TO DRAFTED MEN.

The following important announcement is received from H. B. SWOORE, Esq:

D. W. MOORE, Esq.

Dear Sir:—I have just received a note from Col. Campbell, Prov. Mar. as follows:

"The time for the drafted men of Clearfield county to report at Ridgway is extended five days from the time specified in their notices to report.

"Please give general publicity to this fact.

[Signed] H. S. CAMPBELL,
Capt. & Prov. Mar. 19th Dist.

THE NEWS.

SURRENDER OF LEE.

Gen. Lee surrendered his army on Sunday evening last. There is no doubt of this. The announcement of the fact is made by Gen. Grant himself. The terms are not given, but they were such as were proposed by Gen. Grant.

The surrender took place some miles west of Burkeyville along the line of the Richmond and Lynchburg railroad. The dispatch from Stanton announcing the fact is dated at Washington, 9 p. m., April 9th. The surrender must have taken place between half after four and nine o'clock of Sunday afternoon, as the last note of Grant to Lee, preparatory to the meeting, was dated at half-past four.

There is no account of any fighting after Thursday the 6th, when Sheridan and the 5th corps had a desperate battle with Lee's rear guard, resulting in the capture of Gen. Ewell and four other Generals, with many wagons, guns, and several thousand prisoners.

Mr. Lincoln is in Richmond, where he was in consultation with Judge Campbell and Senator Hunter, both of whom had met Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward at Fortress Monroe some weeks ago, and who it was thought retained authority from Jeff. Davis to negotiate. A dispatch states that an agreement was likely to be reached, granting a brief armistice, but this again is denied, and the assertion reiterated that Mr. Lincoln will listen to nothing but an instantaneous and unconditional surrender, threatening destruction to all who refuse.

Jeff Davis, and what is left of the Richmond Government, are said to be at Augusta, Ga.

MORE OIL!—We hear of several new discoveries of surface shows of Petroleum in various parts of the county. Among the latest discoveries is that by Mr. John Dressler, of Union township who informs us that he found a collection of oil on the water on his land on Sandy Creek, in which he saturated a woollen rag, which burned with all the brilliancy of the purest of oil.

Mr. D. says nothing about the smell, which is of the first importance; yet we have no doubt this is a petroleum found in.

THE NEW U. S. STAMP DUTIES FOR 1865.—Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Bros., 306 Chestnut street Philadelphia, have just issued a Card containing the official list of the Stamp Duties imposed by the act of Congress of March 3, 1865. Price 15 cents single copies; or 3 copies for 30 cents, $1 dollar a dozen, $8 a hundred, &c. Send for one. Every man should have one; and no man in business can well get along without one. Orders are solicited. Address as above.

☞ If the Postmaster at Erie, Pa., and the Route Agents on the Railroads passing that city, would once learn that Clearfield county can be reached sooner by way of either Philadelphia or Pittsburg, instead of sending mail matter via. Ridgway, it would be a great accommodation to the business of this community. Somebody is very dull in their Geography.

☞ Our lumbermen are very much depressed. Timber does not command as much at Marietta as was paid for it here last spring; and choice rafts are said to command only about 10 cents at Lock Haven. We hope, however, that the prospect of peace will set things in motion and buyers will come forward.

REV. C. A. GANN.

[This gentleman, who had charge of the Philipsburg circuit last year, and who was honored with a handsome donation on his retirement, sends us the following letter in acknowledgment of the honor conferred:]

LAURELTON, APRIL 1st, 1865.

Dear Friend Moore:—For some time past I have endeavored to find time to write you a few lines; but previous to this I have not succeeded in so doing.—I therefore improve the present opportunity. I think it due to the readers of your well known paper—and especially those on Philipsburg circuit, where I traveled last year, with the Rev. T. H. Switzer, who is one of the best of men in my estimation. In a few words, I will say it was the shortest year, apparently that ever I experienced. With a more generous, noble and liberal-hearted people, I never did, nor expect to live.

They fed, paid and clothed me. "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver;" and I think every creature that He has made loves the same. Previous to my leaving the Circuit, I received from kind friends a donation of a fine suit of clothes, which cost one hundred dollars, in addition to many other presents. I trust my successors may receive the same, or greater kindness. May God bless their labors to the building up of his Church.

I will close by saying that this present year I purpose making my home in the beautiful West. I shall be pleased to hear from any of my old friends and acquaintances at Flat Rock, Seneca county, Ohio. Yours truly,

C. A. GANN.

AT HOME.—Charles Larrimer, member of Co. E, 149th P. V., reached his home in this place the other day. Mr. Larrimer was among the prisoners captured in the first day's battle of the Wilderness (5th May last,) and suffered all the hardships of the Southern prisons at Andersonville, Florence, &c., until about the 1st of March. On reaching Wilmington, N. C., he was taken sick, and remained in the hospital until about the 20th, when he was transported to Annapolis, whereafter spending a few more days in hospital, was furloughed to come home. He was reduced almost to a skeleton, but is now fast gaining flesh and strength.

Benjamin and William Carr, it will be remembered, were captured at the same time. They all three remained together, and all enjoyed tolerable health, until near the close of their captivity, when Benjamin was the first to take sick, and was sent to the hospital at Florence. The last account of William was seeing him get aboard the boat for Wilmington a few miles up the river above the city. Mr. Larrimer failed to get aboard that boat, and took another; but never heard of his comrade afterwards, but supposes he reached Wilmington, and perhaps died there. Benjamin finally reached Annapolis, and died in the hospital there on the 12th of March.

The sad fate of these two young men cast a general gloom over their numerous acquaintances in this community, where they enjoyed universal respect. They both leave interesting families to buffet the storms and cares of a heartless world alone.

Important—if True.

The New York Herald of yesterday professes to have information direct from Richmond that President Lincoln is actually engaged there upon the business of peace; that on Tuesday evening last he had a private conference with Judge Campbell, one of the rebel commissioners in the famous Hampton Roads conference. Judge Campbell, it is understood, he and with the advice and consent of Jeff. Davis, upon the rebel evacuation of Richmond, remained behind to see what could be done in behalf of his despairing rebel associates and followers in a treaty of peace. The Herald is further informed that Wednesday last had been appointed as the day for a more formal meeting between the President, General Weitzel and one or two others on the Union side and Judge Campbell and some other prominent rebel leaders on the other side, and that high expectations were entertained that peace would speedily follow.

The Herald attaches the highest importance to this intelligence, "for," says that journal, "we accept it as substantially true." We would be glad to have better authority for it.—Age April 8th.

EMIGRATION.—The record for foreign emigration for the four years just passed, at the port of New York, foot up 482,264, of which number probably two-thirds were adults, and of that number about two-thirds, or over two-hundred thousand, were males. The following are the numbers for the respective years: 1861—85,559; 1862—67,306; 1863—155,323; 1864—185,206. It is probable that, adding the record at other ports of the United States, the number for the four years will reach seven or eight hundred thousand—a fact that shows most unmistakably, in connection with the loss of life by the war, how liable our country is of eventually coming under the dominion of the "foreign element." Is not "Native Americanism" astounded? Let it be considered that from 1820 to 1830 the total emigration was 244,490; from 1830 to 1840, 552,000; from 1840 to 1850, 1,558,300; and from 1850 to 1860, 2,707,624, and perhaps the astonishment will be increased. At the present rate, in ten years from 1861, the number will reach 3,600,000—or about one million more than in the previous decade. Where are the "Know Nothings" and anti-foreign dominationists?—Patriot & Union.

Coffee! Coffee! Coffee.

THE
EAST INDIA COFFEE CO'Y,
154 Reade Street, (three doors from Greenwich Street,) N. Y., call universal attention to their

Kent's East India Coffee.

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE has all the flavor of OLD GOVERNMENT JAVA, and is but half the price, and also that

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE has twice the strength of Java, or any other Coffee whatever and wherever used by our first class hotels and steamboats, and stewards say there is a saving of 50 per cent,

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE is the most healthy beverage known, and is very nutritious. The weak and infirm may use it at all times with impunity. The wife of the Rev. W. Eaves, local minister of the M. E. Church, Jersey City, who has not been able to use any coffee for fifteen years, can use

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE three times a day without injury, it being entirely free from those properties that produce nervous excitement.

Dr. James Boyle, of 126, Chambers street, says: "I have never known any coffee so healthful, nutritious, and free from all injurious qualities as KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE. I advise my patients to drink it universally even those to whom I have hitherto prohibited the use of Coffee.

The Principal of the New York Eye Infirmary says: "I direct all the patients of our Institution to use exclusively

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE, and would not be without it on any account."

The Rev. C. Larue, an eminent clergyman of the M. E. Church, now stationed at Halsey st., Newark, says of KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE. "I have used it nearly a year in my family, and find it produces no ache of the head, or nervous irritation, as in the case of all other Coffees. It is exceedingly pleasant, and I cordially recommend it to all clergymen and their families."

KENT'S EAST INDIA COFFEE is used daily by the families of Bishop Ames, Bishop Baker, Bishop James, and many of the most distinguished clergymen and professional men in the country.
