The Train on the Tyrone & Clearfield Road, arrives at Tyrone at 3 o'clock, p. m., and leaves for Philipsburg, as heretofore—8,55 a. m. The proper train for Passengers from this section to take, who go Eastward, is the Cincinnati Express

GRAPE VINES.—A fine lot of choice grape vines, at reduced prices, can be had by calling on Dr. Hills. Give him call. April 25th 2t.

☞ We call the attention, of disabled soldiers and agents, to the advertisements of the Salem Leg Co.; A. F. Belcher; B. C. Baker; Philip Hill; and Secomb & Co., in this issue of our paper.

☞ Richard Mossop, has just returned from the eastern cities, with the largest selection of Spring and Summer goods ever brought to the town, and is selling them at sensation prices, to all that call.

☞ Everybody keeps running to Bridges, to book themselves up, on the new Spring fashions, which he has introduced, direct from Chestnut and Broadway.

DROWNED.—On Thursday the 19th inst., William McKee, Esq., in attempting to run a raft through the break at the Lock Haven dam, was, with two other hands, thrown into the stream by the force of the oar, causing the death of Mr. McKee. The oar and boards were thrown out to those in the water, thereby saving the life of Mr. Hagerty and Mr. Hall, but Mr. McKee seemed to pay no attention to anything transpiring around him. It is supposed that he was rendered insensible by the blow he received from the oar. His body was soon recovered and taken to his home in Knox tp., where he was buried on the 21st, in the 53d year of his age. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

ANOTHER SPEECH.—The "Government" last week, delivered a speech to the Soldiers and Sailors, in which it again distinctly pointed out, the disunion element, at "the other end of the line." The dead duck quacks terribly over this last infliction, because, he thinks he has been classed with the puppies.

CASSIUS M. CLAY.—This gentleman now our Minister to Russia, in a letter dated St. Petersburg, says:

"I deem it my duty to denounce the course of Sumner and Stevens. If only one man remains loyal he is the State. I stand by the President's veto of the freedmen's bureau bill. Let the States give the freedmen all civil rights. Or else let an amendment of the constitution make one rule of suffrage for all the States. This attempt of Congress to interfere with the rights of the States after the war power ceases is a usurpation of power unknown to the constitution, and subversive of the theory of republicanism, as based upon the old constitution of the United States."

Mr. Clay has heretofore been excessively loyal, but has not yet forgot the doctrine of State Rights.

The County Superintendency.

MR. EDITOR:—I learn that there are several persons spoken of for the position of Superintendent of Common Schools of Clearfield county—among them, Rev. A. R. Height, of Guelich township. Mr. R. is a regular graduate of Pennsylvania College, a practical teacher, with three years experience as Superintendent of another county, and, beyond doubt, possessing all the qualifications for the position for which he is named. The following certificate, from Rev. Birchfield, speaks for itself:

ANSONVILLE, APRIL 13TH, 1866.

This is to certify that the bearer, Rev. A. R. Height, is a Minister of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, in good and regular standing; and has served as County Superintendent of Schools in Perry county during a term of three years. That he is a practical teacher—deeply interested in the cause of common schools—and has been an industrious worker in that cause, is believed by the subscriber,

WM. M. BIRCHFIELD.

Three of the school directors of Guelich township—Messrs Alleman, Peterson, and another—also cheerfully recommend Mr. Height to the Directors of the county, "as a competent, and in every way qualified person for the office of County Superintendent—and from our own knowledge of his success as teacher, we can truthfully say that we have had none to exceed him, both in governing and controlling the school, as well as in advancing the pupils in mental and moral education."

Directors would do well not to commit themselves in favor of any one previous to the day of election—May 1st 1866.

Respectfully yours,

CLEARFIELD.

County Superintendent.

MR. EDITOR:—In your last issue I observe a communication, highly laudatory of a certain gentleman for the position of County Superintendent. During my experience as a director, embracing a period of several years, I have ever believed that the discussion of the merits and demerits of a candidate for that position should be excluded from the political, as well as the newspaper arena. Yet when an indiscreet friend of one of the candidates brings forward his name, it is but proper that the friends of other candidates should be heard in behalf of their claims. In mentioning claims, I must emphatically say, that no man can have any claim to this position, except he can come up to the standard required by law. Among the essential requisites are,

1st, That he shall be qualified by education and experience for the situation.

2d, He should be a thorough and experienced teacher; one who has devoted his entire attention, and not one who has merely taught a few months during the winter. He should be practical and progressive.

3d, He should be a man whose only occupation is that of a teacher.

4th, He should feel a warm interest in his profession, and be fully alive to its wants and tendencies, and can thus most effectually advance the schools and system. He should, also, be well versed in the condition and field of his labors, and be prepared at once to enter upon their active discharge, as one who has given his attention to other pursuits will loose much valuable time in acquiring the necessary knowledge of his duties, and of those who are his co-workers in advanving the cause of education.

The question for us as directors is: Is there a candidate presented to us, who combines these qualifications? I unhesitatingly assert, there is, and that candidate is Charles B. Sandford, Esq., our present Superintendent.

For the last twelve years he has been closely connected with the interests of the Common Schools, nine years as a teacher, and three years as Superintendent, and in the minds of those with whom he has been connected, stands unsurpassed as a scholar and teacher. Without any consultation with him, I would on his behalf, boldly challenge an examination of all the candidates, before the Convention of Directors, by any party competent to examine.

Mr. Sandford is willing to teach a Normal School, any length of time, that can be spared from the duties of the office, and if elected, would request all directors to urge the attendance of teachers, as it is only by this means, such a school can be successfully, conducted. Much more could be said upon this subject, but my communication is already of sufficient length, and I must close. A DIRECTOR.

APPOINTED.—The Collectorship of the Port of New York, has at length been settled. The Presinent has sent in to the Senate for confirmation, the name of Henry T. Smyth, President of the New York Central Bank. This unexpected announcement has caused a great squabble among the New York politicians. The name of Samuel G. Courtney, son-in-law of the late Danl. S. Dickinson, has also been sent in for confirmation, as U. S. District Attorney for Southern New York.

SUPREME JUDGE.—The President has appointed Hon. Henry S. Stansberry, of Ky., Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, Vice Judge Catron, of Tenn., dec'd. The Philadelphia Press says Mr. Stanberry is the reputed author of the late Veto. If he wrote that, we hold he is entirely fit for Supreme Judge, but it will be a bitter pill for the loyal Negro Senate to confirm him.

VALUABLE OXEN.—James G. Bankard, Esq., of Baltimore, presented the late Southern Relief Fair, with a pair of fat cattle, which yielded the Society $4,825. The oxen were the largest cattle in Maryland. One of them was disposed of by a raffle, at $5 a chance tickets were sold amounting to $3,575, the other was sold at auction and brought $1,250.

☞ The Steamer European, exploded at her wharf at Aspinwall on the 3d inst., destroying the ship, wharf, and killing fifty persons, including the captain and officers of the vessel. The cause of the explosion is supposed to have been caused by having a quantity of nitro-glycerin on board.

A LOSS SOMEWHERE.—The Provost Marshall General's report shows, that out of 526,000 men drafted and sworn into the service, only 168,000 reached the field. This indicates the profits of bounty jumping and loyalty.

☞ Hon. James Brooks, whom the dis-unionists turned out of Congress, had the honor of a public dinner, and a grand public reception, on his return to New York, on the 16th inst. Mr. Brooks will be returned to the next Congress by a majority of thousands.

MARRIED.

On Thursday last, by John W. Shugert, Esq., Mr. GEORGE MORRISON, to Miss MARGARET JANE SHAW, both of Goshen township.

On the 24th inst., by Rev. Thomas Tracy, Mr. PETER PIPER, of Pike tp., to Miss MARY CURRAN, of Clearfield. The parties rewarded the Printers in a substantial way, for which they will accept thanks.

DIED.

In New Washington, on the 20th inst., MARTHA MEHAFFEY, aged 17 years, 6 months and 8 days. Centre and Lycoming county papers please copy.

In Bradford township, on the 18th of March, GEO. J. KYLER, aged 60 years

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

The times are hard; you'd like to know
How you may save your Dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here,
Who worked hard at his trade;
But had a household to support,
That squandered all he made.

I met him once, says he, "my friend,
I look threadbare, and rough;
I've tried to get myself a suit,
But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go,
To get a suit that's sound and cheap—
At REIZENSTEIN'S and Co.

He took what little he had saved,
And went to Reizenstein & Brothers
And there he got a handsome suit,
For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well;
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meals,
They don't eat half so much.

And now he finds on Saturday night
With all their wants supplied;
That he has money left to spend,
And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile,
He gladly tells to all;
If you'd save Money, go and buy,
Your clothes at Reizenstein Clothing Hall.

Where the cheapest, finest, and best Clothing and good furnishing goods can be had to suit every taste and in every style.
