ALL THE VIRTUES OF ELECTRICITY AND WATER COMBINED.

THE above cut is a representation of DR. KARSHNER'S POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE ELECTRO-THERAPEUTIC BATHS, for which he has obtained letters patent from the Patent Office of the United States. These Baths have been in successful operation for the last two years, in many of our principal towns and cities, during which time hundreds of patients have tested their astonishing powers with signal success. Dr. K. challenges the entire medical world to produce any one system or combined set of systems, that will cure as many diseases, and in so short a time, as his Electric Baths alone, when rightly administered. The scientific minds of all professions are cordially invited to call, examine and test for themselves.

The duration of each Bath, the temperature of the water, and the strength of the electric current, are varied according to the disease, the condition of the patient at the time, and the effects desired. The water is about blood heat, and the electricity so graduated as to produce nothing but pleasurable sensations.

There is no class of Diseases, either Acute or Chronic, to which they are not adapted—which do not yield at once to their all pervading and health-restoring influences. The aged and decrepid have been led, voluntarily, to testify that they felt many years younger, and slept better than they had done for years. Others have been cured of painful diseases in a few Baths.

Nor do their healthful effects seem to be confined solely to the physical man; they have an equally happy influence upon the mental faculties, making them a most efficient means in the treatment of Insanity and all abnormal mental conditions.

Among the diseases successfully treated by Dr. K.'s Baths are: Incipient Consumption, Scrofula, Paralysis, Epilepsy, (Fits,) Insanity, Delirium Tremens, St. Vitus' Dance, Curvature of the Spine, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Weakness in the Back and Joints, Nervousness, Nervous Head Ache, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Weak Eyes, Partial Deafness, Dyspepsia, Gravel and other Urinary and Genital Diseases, Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhea, and other Female Derangements, Fever, Fever and Ague, etc. etc.

These Baths are in successful operation at

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,
BROADWAY,
NEW YORK.
WHEN completed, six years ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then it remains to-day—without a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment.—The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suits of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the travelling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its home-like comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors. BOOK OF THE FAIR.
THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce that, with the approbation and countenance of the Board of Directors of the
Allegheny County Agricultural Association,
He will publish on Sept. 3d, in time for the opening of the ALLEGHENY COUNTY FAIR,
To be held Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th, a volume bearing the above title.
THE BOOK OF THE FAIR will contain a full historical account of the origin and progress of the Association, statistics of its various Exhibitions, and much other interesting matter, relating to Allegheny County, and the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, with Fine Lithographic Views of many of our Public Buildings and Churches.
Also, a fine Octavo View of the Two Cities and Vicinity, now engraving by William Schuchman.
TEN THOUSAND COPIES of this seasonable book will be issued and ready for the opening of the Exhibition.
A SECTION of the volume will be devoted to a historical and statistical account of the various establishments to which [illegible] articles on exhibition may have been made, with full descriptions of the articles exhibited.
As this book will be in the hands of the majority if not nearly all the visitors to the Fair, the shrewd business man, merchants or agriculturist will see the great advantage to be obtained for a proper presentation of his wares, patent or stock, through the pages of this volume, by taking TIME BY THE FORELOCK, and having a neat and correctly written notice thereof tastefully prepared and nicely printed in the pages of the BOOK OF THE FAIR.
As a medium of introduction to a large number of persons of any business or manufacturing establishment, this volume, from its permanent character, is desirable. Not only will its good offices, during the continuance of the Fair, amply compensate for the expense incurred in obtaining publicity in its pages, but as, from its Historical, Statistical and Illustrated character, it will naturally pass from hand to hand, and be scattered far and wide, it is at once apparent to every shrewd business man that it offers unusual attractions to such as would strikingly commend their establishments, wares, patents or stock to the attention of thousands.
As the whole matter of the book must be prepared and printed, and the volume issued at least one day previous to the opening of the Fair, it will be obvious that all parties availing themselves of its pages must make application soon to the publisher.
All orders must be addressed to

The Massacre at Damascus.

The following are extracts of letters from a European resident in Damascus to a friend in Beyrout:

"DAMASCUS, July 10—6:30 a. m.

"A few minutes after I closed my letter of yesterday, an uproar commenced in the street opposite my house. The Moslems—men, women, and boys—began to assemble, crying out that all should go to the Christian quarter to plunder, burn, and massacre, and threatening not to leave a house or a Christian. I went to the street and spoke to some of them, hoping it would come to nothing. It grew rapidly worse. Every one was calling to others not to come without arms, and the women were violently exciting the men. There was some fear expressed of the soldiers, but most declared the soldiers would not interfere with them. I now found it prudent to take the advice of some of my neighbors, and keep inside my house. The street past my house is about the shortest road from the Shughoor and the Meedan, the two worst districts in the city. Soon after I went into my house the ruffians began to return from the Christian quarter with burdens of plunder, while the numbers running toward it were increasing, and threats, imprecations, and yells were numerous and loud. Every sort and size of thing was carried past my house—mares and goats, gold and old iron nails, silk and cottons, chests, large and small, tables, chairs, books, and every imaginable article. There was a regular stream of these plunderers past my door till after sunset—nearly five hours. Afterward they became fewer, but they never ceased all night, and with the dawn they again increased. As soon as they had plundered some of the houses they set them on fire. During the night, though there was clear moonlight, the flames and smoke presented a sight as grand as it was awful. During the first half of the night the flames presented an unbroken arc of a circle, as viewed from my roof, of more than 79 deg., extending from a little north of Bab Shurky, to the extreme north of the Christian quarter. Toward morning the arc became shorter, partly because it had been steadily approaching me, and the Christian quarter as it comes this way grows narrower, and partly, perhaps, because the line of fire was not sweeping all the houses on the north border of the quarter. Toward morning the flames also became lower, or less violent, on most parts of the line, and fewer houses were in flames at once. Still the fire is raging fearfully. There has been an increasing tumult of cries, of the fire of breaking open houses, &c., all mingled up together. I have no means of guessing the amount of murder committed. Last night comparatively few appear to have been killed, but there is said to have been more butchery this morning. I cannot go out of my door without being in the midst of these hellish ruffians thirsting and crying for blood and plunder. If one of the native Christians in my house were to go out, I believe he could not reach the corner of the street alive. So my means of information beyond what I see and hear of the flames and tumult and plunder are very limited. We overhear a good deal of their talk in the street, and some of the talk of our Moslem neighbors on the roofs.

"I believe it would not have needed a great effort on the part of the Government to prevent all this, but not the slightest effort has yet been made. There were soldiers in the Christian quarter and neighborhood, others were sent in the evening with four guns, and more this morning, but they have not at all interferred with the ruffians. Yet a majority of the miscreants are actually women, boys, and girls. I would affirm that there are not in all more than a few hundred men—say 500—mostly the lowest of the low, and miserably armed. Not one in twenty had a gun. A very large number have only sticks, the rest swords, pistols, daggers, or axes. Opposite my door is a sort of stopping place for them, and we can overhear their talk, and I can affirm that from the first, and all through, they have had the greatest dread of the interference of the soldiers, and constantly ask one another as they meet, whether the soldiers in such and such a direction are stopping the murderers or opposing them and this although, during 17 hours, the soldiers have been perfectly passive. I believe firmly that 100, or at the most 200 soldiers, or armed resolute men, not soldiers, could have put down the insurrection at the worst moment. Of course, it would have been easier to do so within the first hour or two.

"This meager account does not give anything like an adequate conception of this most horrible and most disgraceful affair; that words could hardly do. Horses, donkeys and mules are employed to carry plunder, and some of the soldiers help themselves to a share. There were several thousands of poor widows, orphans, and other plundered and ruined refugees, depending on the charity of the Christians for food, shelter, and clothes. They are now burnt out again amid the horrors of last night, and those who were providing bread for them are now as helpless and miserable as themselves.

"Noon.—The plundering still continues, but the number engaged in it seems greatly reduced since morning, and most of the articles now are of little value. No effort has yet been made to stop this reign of terror and destruction, easy as it would seem to be; and a Christian, at least a man, would, probably, be in greater danger among the ruffians now than at any former period. The houses are still burning, though apparently not nearly so much as through the night, but I cannot see so well, as I cannot go so freely on my roof in the day as I could during the night. We have made a peep-hole over the street from which we can see and hear without being seen: for if seen we should probably be very soon disposed of. These ruffians from the Meedan, and the Arabs, gipsies, &c., among them, know nothing of me, and rush past thinking only of the Christian quarter. If my neighbors do not betray me I may probably escape, but there are some of them not to be trusted. We are not in human hands, but in the hands of One infinitely wise and good as well as infinitely powerful, and without His permission nothing can befall us."

EMANCIPATED.—Mr. Richard Higgins, residing near Russelville, Logan county, Ky., arrived in this city on last Friday, accompanied with twenty-six slaves, male and female, who had been emancipated by their masters in that State. Judge Ewing, a gentleman who owned the most of them, had freed them sometime ago, but they refused to leave him as long as he lived. The Judge recently died, and they then left to seek a home in the free States. Twenty-two of them have gone to Kansas, and the balance are still in the city. They are all in good circumstances, having been well provided for, and in possession of means sufficient to buy comfortable homes.—Ohio State Jour.

THE Memphis Avalanche keeps the following standing at the head of its leading column, in large letters:

We understand that the Hon. Emerson Etheridge made a speech at Dresden, Tenn., during which he read the Black Republican platform, and asked if there was any man there who could find fault with it. He further said that the election of Lincoln on that platform would give peace to the country, whilst Breckinridge's would dissolve the Union.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS IN OHIO.—The Hon. Harrison G. Blake has been nominated for re-election by the Republicans of the Lorain, Medina &c. District, and he will be chosen by a rousing majority. He deserves it.

In the Tenth District, the Hon Cary A. Trimble has been nominated for re-election by the Republican Convention held at Portsmouth, by acclamation.

"SINCE the crucifixion of Christ there has not been so benevolent an institution known among men as African Slavery."—Henry Clay Dean.

The man who gave utterance to this blasphemous sentiment is now "stumping" the State of Iowa for Douglas, as one of his Electors.—Chic. Jour.

CATCHWORDS ILLUSTRATED.—"Popular Sovereignty."—Brooks & Co. surprising Sumner in his seat, knocking him down with a bludgeon, and beating his head to a jelly.

"Non-Intervention"—Douglas standing placidly by and seeing the job thoroughly done.—N. Y. Trib.

UNQUESTIONABLY the largest and most enthusiastic political meeting ever seen in Iowa assembled at Des Moines on the 4th inst. Ten thousand Republicans were there. During the afternoon there was speaking from two stands; in the evening from three.

AT the Republican mass meeting in St. Clair County, Ill., among the banners borne in the procession was one—"Here are the Democrats of 1856," after which followed a large party of men who voted for Buchanan, but will now vote for Lincoln.

THE landed property of Russian nobility is mortgaged to the amount of $368,000,000. Of this amount the Bank of Moscow has $154,000,000 loaned on 863 estates; and the Bank of St. Petersburg $106,500,000 on 7,401 estates.

When he goes into port.

What town should tobacco chewers live in?
Spithead.

Why can no quadruped enter a city garden?
Because there can never be more than three feet in a yard.

THE Duke of Newcastle, who attends the Prince of Wales, in his early manhood, when bearing the title of the Earl of Lincoln, married Lady Susan Hamilton, sister of the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon. But that lovely inconstant one took it into her head one day to elope with a handsome officer of the Guards, leaving children, husband, and the prospective rank of a duchess in her infatuation. Lord Lincoln obtained a divorce, and, plunging more actively than ever into political life has ever since remained single, dividing his affections between his country and his children.

THE Erie Gazette says that the shipments of oil over the Sunbury and Erie Railroad to that point, amount to between five and six hundred barrels per week.

Sewing Machines.

WHEELER & WILSON'S

SEWING MACHINE!
No. 27 FIFTH STREET, PITTSBURGH.
WE offer to the public WHEELER & WILSON'S IMPROVED SEWING MACHINE, with increased confidence in its merits as the best and most reliable Family Sewing Machine now in use. It sews equally well on the thickest and thinnest fabrics, makes the lock-stitch impossible to unravel, with the essential advantage of being alike on both sides, forming no ridge or chain on the under side—is simple in construction, more speedy in movement, and more durable than any other machine.
We give full instructions to enable the purchaser to sew ordinary seams, stitch, hem, fell, quilt, gather, bind and tuck, all on the same machine, and warrant it for three years.
Circulars, containing testimonials from ladies of the highest standing, East and West, giving prices, &c., will be furnished gratis, on application in person or by letter.
Sewing Machine Needles, Silk, Twist, Cotton and Oil constantly on hand.

$30 WILCOX & GIBBS
Sewing Machine.
Fresh stock just received. One lady says here has been in use a year without going out of order, or even requiring a new needle, and does all the sewing for a large family, and with very little noise or fuss. A tailor from Allegheny City says it is all he could desire—he keeps it in constant use. A lady from the country orders one for herself and one for a friend—says "a neighbor has one and it gives great satisfaction," and that "there are other agents here with machines, but the Wilcox & Gibbs are thought the best." Rev. E., of Ohio, having one, advises Rev. A. to get one, and like a sensible man and good husband, he gets it.
Please call and see for yourself, what needle-oppressed women has long wanted.
