OLD AND NEW STYLE—The 13th of September, this year, was the completion of a century since the introduction of the "New Style," as it is called in the calendar. The above is a mere idle fallacy in an attempt at assigning to the New Style a date of 100 years. Triumphs for the World's Safe Company.

THE following letter was received from Mr. Hawley D. Clapp, proprietor of the Fort Hamilton House, and needs no explanation—it speaks for itself:

FORT HAMILTON, Oct. 25, 1853.

World's Safe Company, No. 193, Broadway, N. Y.:

GENTLEMEN:—Your agent called on me to day, to learn the result of a safe (Little's Patent) which passed through the burning of the Fort Hamilton House. I am so much engaged at present to give full particulars, but will say the safe had a very severe test. The building took fire about 11 o'clock on Sunday night, and was entirely consumed. No engines were present to smother the flames and so intense was the heat that the safe was red hot for several hours. When the safe was dug out of the ruins and opened, contrary to my expectations and all who witnessed this destructive fire, the contents were found in a most admirable state of preservation. I have the fullest confidence in your valuable safes, as proof against fire and burglars, and wish you to forward one, one size larger, to the Everett House, Union Square, New York, which I shall open about the 15th of Nov. next.

Respectfully, HAWLEY D. CLAPP.

The above company have just been awarded the highest premium by the American Institute, Castle Garden, New York, for Little's Patent Fire and Burglar Safes, and Mosby's Bank lock, which, with the many other premiums they have received, and test they have gone through, places them deservedly at the head of all other securities for the preservation of valuable against fire and burglars.

A large stock of these superior articles for sale, at reasonable rates, at our store.
