SALESMAN, with experience in selling standard medicinal tablets, for eastern territory; on commission and salary basis; state experience and salary expected; must be energetic and familiar with drug trade; references. M 134, Ledger Office.

SALESMEN WANTED

Somewhere there is a salesman who is making good; he is ambitious to establish his future, and realizes the limitations of his present connections.

This man has been selling in the East and is familiar with such lines as lumber, sash and doors, paints, glass or some other building specialty; he is a clean-cut snappy fellow, between the ages of 25 and 35.

He is an analytical business man, rather than the mid-time salesman; he believes in the manufacturer co-operating closely with his dealer; he knows the ethics of a business man and formulates permanent connection with his trade.

We are the largest manufacturers of our kind in the world, the pioneer of our industry; we manufacture a building material product which is so highly advertised that all are familiar with our trade name; we are expanding our business in the East, and enlarging our sales organization.

If this appeals to you, write to our representative, Mr. R. M. Wright, care this newspaper, giving full details of yourself, with our assurance that all communications will be strictly confidential; upon receipt of your written application, with references and other information, an appointment for an interview will be made; we have a genuine opportunity for the right man.
