Weaver & Betts, whose advertisement appears elsewhere, offer to their customers rare inducements in the mercantile line.

Not much in a Name—but it is a fact, that JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, is now confined in our old jail for Bastardy.

The great explosion which took place at Titusville, several weeks ago, was distinctly heard and felt throughout this county.

Mr. Buchanan offers through our advertising columns, a farm for sale, situate in Indiana county, Pa., within a few miles of the Susquehanna river.

A large arrival of an entire stock of new goods, at the store formerly kept by J. P. Kratzer, which will be sold at golden rates. Call and examine.

Settling.—The County Auditors are in session this week, examining the accounts of the several county officers, and making the annual settlement with the County Treasurer, Mr. Wrigley.

Religious.—Rev. D. Dashiell, President of Dickinson College, Carlisle, will preach in the M. E. Church, in Curwensville, on next Sunday, (morning and evening,) January 9th.

Those in want of Sleighs, can be accommodated by calling either at Leavy's Livery Stables, or on Mr. Frank Short, whose advertisements appear in this issue of the Republican.

Divine Service.—Rev. Mr. Holmes, of the Baptist Church, Tyrone, will preach in the Baptist Church, in this place, on Monday evening, January 10th, commencing at 7 o'clock.

Lift.—Senator Wallace, left home on Monday last, to assume his legislative duties at Harrisburg, where his friends and constituents will find him during the session of the Legislature.

Messrs. Blattenberger & Co., at Osceola, are closing out their winter stock of goods at a great reduction, thus giving their customers all the advantage of the heavy reduction in gold.

Removal.—Wm. M. McCullough, Esq., District Attorney, has removed his office to the new building, (second floor,) on 2d Street, directly opposite the residence of Ex-Gov. Bigler, where he may at all times be consulted in reference to legal business.

Notwithstanding the tightness of the times, Messrs. Arnold & Hartshorn, of Curwensville, have just opened a large and varied assortment of seasonable goods, for the inspection of the public, to which they invite the attention of purchasers.

Appointments.—The County Commissioners have made the following appointments for the ensuing year:
Counsel—Wm. A. Wallace.
Clerk—Geo. B. Goodlander.
Jail Physician—Dr. T. Jeff. Boyer.
Mercantile Appraiser—J. B. Shaw.
Janitor—Andrew B. Shugart.

Dead.—We learn that Rev. C. P. Hawkins, of the M. E. Church, who last year traveled on the Clearfield Circuit, died very suddenly two weeks ago, while traveling on the Sinnemahoning Circuit. His health had been failing for several years. He leaves a wife (formerly Miss Pfoutz of Jersey Shore,) and two children to mourn over his demise.

Christmas.—The citizens of Clearfield pretty generally observed Christmas day in a manner becoming an intelligent and christian people.—Religious service was held in some of the churches, in accordance with their usual custom, in commemoration of the birth and coming of the Saviour of men. The day passed off rather quietly notwithstanding some of our young men took occasion to get on a little "holiday spree." In the evening, however, there was considerable of noise made in our streets by the "b'hoys," but we believe there was nobody seriously hurt.

Bad Example.—The Good Templars who signed the Petition for the pardon of the young man who was convicted at the September Term of our Court, for selling liquor on Sunday, and to miners, in our estimation, need to be "reconstructed;" and those Democrats who done the same thing, and thereby DECEIVED AND MISLED Gov. Geary, done an act that can never be justified either by law or morals. If it is right to ignore and set aside the law in this manner, why were old men not petitioned for and pardoned who had been convicted of the same offense? Partiality of this kind is always more or less offensive.

Settled at Last.—The location of the new County Prison, after much tribulation, has been settled. The County Commissioners last week purchased of Ex-Gov. Bigler, for the sum of $7,000, the point just above the new Bridge, lying between the river and 2d Street. This plot contains nearly double the quantity of ground embraced in the old location, and furnishes ample room, and can never be encroached upon by the erection of other buildings, nor furnish any harbors for the concealment of outside assistance to prisoners. Besides, the cost of drainage and water privilege will amount to a mere song; while the building itself, right on the bank of the Susquehanna, when erected, and unencumbered by other structures, will be an ornament of enduring character, an honor to the Commissioners and the tax-payers of the county, and a terror to all evil-doers.

We understand that the Commissioners have already been offered a much larger sum for the old site than they paid for the new, with the privilege of using the old Prison until the new one is completed, which, however has been indefinitely postponed. This movement of the Commissioners secures the use of the old, until the new Prison is erected, and thereby saves thousands of dollars to the tax-payers, by avoiding the transportation and maintenance of prisoners in the prisons of adjoining counties while erecting the building on the old site. Besides, it guarantees the location of the new Prison on a far more desirable location, and adds to the business portion of our town two lots, the value of which cannot, now be realized. The new Prison erected on the old site, would have been a nuisance, on the bank of the river it will be an ornament.

Recorder's Office.—Below will be found the number of Deeds entered for record in this office for the week ending Monday, January 3d, 1870, together with the names of the grantors and grantees, where situated, and the consideration:

Deed of Essington Kephart to John C. Henderson, for lot No. 3 in Osceola; consideration, $1,800.

Deed of Jane Welsh to Mary S. Marshall, for 25 acres in Lawrence tp.; consideration, $1.
Deed of Nicholas Tubbs to Shannon Witheright, for 31 acres in Ferguson tp.; consideration, $800.

Agricultural.—The attention of the public, and especially those who feel an interest in the cause of agriculture, is directed to a call for a meeting of the Clearfield county Agricultural Society, to be held in the Court House next Monday evening. It is to be hoped that there will be a general turn-out on that occasion, as it is the annual meeting of the society for the election of officers the ensuing year. See advertisement in another column.

Court.—The regular term of our January Court commences on Monday next. Jurors will please bear in mind the fact, that a rule of Court imposes a fine of $20, for truancy, while witnesses may incur a fine and the costs of an attachment, if they fail to report in due time, besides, each will lose their day, if they fail to answer in Court when their names are called. The court means business and therefore expects all its agents and employees on hand.

Week of Prayer.—This week is denominated by many christians, as the week of prayer. Prayer meeting is being held alternately in the Presbyterian, Lutheran and Methodist churches, every evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, as follows:
Wednesday evening—M. E. Church.
Thursday " Lutheran, "
Friday " Presbyterian, "
Saturday " Methodist, "
Sunday morning, Jan. 9th, Union Communion Service in the Presbyterian Church.

The Prospectus of the Philadelphia Age will be found elsewhere in this number. This acknowledged Democratic organ of the party in this State, deserves the patronage of all who wish to furnish their families with sound political arguments, or wish to subscribe for a Philadelphia journal.—It is the best newspaper published in that city.

Township Auditors' Settlement.—The Auditors for the township of Lawrence, are required to meet in Clearfield on Monday, the 17th day of January, 1870, to audit, settle, and adjust the accounts of the Supervisors and Treasurer of the township, and such other township officers as may by law be referred to them.

Change of Landlords.—Mr. Lewis Smith, has withdrawn as Proprietor of "the Smith House," opposite the passenger depot, and has leased it to Mr. Wm. S. Bradley, whose card will be found elsewhere in this issue. We have no doubt Mr. Bradley will make a popular landlord.

For the Farm, Garden, and Household.—We can confidently recommend all our readers to promptly provide themselves with the American Agriculturist for 1870. We have received the first number of the 29th Annual Volume, and find it filled with a large amount of exceedingly practical, useful information, not only on every subject pertaining to soil culture, including the Garden, the Lawn, and the Flower bed, and the care of the little plots of the City and Village homestead, but also for the Housekeeper, and the Children. Many excellent engravings, both beautiful and instructive, give additional interest to every number. Taken altogether, the American Agriculturist is one of the most beautiful and valuable journals in the world, adapted equally to City, Village, and Country, while it is a marvel of Cheapness, owing to its unprecedented circulation, which divides the cost of preparation among so many, that a great deal can be given to each. Terms, $1.50 a year; four copies $5, or ten copies for $12. It is richly worth all it costs and more.—Orange Judd & Co., Publishers, 145 Broadway, New York.

Sad Affair.—We were horrified to learn the other day that Mr. John Armagast, of Buffalo Run, an aged and highly respected citizen, was nearly devoured by hogs in his own barnyard. Mr. Armagast has long been in a feeble state of health, and for some time past has been subject to fits of epilepsy, frequently falling down, when alone, in an entirely unconscious state. He was suddenly taken with this weakness one day last week, when in his barnyard, and in his helpless condition was set upon by a number of hogs, which tore and mangled him horribly. Fortunately, his son came to his assistance in time to save him from immediate death, but the old gentleman is now lying in a very precarious condition. The son states that the hogs seemed almost wild, and that it was with the greatest difficulty he succeeded in driving them away and releasing his father from his terrible strait.—Bellefonte Watchman.

Notice.—The undersigned would respectfully announce to the old customers of the late J. P. Kratzer, that he intends to continue the business of merchandising at the stand recently occupied by the deceased, and would earnestly request all persons knowing themselves to be indebted, to call and settle up their old accounts.—Having just received a lot of seasonable goods, he will be happy to wait on all who may favor him with a call.
1t C. KRATZER.

Do not fail to read Lowry interviewed, on our first page. This eccentric butable Senator is just halting between two opinions; whether to follow his party to the devil, or join the Democrats, impeach Geary, break up the corruption ring, and save the country from further disgrace.

Buy It.—The Democratic Almanac for 1870, and previous years, is for sale at the Post Office. Price 20 cts. This is one of the very best statistical works issued, and should be in the hands of everybody.

Congress having failed to do anything towards relieving the tightness in the money market, J. A. Blattenberger & Co., of Osceola, Pa., offer as a remedy still further reductions on their previously low prices. 3t
