The Clearfield Republican.

[illegible]

THE NEWS

[illegible] Richmond [illegible] Lee's [illegible] Gen. Hallock had reached the enemy's outer works on the 28th with his heavy guns, and opened on them in three divisions. The fire was returned by the rebels, and it was supposed a general engagement would take place the next morning. But the enemy fell back to his entrenchments, after a short engagement. Under date of 30th Gen. Halleck telegraphs to the war Department that "our advanced guard are in Corinth. Conflicting accounts as to the enemy's movements, and they are believed to be in strong force on the left flank, some four or five miles South of Corinth, near the Mobile and Ohio railroad."

LATER.—Front Royal and Martinsburg are again in our possession. The former place was recaptured by a brigade from Gen. McDowell's division, after a slight engagement in which we lost 8 killed, 5 wounded, and one missing; and capturing 6 officers and 150 of the enemy, together with several of our own men who had been taken by the enemy. This was on Friday last. Martinsburg was recaptured on Saturday morning by Col. De Forrest, under Gen. Banks, who advanced several miles towards Winchester, where the enemy's cavalry were encountered, and several of them taken prisoners, together with a wagon loaded with muskets, &c., which they had taken from us.

The Eleventh New York State militia regiment (new levy) reached Harper's Ferry on Saturday last, and refused to take the oath—alleging that they had enlisted for the defence of Washington alone, and desired to be sent there. They were at once branded as cowards by Gen. Saxton, dismissed, and ordered to pay their own passage back to New York.

The reported evacuation of Corinth is fully confirmed. The following is the latest dispatch from Gen. Halleck:

HEAD QUARTERS, }
CAMP NEAR CORINTH, May 30, 1862. }

T. Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

The enemy's position and works in front of Corinth were exceedingly strong and he cannot occupy a stronger position in flight.

This morning he destroyed an immense amount of public and private property, stores, wagons, tents, &c.

Four miles out of the town the roads are filled with arms, haversacks, &c., thrown away by his flying troops.

A large number of prisoners and deserters have been captured, estimated by Gen. Pope at two thousand.

Gen. Beauregard evidently distrust his army or he would have defended so strong a position. His troops are generally much discouraged and demoralized. In all the engagements for the last few days their resistance has been weak.

H. W. HALLECK,
Major General Commanding.

Last Night's Mail

We have a dispatch from Gen. McClellan to the War Department, announcing a severe battle on the Chickahominy, in front of Richmond, on Saturday last. The number is not given, but we presume our forces engaged were not short of fifty thousand, whilst that of the rebels is said to have been much larger. The corps under Gen. Casey, consisting of three Brigades, was first attacked and driven back in great confusion, in which their guns and baggage were left. The corps of Generals Heintzelman, Sumner & Keys then came up, driving the rebels back, covering the ground with their dead. General McClellan says our loss is heavy, but that of the rebels is enormous. Prof. Lowe, with his balloon, elevated at about 2000 feet over McClellan's army, with telegraphic wires attached, communicated to the Commander-in-Chief, the various movements of the enemy, enabling him to meet every emergency.

A General order was issued on Monday last, extending the limits of Gen. McClellan's Department, and assigning General Wool to the position now occupied by Gen. Dix, at Baltimore, and Gen. Dix to Fortress Monroe, in the place of General Wool—to report to Gen. McClellan.

Gen. Fremont is reported near Strasburg, where he met and engaged the forces of Jackson, as he was retreating from the pursuit of Banks.

HOW TO CARRY "NO PARTY".—If the Republicans desire to have no party organization during the period of the war, they can accomplish it very easily. All they have to do is to abandon the Abolition schemes pending in Congress, and repeal those they have already passed. If they will be honest, and confine the war to what they professed a year ago—to a struggle for the Union and the Constitution—the dissentions will cease. It is they who are reviving old party feeling and old party issues. The Democracy are only acting on the defensive. It is not they who are reviving party.

REACTION AMONG THE GERMANS.—The New York Sun says: "A tremendous reaction against the Republican party, as lately constituted, seems to be in progress throughout the entire German population of the N. west. In Iowa the Democrats are looking for thousands of German votes where they never had them before, and in Minesota, Missouri, Michigan and even Ohio, the change of sentiment is astonishing."

[illegible] Mr. David Yohe, at Irwin's Creek, Westmoreland county, went to the hospital at Fort Donelson and had dinner, and as he supposed, the body of a man who had received a wound during the fight, of which he afterwards died and was buried. The body was conveyed home and interred in the family burial ground at Irwin's Creek. All the family [illegible] of the deceased. Last week Mr. Yohe received a letter from the hospital, stating that the supposed dead man had recovered, and was able to be able to return to his company, and expected to take part in the next battle. The joy of the family can better be imagined than described.

BOOTS AND SHOES!!

By the Bend of Grahamton's Run!

There is a Store in Market Street
Where all the men and ladies meet,
To change their "old" and save their feet
Right close to Graham's Store.
(You're surely lost in these hollows
Never Stumps up to wait in hollows,
And up in all sorts of weather,
He makes "Old" Boots with "new" and "neat,"
And while he makes' em look as good
And sheds all who come demurring,
That he has of help there and running

He makes all kinds of boots and shoes,
And many kind he has for you,
Water Proof and Calf leather
Are making such a show
And he and Son are always here,
And really at a call
To neatly take your measure
And show you through the hall
Then come along and bring your dust,
The Ready Pay is down,
And we'll warrant you as good a fit
As you can get in town.

THRESHING MACHINES.—The undersigned, being about to form the citizens of Clearfield county, that they still continue the manufacture of Threshing Machines, at the Bellefonte Foundry, of a superior quality, for one, two, and four horses; also, the celebrated endless chain or tread power, for either one or two horses, with or without shakers as may suit the purchaser. We would recommend the tread power particularly to farmers who keep but two or three horses. The machine and power, with shaker, can all be set on a small barn floor, and rain or shine, can be worked to good advantage by a man and two boys, thus saving in hands as well as in horses, and doing the work as well and as fast as most men desire. Our four-horse power machines, with overshot cylinders, are certainly the best now made. We would give numerous certificates from reliable farmers, of both Centre and Clearfield counties, as to the good satisfaction these machines have given, but deem it unnecessary. All machines warranted. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. A. HAUPT & CO.,
