PRIMARY ELECTIONS.—The Democratic Standing Committee will give notice next week for the holding of the Primary Election—when the Committees of Vigilance will be announced.

☞ The reader's attention is directed to the brief letter of Capt. McKiernan inserted in another column. In order that its merits may be fairly appreciated, the letter of the U. S. District Attorney, published in the last Jeffersonian organ, should be first read.

We presume this is Capt. McKiernan's last. And he may well retire from the contest; for if ever a man vindicated himself successfully from the aspersions of his enemies, he has done so; and not only himself, but the Democracy of Clearfield county also.

BEAT THIS.—Mr. W. S. Dickey, of Beccaria township, recently clipped from a single (buck) sheep 9¾ pounds of cleansed wool. Weight before cleaning 11¼ pounds.

We thought the above something worth crowing over; and so it may be; but the clip of a sheep, also a buck, in Fayette county, as noticed in the Genius of Liberty, has since came to our notice. It was called a "three years' fleece," and weighed 13 pounds.

THE OLD GUARD.—The June number of the Old Guard has been received. It opens with an elaborate article, entitled, "Union, Disunion, Re-union," in which the true policy for the Democracy in the future is plainly laid out. The story of Dr. English is continued. A sketch by a new contributor, an ex-army officer, containing a graphic account of a scene in the Mexican war, will be found interesting.—The other articles will be found readable and entertaining. The one entitled "President Johnson's Opportunity," is especially suggestive, and is short and to the point. The present number is one of the best yet issued of this popular monthly, which ought to be in the hands of every Democrat. Price Two Dollars per year. A person sending seven subscribers will receive a copy gratis. Van Evrie, Horton & Co., Publishers. No. 162, Nassau street, New York.

☞ Col. Bowman, to whom Gen. Sherman addressed his recent spicy letter excoriating Stanton as Halleck, is said to be the former Superintendant of West Point Academy, who was removed from that position last summer by Stanton because he invited Gen. M'Clellan to deliver the oration at the laying of the corner stone of a monument to the soldiers from that institution who had fallen in the war.—Patriot & Union.

AND HAND TO YOUR NEIGHBOR

PROSPECTUS
OF
The Philadelphia Age,
FOR 1865.

The only Democratic Daily Morning Journal published in Philadelphia.

The Union, the Constitution
AND THE Enforcement of the Laws.

THE PUBLISHERS OF THE PHILADELPHIA AGE invite the earnest attention of business men, the Mechanic, Manufacturer and all who are interested in the various occupations and pursuits of life, to the Daily and Weekly editions of their Journal.

THE PHILA DAILY AGE,

Which advocates the principles and policy of the Democratic party, is issued every morning, (Sundays excepted,) and contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world; with carefully prepared articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions and affairs of the day: Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial Intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subject is of general interest and importance.

No event of any importance comes to any part of the country without being fully and promptly recorded in and published promptly in its columns. It has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe brought by the steamers is in nearly every instance, from whatever point the steamer touched.

TERMS—Ten Dollars per annum, for a single copy. Five Dollars, for six months. Two dollars and Fifty cents, for three months, and forty less than, at the rate of One Dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance.

THE PHILA WEEKLY AGE,

Is a complete compendium of the News of the Week, and contains the Chief Editorials, the Prices Current and the Market Reports, Stock Quotations, Intelligence for Farmers, Correspondence, and General News Matter published in the Daily Age. It also contains a great variety of other literary and miscellaneous matter, including tales, sketches, biography, literature and poetry, rendering it in all respects a first-class family journal particularly adapted to the politician, the Merchant, the Farmer, the Mechanic, the Literary man, and all classes of readers. It has, in fact, every chief article of a live newspaper, fitted for the reading-house, the work-shop, the fireside, and the general reader.

The Weekly Age is mailed in season to reach all parts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, on or before Saturday of each week.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum for a single copy; One Dollar for six months, and sixty cents for three months. One copy gratis will be sent for one year to the person forwarding an twenty yearly subscribers paid in advance. No paper will be sent until the subscription is paid.

☞ Specimen copies of the above papers sent gratis to any address, on application.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of the Philadelphia Age, which is steadily and rapidly growing, makes it at least a valuable medium for advertising as any other commercial and business newspaper in Philadelphia; and the fact that it reaches a large class of conservative readers, scattered over a vast extent of country, who do not take any other Philadelphia paper, commends it, to an extraordinary degree, as a means of communicating with the public not possessed by any other journal published in this city.

The Age is now established on a sure and permanent foundation. The publishers could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commendations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence well known and established. It will be, as heretofore, the supporter of true National, Conservative, Democratic, Union principles, opposed alike to radicalism and fanaticism in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of Good Government, Law, and Order. The revival of all the business relations of the country, consequent upon the suppression of the rebellion and the restoration of peace, will enable the publishers to make a number of improvements in the various departments of this journal, and they, therefore, respectfully solicit the support of all who wish to secure one of the best Commercial, Literary, Business and Family newspapers in the country.
