It will be seen by reference to the card of Misses Reeve & Hatfield, that they have now secured a room over Hartswick & Irwin's Drug Store, where they may be found on and after the 15th instant.

Brokers.—We call the attention of our readers to the card of Messrs. De Haven & Bros., Philadelphia. This is one of the best banking firms in that city, and can be relied upon implicitly. They will furnish us weekly quotations of Gold and Government and other stocks which will be found in our columns.

Accident.—We learn that Mr. Wesley Shirey, of Bradford township, who was hauling timber to the Sanburn rafting ground on Clearfield Creek, was, on Saturday afternoon last caught between two sticks while piling, and terribly crushed. He was, however, at last accounts quite comfortable, and likely to overcome his injuries.

Leg Broke.—On Saturday evening a week, Mr. Jas. Ardary, of Lawrence township, hitched up and took a sleigh ride, and on his return his horse took fright and he was thrown out, breaking his leg. It was, however, near Mr. Josiah W. Thompson's, to whom he called for aid who rendered him due assistance. We understand he is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Recorder's Office.—Below will be found the number of Deeds entered for record in this office for the week ending Monday, March 7th, 1870, together with the names of the grantors and grantees, where situated, and the consideration:

Deed of D. W. Holt and wife to Wigton & Doris, for six-tenths of coal and other minerals in 100 acres in Morris township; $2,340.

Deed of Jacob Shirey to Josiah W. Smith, for 137 acres in Bradford township; $480.

Deed of Lucinda J. Reams and heirs to J. Scott Fiegal, for 29 acres in Bradford township; $125.

Deed of John Patton to Samuel J. Hays, for lot in Curwensville; $125.

Deed of O. H. Merrill and wife to Fannie Nichols, for house and lot in Lawrence township; $1,000.

Narrow Escape.—On Wednesday last, as Mr. Clark Brown was descending the hill on the "Antes road" with a load of Shook, one of his horses fell, and in this condition the sled, horses and driver went down the hill at a furious rate, for a distance of 40 rods, but finally stopped just in time to prevent running into a loaded team going up the hill. Had a collision occurred at this point there would have been some dead men and horses; as it was, there is "nobody hurt," except the horse which went down the hill on its side, which will probably never recover from its injuries. Clark is not much of a "Bank man," but he says he stuck to the bank in this instance as close and tight as possible.

Railroad Accident.—On Thursday morning while the southward freight was ascending a slight grade beyond the second bridge across the Moshannon, distant about a mile and a half, the train uncoupled in three places, and the rear portion descended and collided with an engine—the "pusher"—which was following. Several cars were damaged, and Mr. Geo. Wooden was severely injured about the face, a wound being inflicted near the eye from which blood passed inwardly to his throat.—Philipsburg Journal.

Bohner, one of the Huntingdon murderers, made a desperate effort to escape from prison on Saturday last, but was so seriously hurt by the keeper, that he may not be in a condition to be hung to-day.

Don't Quarrel Brethren.—Our Clearfield "glass sand" has created a little "unpleasantness" between the Bellefonte National and the Philipsburg Journal. The editor of the former journal wants the latter to tell a falsehood, but like George Washington, he cannot tell a lie, as the following indicates:

"The Bellefonte National takes us to task for having said that Clearfield county produces sand suitable for making glass:

'The Journal might, with very creditable propriety have added that Centre county produces a better quality of sand, and has the enterprise to manufacture it into glass.'

What the statement of the simple fact that Clearfield produces sand has to do with the Bellefonte Glass Works we are at a loss to discover. We like to see an honest pride displayed in home enterprise, but even this virtue develops a degree of selfishness if carried to an extreme. Possibly there's a little sand in that editor's eye."

It may be a Gould-en opinion to say "that Centre county produces a better quality of sand," but it's a great ways off the track Mr. National. We are told by good authority that our sand is worth 33 per cent. more than Centre sand. Smoke that.

Trout Fishing.—Our readers may not be generally aware of the fact that the Legislature of Pennsylvania, on the 21st of April, 1869, passed a pretty stringent law for the protection of trout. It prohibits the fishing for them at all seasons of the year, by any other means or devices except by hook and line, and forbids the capturing of them in that manner except in the months of April, May, June and July. Persons are positively prohibited from fishing for them in any way, during any other time of the year. The law imposes a penalty of five dollars for a violation of its provisions and, also, imposes a penalty of five dollars upon any officer neglecting to make report of violations which may come under his notice. The officer is also liable to be dismissed from his office for the same neglect.—Alleghanian.

A Good Collection.—We learn that the Missionary collection taken up in the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday evening last, amounted to the snug sum of $233, and this too in the face of an unfinished Church building. The prosperity of this congregation has been great during the past year, under the charge of Rev. Mr. Dill, whom we are sorry to learn, is compelled on account of ill health to withdraw from actual clerical duties. His loss will be much regretted by this congregation.

Loyal Repudiation.—Though the obligations of this State, contracted previous to 1862, were all payable in gold or silver, the Radical Legislature a few years ago repudiated those contracts and holders of bonds against the State had to take greenbacks for their interest. Lately the Supreme Court decided that all debts contracted previous to 1862 were payable in specie; but in the face of this decision the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund propose still to pay with greenbacks, and they have no doubt adopted this course after consultation with Radical Legislators and other Radical officers at Harrisburg. They openly propose to repudiate the decision of the Court. We append their resolution:

Office Commissioners of Sinking Fund, Harrisburg, February 24, 1870.

Resolved, That, inasmuch as the recent decision of the United States on the question of legal tenders was concurred in by only three judges out of five, in a court composed of seven judges, and the legislature of the State only authorizes the payment of her indebtedness in what is known as the legal tender currency of the United States, it would not be advisable for the State Treasurer to make any change in the present mode of paying the obligations of the Commonwealth.

Attest: WILLIAM B. HART.
Clerk to Commissioners of Sinking Fund.

This is actual repudiation of a solemn contract, and done in violation of the decision of the highest tribunal in the country.—Selinsgrove Times.

Scathing Rebuke.—Mrs. Stowe has again postponed the publication of her book proving Byron to be a monster, and she will probably postpone it still further when she reads the oration which Rev. George Gilfillan has been delivering in Scotland on the subject. He says that the advertised book "will only perpetuate, along with the blasted memory of its subject, her ultraneous, officious, unwomanly, unenviable share in the miserable task, and send her name down to posterity as a sort of volunteer moral Mrs. Calcraft, or female executioner to a man whom, with all his faults, I pronounce ineffably greater and nobler than her small, sanctimonious, but viperous, Yankee self."—N. Y. Herald.

The New County.—The new county of Petrolia, a bill creating which has passed our State Senate, is made up, in square miles, as follows: From Crawford 245 miles; Warren 91; Venango 87—total 423. This only covers the constitutional limit by 23 miles, that limit providing that no new county shall be established less than 400 square miles in size. In the event of the passage of the bill, Crawford will still contain 458 square miles, Warren 647, Venango 329. The population to be included in the new county is estimated at 22,866.

A bill has just been reported in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg constituting the Judges of the several judical districts, committees to examine into Numerics, &c., in this State. This looks as if our Judges were to be constituted "smelling Committees" after the Joe Hiss manner of Massachusetts notoriety, which so disgraced the Legislative history of that State a few years ago. The author of the bill evidently contemplates another crusade against the Catholic Church.

The Lancaster Express (republican) says in regard to the decision of the committee in the Schull-Findlay case: "We do not believe there are five men in the Senate who are not perfectly satisfied that the decision of the committee was correct and proper, and we are confident that every one of these would have been more than satisfied with it if Findlay had been the republican instead of the democrat."

Fatal Accident.—John Emmons was drowned at the breaking of a log jam on Laurel Run, Clearfield county, supposed to belong to Armstrong county. Relatives or friends can have further information from Jno. A. Otto, Williamsport, Pa.

A Surprise Party.

The Philipsburg Journal says: "Mr. and Mrs. John Gearhart were taken by surprise on Friday last, it being the anniversary of Mrs. Gearhart's birthday. This aged couple removed from Half Moon, Centre county, to Decatur, and settled on Moshannon creek, near Philipsburg, in the spring of 1820. Fifty years have passed since they sought and found a home among the pines and hemlocks of Clearfield. And out from the old homestead has sprung a numerous progeny. When Mr. Gearhart located in this country, the axe of civilization had not opened the deep forests to the gushing beams of sunshine, nor was old Moshannon's stream poisoned by the deadly saw dust of pine and hemlock. Her waters abounded with fish, and the new clearings were filled with wild turkeys; the bear and wild cat were among the common sights of the wilderness; the panther made his lair in the neighborhood, and the blowing of the dinner horn was often answered by the howling of wolves.—The fleet deer frequently returned to trespass upon the barnyard. The second son informed us that his memorandum shows 129 deer fallen up to this date by his rifle alone. The surprisers were all members of the Gearhart family. Each branch of the family came bringing a basket containing the essentials for a sumptuous dinner. It was an occasion of mutual congratulation between father and sons, mother and daughters, uncles and aunts, nephews and nieces. The grandfather, the grandson and great grand son; the grandmother, the grand daughter and great grand daughter were present. The town and country cousins crowded promiscuously around the loaded table. The weather was extremely unpleasant, storming all day, yet 61 persons were numbered among the surprisers. The whole family, including Mr. and Mrs. Gearhart, sons and daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, grand children and great grand children, number 132. Mr. Gearhart aged 80 years, Mrs. Gearhart 78 years, united ages 158 years. The united ages of his sons and daughters, 482 years. 11 children 6 sons and 5 daughters, all living except one son who died in infancy; 70 grand children, 38 great grand children. It is a remarkable fact that in all the branches of this family only about 13 deaths have occurred—1 son, the others were grand children, or great grand children. The aged couple were in usual health and flow of spirits, and though taken by surprise, the guests were not the less welcome.—Such a meeting will never take place with this family again, till we shall meet again in our Father's house above, "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest." Mr. Gearhart and Mrs. Gearhart have been members of the Methodist Episcopal church for 65 years, he having been a class leader for about 62 years, and a steward and trustee in the church the most of this time. We were informed the only persons now living in this county who were here when the Gearharts came, are John Kyler, Daniel Ayers, George and Henry Shultz."

Murders in January.—The N. Y. Herald publishes a list of murders committed in the United States during the month of January. The total is fifty-four. Of these seven were committed in New York city and Brooklyn. It seems that crime is fearfully on the increase. Intemperance had much to do with the commission of these crimes.

Resigned.—John H. Gihon has resigned his position as Governor Geary's private Secretary, to start an independent daily paper at Harrisburg. He will be succeeded by Benjamin T. Lee, a brother-in-law to the Governor.

The cliffs of the Cumberland river, in Kentucky, are swarming with robins. One roost is three miles long. They can be picked off the bushes by hundreds, and persons come a distance of ten miles to fill their baskets with them.

Married.

On February 27th, 1870, by G. W. Snoff, Esq., Mr. THOMAS KERR, of Big Run, Jefferson county, to Miss CATHARINE ROBESON, of Clearfield county.

Died.

In Huston township, on March 3d, 1870, DAVID TYLER, Jr., aged 22 years, 9 months and 11 days.
