AND MELODEONS.

H. KLEBER & BRO., have received and for sales lot of the above instruments which they warrant equal if not superior to any others made.

HARMONIUMS with 8 stops made by SCHIDMAYER, Stuttgart, Germany.

HARMONIUMS with 3 stops by TRAYER & CO., Stuttgard.

These instruments have been examined by the Professors and amateurs of the two cities, who pronounce them, in point of volume and sweetness of tone, fully equal to any small Church or parlor Organ. The treadles are so arranged that a child of eight years can work them with ease. MELODEONS MADE BY CARHART & NEEDHAM N. Y.

It is almost superfluous to say anything in their favor. The senior partner, Mr Carhart is the original inventor of the Melodeon and the superiority of his instruments has never been questioned. They receive orders for them from all parts of the world. One of their last and most important improvements is the bourdon stop, which, while it enriches the tone affords the player greater variety of effects. The edition is a splendid one, bettting at once the grandeur of the theme and the established place which Mr. Irving holds in the world of letters.
