The Clearfield Republican.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 25th, 1862.

☞ The proceedings of court are postponed until next week.

☞ Persons wishing to purchase a first rate Steam Engine, or Portable Saw-Mill, are referred to the advertisement of Jas. B. Graham, Esq.

CONVICTED OF FORGERY.—B. D. Schoonover, of Graham township, this county was tried and convicted of forgery, at our Quarter Sessions last week.

☞ It is our intention to publish the Rules and Regulations governing the action of the Democratic party of this county, either next week or the week following.

SINGULAR CONSEQUENCE.—Week before last the price of eggs in this place fell below ten cents per dozen, when the hens immediately stoped the production!—Knowing hens, these.

☞ By reference to their advertisement in another column it will be absorved that George D. Lanich of Clearfield borough, is an additional Agent for the sale of Ploughs, and other manufatures, of Houpt & Co., of Bellefonte.

DEATH OF JUDGE BONSALL.—Judge Bonsall, late an associate Judge of this county, died at his residence in Brady township, on last Monday evening, aged unwards of 70 years. He has been in declining health for some months, and the sad event of his death was not altogether unexpected.

SUCCESS TO IT.—Hon. THOMAS B. FLORENCE & Co., have commenced the issue of a new Democratic paper in Philadelphia. We have not had the pleasure of seeing a copy as yet, but have no doubt it is all that was premised of it in the prospectus. It is to be commenced as a weekly paper and to be issued daily as soon as sufficient encouragement is extended. Terms, weekly $2 per single copy; 10 copies to one address, $12.50; 20 copies, $20.

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—Quite a number of patrons called with us last week and paid arrearages, and some of them turning the tables on us by paying in advance and thus putting us in debt to them.

There are others, however, who have not yet called—but then court is still in session, and the chance is still good.

Upon the whole, our subscribers have done quite as well as we expected; and if we have any complaint to make it would be of our advertising customers. They should be more punctual.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Charles D. Murray, Esq., editor of the Democrat and Sentinel, Ebensburg, Pa., died on the 13th inst., aged 30 years. The deceased was a young man of much intellect, and had risen to distinction as a clear and forcible writer.

James E. Todd, Esq., of Ebensburg, we are pleased to observe, succeeds Mr. Murray as editor. He is well qualified for the position, and will no doubt render entire satisfaction to the patrons of that old and influential paper, as well as to the sterling Democracy of Cambria county.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.—The new court house was the subject of the universal admiration of the hundreds of citizens of the county, as well as the strangers, who were in attendance at court last week and this week. Its general appearance, and the beauty and convenience of its internal arrangements, meets with universal approbation.

There is some difficulty in hearing distinctly—caused by a singlar detonation of sound, making it very difficult for the Attorneys to speak.

This difficulty may disappear, or be remedied, by some simple operation which may be developed.

The bell, however, is a total failure, and we learn the Commissioners have determined to take it down.

Who knows but that the removal of its grating, cracked, kettle sound, from the tower, will also remove all the difficulty in the court room.

Losses of the Eighty-Fourth Regiment.

The following is the correct list of the killed wounded and missing of the 84th regiment, P. V., in the late affair at Port Republic, Va:

Company A—Patrick Burns, killed; Anthony Correll and Wm. H. Lowe, missing; Thomas Coats, wounded.

Company B—Corporal John Snadden, missing.

Company D—Privates James B. Arbel and John Harding, killed; Sergeant A. G. Thornton, wounded slightly; Private C. C. Menell, missing.

Company E—Privates Silas J. Barr and William Taylor, wounded.

Company F—John F. Walsh, wounded; Daniel Bittler, William E. Stead, Adam Sides and Ellis Sones, missing.

Company G—Alfred Waters, killed; Warren Post and Samuel Drew, missing.

Company I (Kirby's)—Thomas Adams and John H. Ferguson, wounded.

Company K (Ogden's)—Henry Bingham, H. E. Kyler and Henry C. Owens, wounded—the latter dangerously; Corporal Daniel Graham and private James McGuire missing.

Appointments by the Governor.

Col. Samuel M. Bowman, to be Colonel of the 84th Regiment, P. V., in place of Colonel Wm. G. Murray, killed in the battle of Winchester.

Major Walter Barrett to be Lieutenant Colonel of the 84th Regiment, P. V., in place of Col. T. C. McDowell, resigned.—Maj. Barrett has been promoted to the Lieutenant Colonelcy on the recommendation of the officers of the regiment for brave and gallant conduct while in command of the regiment at the desperate battle at Port Republic.

Adjutant. Thomas H. Craig to be Major of the 84th Regiment, P. V., in place of Major Barrett, promoted. The promotion of Adjutant Craig was well deserved—his promotion was asked by his regiment. He is a brave, fearless and accomplished young officer, who distinguished himself at Port Republic.

☞ By the above announcement it is evident that the glorious Eighty-Fourth is not to be disbanded as was rumored. Report says that it is now reduced to about 200, fit for service. We understand it is to be quartered at Washington, until recruited to the full number.

THE NEWS

We have dates from Richmond up to Saturday 21st inst. Skirmishing was of daily occurrence, but without serious results on either side. The last dispatch from Gen. McClellan, dated 21st, is in these words: "Things are pretty quiet today. There is not as much shelling as usual. Our preparations are progressing well. The enemy opened with some heavy guns yesterday, but did no harm."

The advices from the valley of the Shenandoah continue perplexingly indefinite. We had a report that Gen. Shields had fallen back to Strasburg from Luray, and that the latter place was immediately occupied by a large rebel force under Gen. Ewell; and that Fremont, having fallen back to Mount Jackson, had advanced to a pass in the mountains to intercept the advance of the enemy. This, however, is not confirmed by later advices, so that the real situation of affairs in the Valley is still in doubt.

Beauregard, one report says, is at Okolona, Miss., 80,000 strong. Gen. Kirby Smith, with 20,000, was at Chattanooga, Tenn., Gen Price, with 15,000, at Fulton, and Gen. Van Dorn, with a small force of Cavalry, at Grenada, Miss.

An expedition, composed of several gun boats and two regiments of Indiana volunteers, was sent up the White river some days since, into Arkansas. On the 17th the expedition reached St. Charles, 85 miles from the mouth, where the rebels had erected fortifications. The gun boats engaged the battery, and the troops were landed to attack the rebels in the rear. During the cannonading a ball entered the boiler of the Mound City gun boat, causing a fearful explosion. The crew consisted of 175 men, of whom only about 50 escaped. The battery was taken by the land force, capturing some 30 prisoners, and killing and wounding 125 rebels.

Col. Ellet, who commanded the fleet at the capture of Memphis, died on the 21st inst., at Cairo, of wounds received at the bombardment of Memphis.

POSTSCRIPT.—Last night's mail contains nothing important. Passengers say the great battle before Richmond would take place to-day.

CRIMINAL TRIFLING IN CONGRESS.—All day Monday Congress was discussing whether or not Mrs. Lee's house should be used as a military hospital, and whether or not Gen. Banks allowed contrabands to ride in the army wagons. Splendid subjects these for the display of statesmanship! Such Debates, however, are the principal occupation of the contemptible ninconpoops of Congress nowadays.—The cause of Jeff. Davis has received more aid and comfort from the Abolition legislation and criminal trifling of the present jackass Congress than from any other Northern agency, excepting, perhaps, the radical abolition party, which controls Congress, and tries to control the President. If all men obtained their deserts, our Congressmen would fare very badly in this world and the next.—New York Herald.

NEXT TO A MIRACLE!

Astonishing.

A BOON never dreamed of by MAN, nor whispered by Angels. Discovered accidentally. Every owner of a horse must own it. Something which cures Founder in horses in so short a time and so radically as to only be surpassed by a miracle. It thoroughly eradicates the effects from the system in from 12 to 24 hours, so that your horse, so stiff today that you cannot get him out of the stable, by to-morrow is ready to take his place in the team. The best Farriers never dreamed of it, and it astonishes everybody.

It is neither Mineral nor Vegetable, nor any compound of man's invention; but is given simply as Nature produces it—in his drinks, and only one. No drenching. The remedy is silent in action, and cannot produce any injurious effects. Costs nothing. Exists everywhere—and will cure to the end of time. There is no patent humbug puff, nor cent's worth of business about this, but the simple truth honestly stated. Rely upon that. Each one sending me One Dollar, with their name and address, I will promptly inform, in a sealed envelope, what the remedy is. Twice amount of money returned in case of failure—(which is impossible.) Louden's Indian Expectorant.

THIS REMEDY is offered to the community with the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to realize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds with persons publicly known, who have been restored by its use. Here is one case of an ASTONISHING CURE!

THIS MAY CERTIFY, That my son lay sick for twelve months, under the Doctor's care, with the disease of the Lungs, and every remedy prescribed by the Doctor failed to give relief. I gave up all hopes of his recovery; so did the physician. At this stage I prevailed upon him to try a bottle of LOUDON & CO'S. INDIAN EXPECTORANT, and the result was most happy, as the use of three bottles effected a permanent cure, and he is now a hearty boy. JAMES LAYTON.

WORTZ PLOWS.—It is now settled beyond question that these celebrated plows go ahead of all others, wherever introduced, giving good satisfaction. For the convenience of our friends and former customers in Clearfield county, (to whom we are thankful for past patronage) we give below a list of agents, from whom these Plows, and also Shears, can be had:

Bloom*, Frenchville; John Reitzer, Karthaus; George Hockenberry, Salt Lick; J. W. Hewett, Pennfield Hale & Co. and William Lloyd, Philipsburg; Thomas Henderson, Jeffries; Henry Sears, Asaville; Samuel Hegarty, near Glen Hope; John Cummings, New Washington; George D. Leitch, Clearfield.

We also make the McCormick plows, both right and left hand; also hill-side plows, iron kettles, New World and Hathaway cook stoves, egg and nine plate stoves, iron fencing for cemetries, cast iron hitching posts, wagon spindles of all sizes, threshing machines, (see advertisement.) We also have J. S. Marsh & Co's celebrated grain drill and straw and fodder cutters; we are also prepared to make and fit up mill castings of any description wanted. Bellefonte, May 28, '62. A. HAUPT & CO.

THRESHING MACHINES.—The undersigned wish to inform the citizens of Clearfield county, that they still continue the manufacture of Threshing Machines, at the Bellefonte Foundry, of a superior quality, for one, two, and four horses; also, the celebrated endless chain tread power, for either one or two horses, with or without shakers as may suit the purchaser. We would recommend the tread power particularly to farmers who keep but two or three horses. The machine and power, with shaker, can all be set on a small barn floor, and rain or shine, can be worked to good advantage by a man and two boys, thus saving in hands as well as in horses and doing the work as well and as fast as many men desire. Our four-horse power machine with overshot cylinders, are certainly the best now made. We would give numerous certificates from reliable farmers, of both Centre and Clearfield counties, as to the good satisfaction these machines have given, but deem it unnecessary. All machines warranted. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention. A. HAUPT & Co.,

May 28, 1862 Bellefonte, Pa.

Peter Bloom of Anneville, is an authorized agent for the sale of machines.
