SERIOUS AFFRAY.

WILLIAMSPORT, March 22.

An affray, which may yet prove fatal in its consequences, occurred on the opposite side of the river from this place, on Saturday afternoon last, between some raftsmen, who in stress of wind and weather had put up at the tavern of Billy Morris, and a number of Hibernians, who had not quite recovered from the celebration of St. Patrick's day, on Friday. The Irishmen being largely in the majority, drove the raftmen from their beds on Friday night to seek lodging on this side of the river, and took an early opportunity to renew the fracas on Saturday when the raftmen returned. They succeeded in cornering a young man from Bald Eagle, Clinton county, named DAVID W. COUNCIL, whom they beset with a club and other hostile apparatus. Finding his life in danger, he drew his revolver and shot one of his assailants in the shoulder, and one through the hand, the ball glancing and also slightly injuring his head. After this desperate resistance, he was allowed to escape without further molestation. On a statement of the aggravated circumstances of the case, by Council and his party, before Justice CALVERT, they were allowed to depart with their rafts without the institution of any legal proceedings against them. We learn that the Irishman who was shot in the shoulder is in a dangerous condition.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—At the annual meeting of the conference, held in Baltimore on the 13th instant, the case of a preacher, named Stephen Hildebrand, charged with seduction, was disposed of, by deposing him from the ministry, on a vote of 150 ayes and 20 noes.

Bishop Ames announced the decision of the conference to the accused, in terms of great Christian kindness and dignity. He pointed out the enormity of the offence, where ministerial confidence was made available to perpetuate crime of such demoralizing character.

Altogether, the conference have done well in this case, whether the charge should be sustained in a law court or not. For the very suspicion of criminality should no more exist against a Christian minister than against a female who would stand erect in a virtuous community. Every ground must be avoided on which the shadow of complaint may rest. Much as we are opposed to the death penalty, yet we should heartily approve of a law that would inflict hanging, as the penalty on every clergyman who was guilty on an indictment for seduction.

SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, says the Pennsylvania Inquirer of the 9th instant, Mr. Jos. Blackwood, well digger, descended into a well at Eleventh and Lombard streets, for the purpose of walling it up. The earth near the surface was very loose, and commenced to fall into the well. It soon became evident that the ground was caving in, and Mr. Blackwood seized the rope, and had ascended about half way to the top, when a general caving in took place, the unfortunate man was precipitated to the bottom of the well, and was buried alive. A number of workmen immediately engaged, with commendable zeal and energy, in the effort to dig him out, but did not succeed in reaching the body until an hour and a half had elapsed, when life was extinct. When the body was drawn out the mouth was wide open, but it soon closed. The deceased resided in the neighborhood of Fourth and Christian streets, and was a very estimable man. One of the workmen narrowly escaped being buried in his efforts to recover the body.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Fisher delivered an opinion at the late adjourned Court, in which he decided that a return upon a summons by a Constable—'Served personally,' or 'return on oath,' or 'served by copy,' &c., is not legal. A return sufficient to enable a plaintiff to take a judgment by default, ought to show that the requirements of the Act of Assembly were at least substantially complied with. The law requires service to be in one of the following ways; either, first, by producing the original summons to the defendant, and informing him of its contents; or second, by leaving a copy at his dwelling house in the presence of one or more of his family or neighbors. The return of the Constable must set forth the nature of the service, in order to make it good. It was further decided that where the party has not been brought within the jurisdiction of the Justice by a proper service of process, and does not appear on the day of hearing, a judgment can be reversed after the lapse of 20 days.—Gettysburg Star.

IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO USERS.—We observe the following item in the Steubenville Herald, which will probably be read with great avidity by the smokers who are trying to quit:

The Medical Times and Gazette mentions a case in which delirium appeared to have been induced by forced abstinence from tobacco, and was relieved by its re-employment. Another similar instance was that of a man whose skull had been trephined on account of fracture, and who subsequently became raving, but, being allowed to smoke, was soon relieved and rapidly recovered.

☞ Quite a number of funny things have been said about the Nebraska Bill, but this is decidedly the best we have seen. We extract it from the New Hampshire Telegraph:

"After appearances began to indicate that the Democracy had got a pretty severe drubbing at the late election, one of the Unterrrified was explaining the cause to another, and attributed it to the Nabraska bill. 'The Nebraska bill,' said the intelligent sovereign, 'there's money enough in the treasury—why don't they pay the d—d thing, and have it out of the way?'"

☞ A suitable monument is to be erected in New Orleans to the memory of Jackson.

LATE FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE FRANKLIN.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The American steamer Franklin arrived at this port this afternoon, from Havre, via Southampton.

She sailed from the latter port on the 15th inst. Her advices are, therefore, three days later than those brought by the Africa.

The Liverpool cotton market continues dull. The sales did not average more than 3000 bales daily.

Flour had declined one shilling to 18 pence Philadelphia and Baltimore was quoted at 36s to 36s 9d.

Western Canal Flour is quoted at 34s 6d. Yellow Corn at 44s; white at 45s.

Money was in demand, and Consols closed at 91.

Several heavy failures are reported.—Among them are Gladistanc, Bond & Co. Manchester; McGregor, a woollen house, and Harrison, Warwich & Co.

The British squadron, under Vice Admiral Sir Cnarles Napier, weighed anchor on the 13th for the Baltic.

The review of the fleet at Spithead, by the Queen, on the 10th instant, was a magnificent affair, and was witnessed by an immense multitude.

The fleet will sail first for Wyands Sound, on the coast of Sweden, where it will anchor, and afterwards enter the Baltic.

There is nothing new or startling from the seat of war.

Russia has ordered the immediate issue of notes for the sum of six millions of silver rubles.

Several Russian war steamers reappeared in the Black Sea on the 10th of March.

The Czar had paid a visit to the fortification at Cronstadt.

The insurgents in Albania number only a few adherents.

The insurrection exists only through the sympathies between it and the Greeks.

The insurgent army is in a most deplorable condition, not having a single piece of artillery.

The Russians were making important dispositions at Cronstadt and at various points on the Gulf of Finland and the Gulf of Bothnia.

The armaments at Cronstadt have been increased and several batteries have been constructed at the water level. The garrison will also be increased. Twelve thousand men have been drafted for the Imperial Guard.

Orders have been given for the construction of two hundred additional gun-boats.

IMPORTANT FROM CHINA.—Important late advices have been received by the overland mail.

The Imperial fleet attacked Shanghae on the 5th of January. The action lasted the entire day, and the insurgents batteries were blown up.

Hostilities were still going on at the latest dates.

DIED.—In Lawrence tp., on the 28th ult., infant child of Mitchell and Mrs. Kline.

In Penn township, Clearfield county, on the 17th ult., Mrs. CATHARINE WRIGLESWORTH, aged 66 years 6 months and 27 days. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a firm adherent to the principles and doctrines of the same. In her last moments she frequently spake of Jesus being precious to her soul. She lived and died in the faith of the Gospel. What a consolation this to her children and friends. She was the wife of William Wriglesworth, dec'd., and mother of the Rev. J. Wriglesworth. The funeral sermon was preached by the author of this communication from Rev. xxi. 4.
