Thursday:::::::::::::::January 23, 1868.

Dr. A. M. Hills desires us to say that he will be in Philipsburg on the first week of February, (3d to 8th inclusive,) to attend all calls in a Dental way. Rooms at Lloyd's Hotel. 3t

Court.—Last week, for the first time since the days of Judge Knox, we had a full week's Court. It opened at ten o'clock on Monday, and closed at nine on Saturday night; during which time several very heavy causes were tried, and a large amount of other Quarter Sessions business disposed of. The result is, that four men are sentenced to the Penitentiary—three for one year and nine months, two of whom pay costs and a fine of five hundred dollars each, and the other costs and one hundred dollars only; while the fourth pays costs, five hundred dollars fine, and goes two years and nine months to Allegheny; and a fifth was sentenced to pay costs and go seven months to jail.

Judge Barrett moves a Court as systematically as an engineer does his locomotive, and in his language and deportment cannot be misunderstood.

Give us the Bench we had last week, for one year, and we will guarantee that thereafter the Commonwealth will be compelled to leave the Court room on Wednesday evening, while the balance of the term can be devoted to civil causes. Thousands of dollars can be saved to the taxpayers of this county, if the business of the upper and lower stories of the Court House is administered as it ought to be. Put the machine in legal business shape, and causes can be tried in proper season, with less than half the friction that is now produced.

There is no act of the people's agents so highly appreciated, as that of attending to their business at the proper time and as speedily as possible. If this is done, a heavy decrease in taxation will soon follow, to the mutual benefit of all.

Democratic Meeting.—According to previous notice, the Democracy of this county assembled in the Court House, in Clearfield, on Tuesday evening, the 14th instant, for the purpose of electing Senatorial and Representative Conferees, to meet those of the other counties of this district.

After being called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, Frank Fielding, Esq., offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

> Resolved, That James Savage, of New Washington, J. B. Walters, of Clearfield, and H. W. Kerns, of Curwensville, be, and are hereby elected, Senatorial Conferees, to meet like Conferees from Cameron, Clarion, Elk and Forest counties, and choose a Senatorial delegate to represent this district in the approaching 4th of March Convention, and that they have power to substitute.

Mr. Frank Short then offered the following:

> Resolved, That F. G. Miller, of Clearfield, L. G. Lingle, of Osceola, and Eli Bloom, of Pike township, be selected as Representative Conferees, to meet those from Elk and Forest counties, for the purpose of selecting a Representative delegate to the approaching State Convention, and if unable to attend the Conference, that they have power to appoint substitutes.

This resolution was also unanimously adopted.

The business for which the meeting was called having been transacted, it was, on motion, adjourned.

A Missing Husband Turns Up.—Mr. Joseph R. Cobb, husband of Mrs. Cobb, with whose name the Washington conspirators have taken so many liberties, publishes the following card in the St. Louis Republican:

> "I denounce the Hon. James M. Ashley, M. C., of Ohio, a calumnious libeler, suborner, and an infamously unscrupulous slanderer. I also br[illegible] him a coward. Disclaiming to avail mysel[illegible] this dastard's foil as per shield of committee, in attempting to perpetrate a midnight assassination upon a soldier's character.
>
> "Joseph R. Cobb.
>
> "St. Louis, January 3, 1868."

It is useless for Mr. Cobb, or any other gentleman, to call Ashley to an account: because his associations with Conover, Stevens, and that class of political harlots, has rendered him callous to everything pertaining to the character of a gentleman.

The largest farms are found in California, where the average size of eighteen thousand farms is 666 acres.

Clearfield County Agricultural Society.

Laboring Men's Associations.

Editor of Republican: Your neighbor of the Journal attacks the cause of Labor Reform in a most mean, foul-mouthed and cowardly manner, in his issue of January 15th; as the real objects of the Associations are, to organize the Sons of toil, to act in their own DEFENCE against the all-devouring grasp of capital. True, some of their principles are Democratic as well as Republican; but the Labor Reform movement goes far above and beyond anything any other party has ever, as yet, dared to advocate; because other parties have, in a great measure, been controlled by capital. When Mr. Row tells his readers that these Associations are under the care and management of Copperheads, he tells them a bare-faced falsehood; for, as far as I am aware, I was the first, (or one of the first,) to introduce Labor Reform advocates in this county, called and addressed the first meeting on the subject of the Rights of Labor, and if he terms I, or such as I, Copperheads, then I thrust the lie arms-length down his black throat.

Yours, for the Rights of Labor,
ANDREW WILSON.

Luthersburg, Jan. 20, 1868.

The Lancaster Intelligencer made its appearance on the 1st instant very considerably enlarged. Before this addition to its size, it ranked among the largest papers in the State, and now it outstrips all its cotemporaries, with one or two exceptions. The Intelligencer is one of the most ably edited papers in the State, and we are glad to know that it is receiving the patronage it so well deserves.

Bees a Nuisance.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "By reference to our court proceedings, it will be seen that the keeping of bees has been decided to be a nuisance. Some time ago Augustus Banker entered complaint before the Mayor, charging John Young with maintaining a nuisance in the shape of a lot of bees. The honey-makers visited Bankers store, and almost prevented the transaction of business therein. They intruded in every part of the store, and made havoc of sugars, candies, etc., kept on hand. The case came up for trial yesterday afternoon, and was concluded this morning, when the jury rendered a verdict of guilty. It is therefore a settled matter that bees constitute a nuisance when they intrude on the premises of their keepers' neighbors.

Frightful Scene in Court.—In the Criminal Court of Washington City, on the 10th instant, a prisoner, while receiving his sentence for burglary, drew a knife and attempted to murder a boy who had been the principal witness against him. By a quick action the boy saved himself. The would be murderer was not subdued until several officers came to the rescue. The Judge had just sentenced him to two years confinement in the Penitentiary; after he was secured, the Judge remanded him back to jail, and ordered the officers who witnessed the other affair to appear before the Grand Jury, and bring in an indictment of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Dr. Mendelssohn, son of the illustrious composer, and Professor of History in the University of Heidelburg, is about to publish the posthumous works of his father. They comprise a symphony named "The Reform," a funeral march, composed for the anniversary of the death of Norbert Bergmuller, a sonata, and ballads without words (lieder ohne worte)

Gen. Lee's Views.—In a conversation with Gen. Preston, of this State, who has recently returned from a visit to Gen. Robert E. Lee, he remarked that the General has said to him that "the course of General Hancock was the first dawn of hope he had seen for the people of the South since the termination of the war."—Louisville Democrat.

The citizens of Forest county are remonstrating against the erection of a new Court House at Tionesta, claiming that the building in present use will answer the purpose for ten years to come.

Wooden legs cost the government last year $35,208 50. Wooden heads cost the government much more than that

HEAVY ROBBERY.—The house of John Bennehoof, of Venango county, was entered about half past seven o'clock, on the 16th instant, by four men disguised by handkerchiefs over their faces, and robbed of over two hundred thousand dollars—forty thousand dollars in bonds, and the balance in currency. They presented revolvers at the heads of the inmates, when they proceeded to tie Mr. John Bennehoof, his wife, and two sons, and also a hired man and girl. Taking the keys from Mr. Bennehoof, they entered the safe and extracted the above amount, after which they sat down, and waited half an hour for the return of Mr. Joseph Bennehoof, another son, who was absent, and who had in the house a patent burglar safe, containing a large amount. He did not return until they had left, taking with them three horses and a cutter.

Mr. Bennehoof is a brother of Philip Bennehoof, of Bradford township, in this county.

John Tyler, son of ex-President Tyler, is now sojourning in New York. He represents his brother Robert as being engaged in editing the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, in which office his beautiful and accomplished daughter, Letita Christiana Tyler, is engaged in setting type.
