THE INSTITUTE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the TEACHERS' INSTITUTE for Potter county, the present year, will commence on Monday, the 1st day of October next, at Coudersport, and will continue four weeks.

The services of Mr. CHAS. H. ALLEN, late Principal of Smethport Academy, have been secured for the entire term.

I have also been so fortunate as to secure the aid, during a portion of the term, of the following gentlemen:

Prof. JOHN F. STODDARD,
Dr. CALVIN CUTTER, and Mr. WORTHY PUTNAM.

Prof. STODDARD is a Graduate of the N. Y. State Normal School, late Principal of the Liberty Normal School, (Wayne county, Pa.,) and is Principal elect of the Millersville Normal School, (in Lancaster Co.) He is also the author of a valuable series of works on Mental and Practical Arithmetic, and an accomplished and thorough Mathematician. A rich and valuable treat may be confidently expected from his labors.

Dr. CUTTER has a national reputation as an Author and Lecturer upon the important Science of Physiology, and much good cannot but result, both to the schools and to the community, from his presence among us.

Mr. PUTNAM is the author of a valuable work on Elocution, and has much celebrity as a practical Teacher of the Art. It may be safely promised that his efforts, also, will give to all interested, much satisfaction. Mr. Sup't. ALLEN of M'Kean Co., it is expected, will also aid and cheer us by his presence, for at least a short time.

EXPENSES.

BOARD. Meals will be furnished to those who wish to economize, and who will be satisfied with plain, wholesome food, at $1.00 per week. Provisions of suitable kinds, of good quality, and in reasonable quantities, will be received at Coudersport prices, in part payment for the board furnished in commons. Rooms will be secured for lodging and for those who may wish to board themselves, at the lowest possible cost. In these cases, it is recommended students to bring their own bedding. Board in private families can be obtained at reasonable rates, not to exceed $2.00 per week.

TUITION. To defray a part of the expenses each member of the Institute will be charged $1.00 for the month's tuition. This fee will also constitute those who wish it, members of the Potter Co. Teachers' Association.

Books, &c. Each student is requested to bring a full set of the text-books used in our schools, also a slate and writing materials. A memorandum or note-book will also be very useful.

It is intended to connect a Model School with the Institute, to exemplify the instruction given in the Art of Teaching; and each member of the Institute will have an opportunity of visiting in the school.

TEACHERS!

You are cordially invited to avail yourselves of the opportunity here proffered for your improvement. It will give me great pleasure to meet all of you who are to engage in the Winter Schools, in this preparatory work; and it may be confidently predicted that you will go away with renewed strength and skill for the arduous task of teaching the young.

Teachers residing out of the county, who may find it for their interest or pleasure to do so, are also invited to join us.

All who propose to attend the Institute, are requested to inform me at their earliest convenience, and any aid or information that it may be in my power to give, in regard to board, &c., I shall, of course, be very glad to give.

J. B. PRADT, Co. Sup't.

A Word to my Friends.

D. W. SPENCER would respectfully inform his friends and customers that he is selling out his stock of GROCERIES, DRUGS & MEDICINES, &c., cheap for Cash or Ready-Pay.

Come one, come all. Now is the time to make good bargains.

A choice lot of PATENT MEDICINES on hand. 8-15

Cushingville Grist-Mill.

THE proprietor has the pleasure to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has been to a very great expense in repairing and rebuilding his Mill in the village of Cushingville, Potter county, Pa., where he is prepared to do all kinds of Grinding, on the shortest notice. People wishing to have their Grinding done in the best order, will do well to give him a call, as he takes the preference to the Steam Mill in Lewisvine.

Come one, come all, and you will be well paid. (15-2.) J. M. HORTON.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT MILLPORT.

Pursuant to notice, the citizens of Sharon and adjoing townships in Potter county, Pa., who are in favor of union for the purpose of "securing the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity," assembled at the Hall of the Sons of Temperance at Millport, August 25, 1855, and organized by electing GABRIEL BARNES, Esq., President, and W. B. GRAVES Secretary.

The objects of the meeting were briefly stated. After some remarks by W. B. Graves, L. H. Kinney, and Hon. Joseph Mann, the meeting proceeded to elect two delegates to the Republican Convention, to be held at Pittsburg on the 5th of September next.

Joseph Mann and Ira Canfield were elected delegates to said Convention, with power to substitute.

The following resolutions were then introduced, and after discussion, unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are in favor of a union of all political parties that will unite for the restoration of the Missouri Compromise; and that we will stand upon no platform that does not inscribe upon its banner, No more Slave States, and no more liberty to touch the Soil of our Commonwealth with the degrading curse and loathsome stench of Slavery.

Resolved, That we do not care whether the State elects a Canal Commissioner or not; but we do want a sett of Supreme Judges that will not be afraid of such small Judges as one John K. Kane.

Resolved, That the refusal of Judge Lewis, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to grant a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Passmore Williamson, imprisoned as he is in violation of all precedent and all law, and regardless of all right, by that contemptible tool of the Slave Power, John K. Kane, was such a wanton disregard of the rights of citizens as calls imperatively upon the House of Representatives to exercise their power under the 4th article of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and upon the people to have special reference to this case in their election of Representatives at the coming election.

Resolved, That we condemn most emphatically the high-handed measures of Atchison, Stringfellow, and others, in their attempt to usurp the rights of a majority of the citizens of Kansas, and that such conduct deserves to be ranked with piracy and robbery, and if justice was done, the same punishment would be meted out to them.

Resolved, That President Pierce, by neglecting to protect the citizens of Kansas in their rights when lawlessly invaded by bands of armed men, and removing Gov. Reeder because he endeavored to enforce the laws, shows clearly that he is allied with Atchison, Stringfellow, and their associates, and clearly brings himself within the provision of Article 2d Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States, which says, "The President, Vice President, and all civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes or misdemeanors.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Union for the purposes specified in the Preamble to the Constitution; but we enter our solemn protest against its being prostituted to the base purposes of extending Slavery and hunting fugitives.

On motion, the meeting adjourned sine die.

G. BARNES, President.
W. B. GRAVES, Sec'y.

BINN'S JUSTICE

AND

BUSINESS MAN'S LEGAL GUIDE.

New and Sixth Edition, bringing the Law down to 1855.

A Treatise on the office and duties of Aldermen and Justices of the Peace in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including all the required Forms of Process and Docket Entries; and embodying not only whatever may be deemed valuable to Justices of the Peace, but to Landlords, Tenants, and General Agents; and making this volume what it purports to be, A safe Legal Guide for Business Men. By John Binns, late Alderman of Walnut Ward, in the city of Philadelphia. The Sixth Edition. Revised, corrected, and greatly enlarged by Frederick C. Brightly, Esq., Author of "A Treatise on the Law of Costs," "Equity Jurisprudence," "Nisi Prius Reports," Editor of "Purdon's Digest," &c. In one thick volume, Octavo. Price only $4.00.

ALSO,

COMPANION TO BINNS'S JUSTICE.

GRAYDON'S FORMS.

Forms of Conveyancing, and of Practice in the courts of Common Pleas, Quarter Sessions, Oyer and Terminer, the Supreme and Orphans' Courts, and the offices of the various Civil officers and Justices of the Peace. Fourth edition, revised, corrected, enlarged, and adapted to the present state of the law; with copious explanatory Notes and References, and a new, full, and comprehensive Index. By Robert E. Wright, Esq. In one thick Octavo volume. Price only $3.50.

ALSO,

Stroud and Brightly's Purdon's Digest---1700 to 1855.

A Digest of the laws of Pennsylvania, from the year one thousand seven hundred to the Eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five. The first four editions by the late John Purdon, Esq. The fifth, sixth, and seventh, by the Hon. George M. Stroud, Eighth edition, revised, with Marginal References. Foot Notes to the Judicial Decisions; Analytical Contents; a Digested Syllabus of each Title; and a New, Full, and Exhaustive Index. By Frederick C. Brightly, Esq., Author of "A Treatise on the Law of Costs," "Equity Jurisprudence," "Nisi Prius Reports," Editor of "Binns's Justice," &c. One thick Royal 8vo. Price only $5.00.

☞ The freshness and permanent value of Purdon's Digest are preserved by the publication annually of a Digest of the Laws enacted in each year. These Annual Digests are arranged in precise conformity to the plan of Purdon's Digest. They are, each of them, republished annually; are connected together by a General Index (prepared anew each year,) which embraces the contents of the Laws of each year since the publication of Purdon's Digest, in one alphabet; and are bound up with Purdon's Digest, and also sold separately.

Thus the purchaser of Purdon's Digest will always be in possession of the complete body of the Statute Laws of Pennsylvania down to the very hour when he purchases it.—Those who have already purchased Purdon's Digest may always complete it to date for the small sum of Fifty Cents, the price of a volume containing all the annual Digests issued since the first publication of the present edition of Purdon's Digest, as heretofore stated.
