ASS MEETINGS!

hite Freemen, to your Posts

NSON, CLYMER & THE UNION!

mocrats and Conservatives

AGAINST

UNION RADICALS AND NEGROES!

e friends of the "Government," Clymer, Scott the Union propose to hold Mass Meetings at llowing times and places for discussing the es of the day. All desirous of hearing the will please attend:

INESS'S SCHOOL HOUSE, Bradford town-ip, Saturday, October 6, at 7, p. m.
AKERS—Israel Test, Walter Barrett and Wm. M. M'Cullough, Esqrs.

EN HOPE, Friday, October 5, at 2 p. m.
ENSIDE, (Irvin's,) Saturday, Oct. 6, 2 p. m.
W WASHINGTON, same day at 7 "
AKERS.—Ex-Gov. Bigler, Dr. Boyer and T. J. M'Cullough, Esq.

RWENSVILLE, Monday, Oct. 8, at 7 p. m.
ODWARD'S, Ruston tp., same day, 7 p. m.

e foregoing series of meetings have been agreed , and it is hoped that the Committee of Vigi-e in the respective boroughs and townships in ch they are to be held, will be particularly ve in bringing about the necessary arrange-ts for good meetings. Should any one of our mocratic or Conservative friends deem it neces-y to hold meetings in localities not named in above list, we will be thankful if they will in-m us at once. At least two of the aforenamed akers will be present at each meeting.

By order of the Democratic Co. Committee,
G. R. GOODLANDER, Chairman.

☞ We call the attention of those who desire to get the best "sewing machine" to the the card of Mr. Hamilton in another column. All the necessary information in reference to sewing machines will be furnished by him on application.

An Unpardonable Outrage.

We observed that a loyal African and his lady (?) were compelled to stand in the aisle during the "Union" convocation at the court house, on Wednesday evening last. And this, too, while there were plenty of vacant seats. Why two such magnificent beings should be snubbed in a crowd of friends, we cannot define. Two of Mr. Lincoln's pet lambs to be thus treated by those who consider themselves no better, will not be overlooked by the nations "wards." For a brother or a sister thus to treat their equals, was, under the old dispensation, a sin; but under the new, everything seems to be done by contraries. Then a loyalist was a traitor, now he is a patriot; then a negro was an inferior being; now he is the equal of the President of that meeting, and of the member of Congress from this district, except that Scofield draws $3,700 more bounty from the Treasury, and he and Swoope were awarded seats, while the gentleman and lady from Africa had to stand. We should like to see those who preach negro-equality practice it, and quit playing the hypocrite before God and man.

A Good Test.

One of our most respectable and wealthy farmers relates a singular method which he has of finding out the political bias of the numerous preachers of a certain denomination that generally make it a point to make his acquaintance, when they first "locate." He says they always get along first-rate; never hears a word of complaint; and he and his family do all they can to make their guests comfortable. In this way time passes away sometimes for several days in the most pleasant manner, until family affairs come to be discussed. The number and ages of his large family of children, are given; but whenever he comes to name his half dozen boys, beginning—George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Martin Van Buren, David R. Porter, James K. Polk—the fat's in the fire, and his clerical visitor at once remembers that he has a "call" to fulfill, and he leaves forthwith, seldom ever returning. It is by this method our friend never fails to find out what kind of preaching they are to have.

LOYALTY EXEMPLIFIED.—The Rev. (?) J. W. Hunnicutt, one of Geary's stumpers imported from Virginia, has been enlightening the "ignorant" whites in the eastern portion of this State and New York for several weeks past. In a speech made at Schnectady in that State he said:

"If the next Congress does not give us universal suffrage, we will roll up our sleeves and pitch in, and we'll raise the d——est revolution the world ever saw." He urged all persons not voters to go to the polls and squeeze one in and swore he would go to h——l before he would ask a rebel to pray for him.

This individual is one of the class termed "loyal Southerners" of the white persuasion, and is indeed a specimen of the new admixture of loyalty and religion.

CLEARFIELD, Oct. 1, 1866.

Editor Clearfield Republican:

On my return home, a few days since, I observed a paragraph in your paper of the 19th ult., relative to my removal from the office of Special Agent of the Post Office Department, in which the following interrogatories occur:—

"We would like to know to whom S. B. Row was indebted for the influence which caused his appointment? * * And if 'Senator Cowan' did not urge and obtain the appointment for him?"

As you "would like to know," Mr. Editor, I will take it upon myself to furnish you the desired information. Hon. John Patton is the only man to whom I am particularly "indebted for the influence" that secured the position. Mr. Cowan did not "urge" or "obtain" the appointment for me. On the contrary, in violation of his written pledge to aid me to the extent of his ability, he did all he could to get the place for Samuel B. Lauffer, late Secretary of the Randall-Doolittle National Committee at Washington City. If, as you say, "ingratitude is a base crime," Mr. Cowan has many charges of that kind to answer, aside from that which I could justly prefer against him, for there are few instances in which he did not prove faithless to the friends who "urged" and "obtained" his election to the U. S. Senate.

Respectfully, yours,
S. B. ROW.

The foregoing letter supplies another link in the chain of evidence against the real "traitors." Mr. Row acknowledges that he received his appointment through Gen. Patton. Mr. Cowan being a real Unionist, in this instance displayed great foresight. Mr. Row was a Disunionist in 1860, and as openly avowed secession in his paper, as any man south of Mason & Dixon's line, while Gen. Patton was nominated in 1859 by a convention that avowed in one of its resolutions "that the 4th of March next would wind up this FARCE OF A GOVERNMENT." Hence we find the original "traitors" still sticking together, for the purpose of completing their bloody work, while Senator Cowan and his co-workers are exhausting their energies to rescue our unhappy country from the hands of such political assassins as Wigfall, Row, Toombs, Greeley, Patton & Co.

Senator Cowan and his friends in this section have the consolation to know, that in no public or private act of theirs can they be proven to be Disunionists and "traitors;" while the worthies named have placed themselves upon the record as such, and no visible repentance has yet set in. They may, however, have exchanged their treason against the Government, for that of race, and are now engaged in that other greater infamy, of trying to make their offspring no better than negroes; because they are laboring to bring about the equality of races. But we hope they will be as effectually defeated in their treason against their race, as they were against the Government. This "farce of a Government" still lives, and will survive all the enemies of country and race. The "mean whites" and their black allies having failed to destroy our country in a four years war which they precipitated upon the country, and in which these especial "loyalists" took no part, have only changed their tactics; and should they unfortunately succeed in entailing a war of races upon us, their patriotism will then find them just where they were before—at home watching traitors, of course—too cowardly to help finish the work they began.

☞ A contemporary defines a "loyal" member of Congress to be a man that advocates excessive taxation, votes $100 bounty to the white soldier, $300 to the negro, $4000 to himself, and values himself and his offspring no better than negroes, and fought through a four years war—at home.

HIS COMPANIONS.—John W. Geary, the disunion candidate for Governor, is in favor of negro suffrage and negro equality. On the 3d of September he marched through the streets of Philadelphia in the "Torch-and-Turpentine" procession with Fred. Douglass and P. B. Randolph, two colored delegates to the Radical Convention. He was present at the League House when Douglass spoke to political companions, and occupied a seat upon the platform at National Hall, where Randolph harranged the multitude in favor of placing the negro upon a full equality with the white man. Keep these facts before the people!—Age.

"The Debt of Gratitude."

The Radicals are squirming under the fearful exposure of the infamous manner in which the Rump Congress paid "the debt of gratitude" the nation owes to "the boys in blue." The Radicals appropriated pay for two years services in this wise:

For every WHITE soldier	$50
For every NEGRO soldier	100
For THEMSELVES	4,000

Wade on Lincoln and Johnson.

In the Gazette's report of the speech of Senator B. F. Wade, at Mozart Hall last evening, the following occurs:

"The President who preceded Johnson, and whose memory will go down to the latest generation as one to be revered, (cheers,) that President in all the four years of war and of the nation's trial had the firm, unwavering support of the Congress."

In a manifesto signed by B. F. Wade, issued just before Mr. Lincoln was nominated for a second term, the late President was charged with perjury in violating the Constitution of the United States, which he had sworn to support. The abuse Mr. Wade now heaps upon President Johnson is but a rehearsal of slanders against President Lincon.

Mr. Lincoln's "memory," Mr. Wade now says, "will go down to the latest generation as one to be revered." This being true, what position in history will that Senator occuppy who while professing to be his supporter and friend, so foully slandered him—charging President Lincoln with crimes which, if true, made him liable to impeachment and removal from office, and consequent disgrace and infamy?—Cincinnati Union.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Right Rev. Joseph M. Young, Bishop of the Catholic diocese of Erie, departed this life on Tuesday evening, about 8 o'clock, at his residence in this city. He retired to his room apparently in his usual health. Hearing a slight noise directly after, those who were in the house went to ascertain the cause, and in reaching the Bishop found him in a dying condition. He lived long enough to have the usual religious rites administered, and in a few moments after breathed his last. The cause of his death is pronounced an attack of heart disease.

Bishop Young was born in Sanford, Maine, in August, 1808, and at the time of his death had barely entered his 59th year. He served a regular apprenticeship to the printing business in Portland. At the age of 19 he renounced Protestantism, and became a Catholic, was sent to college at Emmettsburg, and 1837 ordained as a priest. In 1854 he was appointed Bishop of the Erie diocese, since which time he has been a resident of our city. He was a man of strong convictions, undoubted ability, and thorough honesty. Unlike most of the members of his church, he was an ultra Radical in politics, and the persistent and sometimes injudicious zeal with which he sought to advance his opinions, led to a state of feeling which perhaps impaired to a certain extent, his religious and charitable efforts. Aside from this he was held in considerable esteem, and there will be many who will sincerely mourn his loss.

THE TORCH-AND-TURPENTINE PARTY.—Parson Brownlow is hailed by the Radicals as their evangelist. This minister of the gospel of peace everywhere publishes his piety and his statsemanship in these fitting terms:

I would divide your army into three grand divisions. Let the first go armed and equipped as the laws of the army require, with small arms and artillery. Let them be the largest division, and let them do the killing. —Let the second division be armed with pine torches and spirits of turpentine, and let them do the burning. —Let the the third and last division be armed with surveyors' compasses and chains, and will survey out the land and settle it. We will first sell it out, to pay the expenses of the war with the proceeds, and then settle it with men who will honor this glorious banner. These are my sentiments.

NOTICE.—Persons desiring to transact business with me at my office, are hereby notified that I will not be found with certainty at home on any days except MONDAY and SATURDAY.
