BOTTS AND POTTS.—

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Young Nimrod Potts
Loved Sally Botts,
A damsel pretty, prudent, and prudent;
Miss Botts made bonnets
And Potts made coonets,
Likewise of law he was a student.

While Sally slept,
Poor Nimrod wept,
Nor could his serenade wake her;
And he suspected
She was affected
More favorably to Stubbs, the baker.

John Stubbs prevailed
Where Nimrod failed,
Because the former did a deal;
He—without stopping,
The question popping—
Soon won the heart of charming Sally.

In all things thus,
It seems to us
Success attends the man that's speady;
So haste this hour
To BENNETT'S TOWER,
If you observe your cost looks seady.

STEINWAY'S PIANOS

The fame of these instruments has extended to every part of Europe. We find on the programme of the Philharmonic Concerts in Bremen and Brunswick a note stating that the grand piano fortes used were "from the manufactory of Messrs. STEINWAY & SONS, New York." We also see by a London paper, noticing the fact of WILLIE PARK playing before the Prince and Princess of Wales during the bridal festivities, that "the piano used at the castle was one of STEINWAY & SONS', New York, which took the prize medal at the World's Fair."

MR. J. E. GOULD, Seventh ad Chestnut Sts., Philada.:

DEAR SIR: Having had frequent opportunities of examining the Pianos made by Messrs. GEORGE STECK & Co., New York, during the past few years, in the practice of my profession as Tuner, I pronounce them the most perfect instruments I have ever seen.

In point of touch, equality, and singing tone they may defy comparison with any and all other makes, while in the upper two octaves (treble notes) they are incomparably the finest I have any knowledge of.
