CHERRY PECTORAL

TO CURE A COLD, WITH HEADACHE AND SORENESS OF THE THROAT take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

FOR A COLD AND COUGH, take it morning, noon and evening, according to directions on the bottle and the difficulty will be removed in a few days. Persons of a delicate constitution when they find it can be so readily cured—Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them up in their rest at night, will find by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of a good night's rest sleep, and consequently feel refreshed and free from suffering, and ultimate cure, is offered to th ousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.

From its agreeable effects in these cases many find it preferable to anything to force its use when the necessity is not so great.

TO SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS this remedy is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes all hoarseness in a few hours, and wonderful improves the power of the vocal organs.

ASTHMA is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield only to medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them if they can be cured.

BRONCHITIS, or irritation of the throat and upper portions of the lungs, may be cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomfortable expectoration ceases to be.

FOR CROUP—Give an emetic of antimony, to be followed by large and frequent doses of Cherry Pectoral, and it will subdue the disease. If taken in season, it will not fail to cure.

WHOOPING COUGH may be broken up and cured by the use of Cherry Pectoral.

THIS INFLUENZA is speedily removed by this remedy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were prostrated by the prevailing cold, a large dose taken on going to bed, put them all right in the morning without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the disease.

Hoarseness and Croup are reported here of patients who have been cured from LIVER COMPLAINTS by this remedy, so many that there can be no question of its healing power on these diseases. It should be used in all cases where there is a dull pain in the side and other unpleasant symptoms cease.

FOR CONSUMPTION this medicine has proved, it should be taken under the advice of a good Physician if possible, and in every case with a careful regard to the printed directions on the bottle. Its judicious use, and the benefits on the system, will be found to be great, and if it cannot be carefully nursed meantime, it will seldom fail to subdue the disease.

For settled CONSUMPTION in its worst form, the Cherry Pectoral should be given in doses adapted to the age of the patient requires and can bear. It always affords some relief, and not unfrequently cures those who are considered past all cure. These are the testimonials of years, gathered over the country, who feel and say that they owe their lives and present health to the Cherry Pectoral.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an unprecedented and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unbiased testimony of hundreds of thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. Without many intermediate years of trial, the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, and the evidence of these is that they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

It is now offered to the public to prefer that any one medicine will healthily cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American Peasant, to the palaces of Royalty.

Warren's Improved Fire and Water Proof Composition Roofing.

HAVING been for the last eleven years exclusively engaged in the manufacture of the above roofing, now much used in all the principal cities of the Union, during which time it has been tested under every variety of circumstances, and been improved and perfected wherever experience showed that it could be done; and having been called upon by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to do a job in this city in 1853, and again to cover the Depot in 1854, (for both of which jobs they transported our men and materials from Philadelphia free of charge) we have been induced to open a branch office in this city, and being prepared to fill orders to any extent, we confidently offer our roofing to the patronage of the citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity its cheapness, durability and perfect protection against both fire and water render it the most desirable roofing in use.

The best pitch for this roofing is from one-half to one inch to the foot—but we can under favorable circumstances apply it to a much greater pitch, even five or six inches to the foot. Those having leaky roofs of any kind can have them recovered by this method with the positive certainty of having good tight roofs. We append the location of some of our roofs, which may be examined. For further information and references, please call at our office. All work warranted. H. M. WARREN & CO.,
