness is rust, deterioration is death; it is defeating God's purpose; shrinking one's duty. We are made to work; everything indicates this—our hands, our feet, our brain, our necessities, our enjoyments—all point to the first great intent, labor. So the bee toils; the birds, to perpetuate their species, provide their food, to sing, to sit still, only to rest. Labor is motion. The world is motion. That which is most active is the most healthy and enjoyable. Stagnant water is foul; living water pure. So with the air; so with man, pre eminently. Ah, what health comes from action! what strength! what beauty!—beauty of expression, agility, and the power to please and delight. This is what we want—we want it everywhere. We want it, mark you, not over done. We want it done as God ordered it, according to human progress—not to exhaust and injure the body, and at the same time the mind as well, to say nothing of the most impor tant of all, the morals, for which we were all made. Work mentally, morally, physically; exercise the body, the mind, and the affections; that is their cultivation. But do not strain them, and thus hurt them; avoid extremes. It is as bad to be too active as to lazy. Act then, as the wind acts, the brook flows, the stars course. Here is no clash, no hurt.

ANDREW JOHNSON encourages his official thieves to rob the nation of hundreds of millions of dollars, and then endeavors to injure the national credit by stating that our expenditures are exceeding our income! Johnson's "whiskey ring" has taken more than half the revenue justly due the government from the tax on whiskey. Grant will disperse the forty thieves as soon as he gets in power, and then we may hope for a better report from the Treasury It is hoped that some of the plethoric rogues may be made to disgorge, if there is any way to reach them.

A BRIDGEPORT paper tells a story of a young somnambulist in Stratford, Conn., who went down to the dock and fished for an hour without having a bite, and then went back to bed, and in the morning was entirely unconscious of his excursion.

E. MISHLER & Co., Reading, Pa.—Dear Sirs: It affords me pleasure to speak of the wonderful effects of your "Pain Cure," in my own case. In June last I was attacked with Neuralgia in my abdomen and side. After suffering intensely for nearly two weeks, I was induced to try your remedy, and after an application, to my utter surprise, I was relieved in a few seconds. So sudden was the relief, that I could scarcely believe my own senses. From my knowledge of the preparation, I firmly believe that it will stop pain from nearly every cause, and almost instantly. IT IS A FACT!

Capable of ocular demonstration, that the prices of Cloths, Cassimeres, Ready-Made Clothing and Furnishing Goods, are less than one-half what they were during the war, at the Merchant Tailoring establishment of

S. S. RATHVON,

Corner North Queen and Orange Streets, opposite Shober's Hotel, Lancaster, Pa.

This is the oldest establishment in this line of trade in Lancaster county, and is selling, at this time, the Moscow, Beaverlaxe, and common Beaver Overcoats from $15 to $20; Common Union Beaver Business Suits from $12 to $15; Good Cassimere Suits from $16 to $20, and fine qualities from $23 to $30. A few suits on hand as low as $10. Cloths, Cassimeres and Trimmings as low as they can be obtained anywhere else, and sold by the yard to those who may wish to have them made at home, or elsewhere.

Overcoats, Dress Coats and Business Suits made to order with dispatch, and in the best and most fashionable manner, as the customer may desire. All kinds of cutting and repairing done at reasonable prices. An entire new stock got up for the Fall and Winter trade of 1868 and 1869, and manufactured in the city of Lancaster. It would be to the interest of the public to call and realize that "IT IS A FACT."
