CHURCH DEDICATION.—The dedication of the first Methodist Church in Bloom township, Clearfield county, will take place on Sunday, the 5th day of December next, at 11 o'clock, in the forenoon. The Rev. Robison of Pittsburgh, will be present to preach the dedicatory sermon. The Rev. Wilson is also expected to be present, accompanied by Rev. James Clary, pastor in charge. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to all, to be present on the occasion.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We are informed that a little girl of a Mr. Hockenberry, of Woodward township, met with an untimely death one day week before last. The particulars, as near as we can learn, are as follows: The mother had left the child which was about six years old—and crippled at that—in the house alone while she went to a neighboring house on an errand; and by some means or other, its clothes took fire, and before any assistance was rendered, they were entirely burned from its body, which caused its death in a few hours after.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—E. H. Baily, Esq., of Lawrenceburg, recently sold two acres of ground opposite his residence, to Isaac Seefeldt, John McGaughey, G. N. Colburn, T. J. McCullough, Esq., and others from Clearfield county, for the sum of two thousand dollars. The purchasers already have derrick stuff on the ground, and a well is to be put down on the premises in the shortest time possible.

We clip the above from the Northwestern Independent, published by Mr. Clark Wilson, well known to many of our patrons as one of the publishers of the Republican fifteen years ago. Mr. Wilson also, like the gentlemen named, has invested and made a "strike" in the Oil Regions. We hope they will be more lucky than scores of others who put their money into a hole in that slippery section.

Will be here on Friday—the handsomest and best line of Gent's Bows, Ties and Gloves, ever brought to town. WM. REED & Co.

COURT, which opened on the 8th instant, is still in session. But few persons have been in attendance, yet a large amount of business has been done. The great defalcation on the part of jurors and witnesses has caused his Honor to issue an order imposing a fine of $20. on every juror who fails to furnish a reasonable excuse for his absence. Witnesses will be similarly treated in order to reduce the number of attachments which are usually issued in such cases. After the Court gets jurors and witnesses to obey its precepts in a becoming manner, it would be well enough to help Attorney's and parties to get their cases ready when court opens. The former, have for years, manifested as much energy in delaying public business, as the aforesaid jurors and witnesses, and a rule on this point would not be out of order.

PREPARE FOR THE CENSUS TAKER.—Next year will occur the great decennial census of the United States, made by the general government. Persons will be appointed for every locality in the States and townships to gather statistics of the inhabitants, and of all the agricultural productions, manufacturers, etc. Each cultivator will be asked for a concise, accurate statement of land occupied by him, the number of acres, and the amount of each crop raised during the year, ending June 30, next. Those who were called on before will doubtless remember the difficulty in making up an accurate report of the various crops. As these reports will be called for in June, it will be necessary to give in the crops gathered this fall, and the suggestion we would make is, that cultivators write down, while fresh in mind, the number of acres under cultivation, the number of acres of each kind, the amount per acre, and the gross amount. The milk product also, and the amount of pork, beef, etc., will be asked for, as well as all kinds of fruits, etc.

CHILD BURNED.—It becomes our painful duty to record another of those sad accidents, which, happen as often as they may, always fill the mind with horror. On last Sunday, a little child of Mr. Abraham Weaver, residing at Cold Stream, was burned to death, under the following circumstances: Its mother had gone out for a short time, leaving two small children alone in the house, and during her absence, the elder procured a stick, and engaged in the, to children, delightful pastime of playing with fire. While thus engaged the smaller child's clothing was set on fire, and ere the mother returned, the little sufferer was so badly burned that it died the following day, and was buried on Wednesday last. It was aged about one and a half years.—Philipsburg Journal.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this marvelously cheap and handsome Magazine for December. Its table of contents is varied and charming, embracing the usual fine variety of serials, sketches, stories, poems and attractive engravings. The publishers announce in the prospectus for the coming year, a serial story for adults, by the popular Magazine writer, James Franklin Fitts, and a juvenile serial by the young people's favorite, Horatio Alger, Jr. The price of this periodical is a marvel to everybody—a hundred page first-class illustrated Magazine for fifteen cents, or $1.50 per year, is indeed wonderfully cheap. THE COURT CLOSED OUT.—On Tuesday (yesterday) morning, John W. Geary appeared in Court, represented by Harry Goss, who was convicted at the September Term, for violating the Liquor Law, and settled the case in question, by producing a Pardon for his violation of the law. The broad seal of the Commonwealth has again been prostituted by our demagogueish Governor. No wonder he issued a commission to a Philadelphia villain several years ago to vote the tombstone at Fort Mifflin. He had better issue another thanksgiving proclamation. We will refer to this matter again.

POISONING CASE.—The Huntingdon Globe says that two gentlemen residing in German Valley, Huntingdon county, were poisoned on Thursday last by eating aconite, a poisonous root, which they mistook for spikenard. They found the root in the corner of a field in which they had been plowing.—Shortly after eating it, one of the men was seized with violent pains in the stomach and bowels. He called for water, and having drank it, expired immediately. The other man was attacked in like manner, but drank milk, which acted as an antidote for the poison, and he recovered.

THANKSGIVING.—To-morrow has been designated by the authorities, as a day of *thanks*giving and prayer. We learn that arrangements have been made for a general assembling of the people at the Presbyterian Church in this place, where a sermon suited to the occasion will be preached by Rev. Mr. Butler.

"The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year;
Of wailing winds, and naked woods,
And meadows brown and sere."

And it would seem that winter is now about to take the place of our usual Indian summer.

THE ACADEMY.—The second term for the year will open at this institution on Monday, the 22d instant, as will be noticed by the advertisement elsewhere in this issue, in which terms of tuition are fully set forth.

Miss Swan's School for girls, will open for a new term on Monday, the 22d instant. Terms of tuition will be found in another column. This School is in a flourishing condition and just the place for girls.

KILLED.—A man by the name of William Huling, was run over by the engine of a freight train of cars near Huntingdon, on last Saturday a week, and instantly killed.

KILLED.—Reuben Houch was killed the other day while feeding a threshing machine in Slippery Rock township, Lawrence county. A pitch fork which had slipped off the handle was thrown into the machine with the sheaf of wheat in which it was sticking, when it was instantly broke to pieces, a fragment striking Mr. H. in the forehead and penetrating the brain.

A man named Costello, a farmer, residing in Iowa, was arrested recently for a murder, committed thirty years ago in Ireland.

Occasion of Proof in a Line.

Harriet Beecher Stowe tells the world that Lady Byron made known to her the "infamy of Lord Byron and his sister, Lady Augusta Leigh, and the separation as the consequence of it." It now turns out that Lady Byron, after this separation, wrote Augusta Leigh: "You have ever been my best comforter, and will ever remain such till you grow weary of the relation."

The great world of Europe and America here rest the slander case of "Stowe versus Byron;" and the verdict will be the conviction of this female hyena of one of the foulest moral crimes known to humanity. This animal, the hyena, is of the genus canis, known to history as a creature "that tears open graves to ob
