GATHERING STRENGTH.—We were pleased to hear the enlivening strains of the Clearfield Band on our streets on Saturday night. The young men composing the band deserve substantial encouragement, and we have no doubt but that our citizens will ere long manifest their feeling in a becoming manner. Much praise is due Mr. Connelly, for his untiring efforts in organizing a band in this place. A little more perseverance will bring out a full fledged band, so that Clearfield need not send abroad for music when she wants her enthusiasm toned up.

ATTENTION.—Our borough fathers have a duty devolving upon them that must be attended to pretty soon by them, or they must employ substitutes. We allude to the rank growth of smart-weed, thistles, &c., along the sidewalks and in the alleys of this borough. This truck must be cut before it goes to seed. If lot owners were not too lazy, they would soon get rid of this disgraceful embellishment. If they don't know how, we will inform them on application. Our remedy is easy and never fails, and will ruin any thistle or weed. We charge nothing for the recipe.

THEY WANT A WHISTLE.—An almost universal desire has been expressed by our citizens to the effect that a long whistle be sounded ten or fifteen minutes before the passenger train leaves the depot, so as to prevent the numerous failures of making the train. This was the rule at Philipsburg, and is at the end of a number of other branch roads, but has not been adopted since the road was completed to this place. We know this would be very agreeable to those living at a distance from the station, but might not be appreciated by those residing in the immediate vicinity. Besides we understand that the officers of the road are averse to the whistling business, and advise all to "keep railroad time."

CONCERT—A grand entertainment will be given by James Anderson, a blind man, at Leavy's Hall, on Thursday evening, July 22d, for the purpose of raising funds to take him to California, where he has an offer of teaching in an institution for the blind. Mr. Anderson was born blind, and never knew what it is to be blessed with a father and mother, and yet he tries to make himself contented under the affliction that God has in His All-wise Providence, placed him. Mr. Anderson has given several entertainments, and met with good success. In Sunbury, the several ministers volunteered their services, and interested themselves in his behalf. He gave an exhibition in the Presbyterian church and all expressed themselves as well pleased with the entertainment. Admission 15 cents; children 10 cents. Tickets for sale at the several stores. Doors open at 7½ o'clock; performance to commence at 8. For further particulars see bills.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the members of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society, held in the Prothonotary's office, on Saturday, July 17th, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year:

RATIFIED.—A goodly number of the Democrats of this borough met in the Club room on Thursday evening, and in a proper manner ratified the nomination of Messrs. Packer and Pershing. Everybody seemed pleased and sanguine of success. Judge Barrett was present, and gave a personal and social history of our candidates, whom he has known personally for twenty-seven years. Mr. Krebs was called upon and made a lively speech. The band was also present to enliven things and aid in suppressing the excessive heat.

REMOVED.—Mr. John F. Moore, who has discharged the duties of Mail Agent on the Tyrone & Clearfield road, was last week removed to give room to Mr. David Adams, a stay-at-home patriot. We learn that several soldiers were applicants for this position, but they received the go by for one who talked war awfully, but was exempted. "The boys in blue" were sweet morsels for cowards and hypocrites to dwell upon while war was the rage, but Grant's peace policy has played hob with the soldier.

MR. SCHEETZ—Dear Sir: I have used your Bitters, and seen them used by others with good effect, and in no case without producing good results. In one case a fellow workman was taken with vomiting and purging, and was so reduced that he was scarcely able to walk. I got your Bitters and gave him three doses in one hour, which entirely cured him.

THOS. BROWN, 1504 Otis St.

DICTIONARIES IN COURTS OF LAW.—We notice that our Supreme Court refer to Webster's Dictionary to determine the meaning of the word factory. We commend the modern practice of courts of referring to our standard dictionaries in construing the meaning of doubtful words used in instruments of writing. Certainly no higher authority can be found in such cases than Webster.—Legal News.

We understand that the Mercantile firm of Messrs. Bennett, Blattenbarger & Co., at Osceola, was dissolved on the first of July, and is succeeded by Messrs. J. A. Blattenbarger & Co., who, we have no doubt, will do the clean thing.

Miss Jones, Postmistress at Winterset, Iowa, recently married M. Alfred Smith. Mrs. Smith is not known to the Department as Postmistress, Miss Jones has no longer a legal existence, and things generally are pretty much mixed. Smith is anxious to know if he is married in the post office, or has married the post office out of the family.

It is stated that Wm. L. Scott, the President of the Erie and Pittsburg railroad, is about to build a theatre in Erie. That city has hitherto had to get along as best she could with her old-fashioned halls, and Mr. Scott's energy and public spirit will probably be highly appreciated.

TENNESSEE AND MISSISSIPPI.—Tennessee will be carried by the republican conservatives and the democrats, after the fashion of Virginia, and in Mississippi even the radicals have taken ground in favor of white emancipation. So much for the decisive example of Old Virginia.

A Kansas reader of the Declaration of Independence on Monday week began with "Know all men by these presents." General Grant begins all his appointments with the same language.

In four months poor Grant has had two Secretaries of State, two of War, two of the Treasury, and two of the Navy. How will it stand three months hence?

Judge Linn, having formed a law partnership with Hon. W. H. Armstrong, is about to make Williamsport his future residence.

Ten Years Ago.

About ten years ago, Daniel E. Sickles committed a cowardly murder in the streets of Washington. Now he represents the United States at the court of Spain.

Less than ten years ago, Governor Joe Brown, of Georgia, was the leader of the secession movement; and afterwards originator, builder and manager of the Andersonville prison pen, in which so many thousands of Union soldiers perished. Now Brown is the leader of the Radical party in Georgia.

Considerably less than ten years ago, Gen. Longstreet was at the head of an army, dealing death and destruction to our Union soldiers. Now he is the appointee of Grant to a lucrative position in New Orleans.

Ten years ago, Ben Butler at the Charleston Convention, voted fifty-three times for Jeff. Davis as a candidate for President, and at that time, was a poor man. Now he is the head and front—the very quintessence of Radicalism—and worth his millions of dollars.

Ten years ago U. S Grant was a penniless prisoner on the bounty of the Dent family. Now he is President of the United States, and the entire Dent family are pensioners on the "Government."

Ten years ago the national debt was about sixty millions of dollars, now it is nearly three thousand millions.

Ten years ago not a national tax-gatherer was to be seen or heard of in this broad land. Now they are as numerous as lice on a cabbage leaf.

These are certainly "curious illustrations of the changes wrought by time" and Radicalism.

The Herald says that the Radicals are getting very uneasy about the success of their ticket in this State with Geary as their candidate. They have been, it says, "importuning the President for aid in the approaching canvass in Pennsylvania, and do not hesitate to say that if it is not forthcoming, Geary will be defeated. What the politicians want is to have Grant turn Attorney General Hoar adrift and give his place in the Cabinet to some Pennsylvanian. Grant has promised to do all he can for the party in Pennsylvania, but according to the reports of those who have talked to him recently on the subject, he has not made up his mind to give Hoar's place to a Pennsylvania politician."

A Hardshell Baptist preached in Washington lately, and took for his text: "God made man in his own image." He then commenced: "An honest man is the noblest work of God." Then he made a long pause, and looking searchingly around the audience, exclaimed: "But I opine God Almighty hasn't had a job in this city for nigh unto fifteen years!"

Said a Baptist to a Methodist: "I don't like your church government. It isn't simple enough. There's too much machinery about it." "It is true," replied the Methodist, "we have more machinery than you; but then, you see, it don't take near so much water to run it."

Old Brownlow says that U. R. Meyers, a carpet-bagger just appointed mail agent by Grant, "is the worst man unhung." As Brownlow is himself as yet unhung, this fellow, Meyers, must be the devil's own whelp.

The Journey men Carpenters' Association of Washington city have inserted the word "White" in their constitution, thus excluding colored men from membership.

Ben. Hogan, of Titusville, a pugilist of some fame in the oil regions, has challenged Tom Allen of St. Louis, for a contest in the prize ring for $1,000 a side.

"Harry, you ought not to throw away nice bread like that; you may want it some day." "Well, mother, would I stand any better chance of getting it then if I should eat it now?"

A Radical paper says that the Democrats profess to worship the Constitution of the United States. Well, the Radicals profess to worship the negro! Which is preferable?

The Cuban filibusters that sailed from New York a few days ago, have come to grief, having been overhauled by the authorities, and compelled to keep the peace at least for a time.

A bachelor editor, who had a pretty unmarried sister, lately wrote to another editor similarly circumstanced, "Please exchange!"

It is said that George Peabody designs to administer upon his own estate, and will leave nothing for heirs or tax gathers to quarrel about.

The Union Republican State Central League is the name of the new political organization formed in Massachusetts to oppose prohibitory legislation.

Colonel James B. Latimer, one of the defenders of Baltimore in 1814, died in that city on Tuesday last aged 72.

"What blessings children are!" said the parish clerk when he took fees for christening them.

Prentice says, man was the chief consideration at the creation. Woman was only a "side issue."

"Don't care 'bout the bugs," said Mr. Swinks, "but the truth is, I hav'nt got the blood to spare."

Sheridan defined an Irishman as a machine for converting potatoes into human nature.

A new Republican paper, to be entitled The Public Opinion, is about to be commenced in Chambersburg.
