House Burned.—We learn that the dwelling house of Henry Sykes, residing in the neighborhood of Troutville, was burned on Sunday last. The fire caught from the stovepipe. The contents of the building were nearly all destroyed. The family were all absent except a girl who succeeded in saving a small quantity of clothing.

School for Girls.—The last half of the Spring term of Miss Swan's School for girls commences on Monday May 9th. We can freely say that this is one of the best opportunities now open to those who desire to send their girls to a first class school. Miss Swan is a teacher of great experience and successful throughout.—See her terms of tuition elsewhere.

Notice.—The School Directors, Supervisors, Auditors and other borough and township officers are hereby notified that the County Commissioners have sent a copy of the adjusted assessment for 1870 to the address of the President or Secretary of each School Board in the county, from which they will be enabled to make out their respective duplicates.

Stop It.—Some "loll" Post Master, or mail agent, has been in the habit of stealing the daily Age out of the mail, sent to the address of the Republican. We have not received ten numbers since the first week in March. We hope that the party will continue to read the Age, to this we will not object; but we hope he will not keep the paper too, let it come along so that we can get a sight of it occasionally.

Change of Court.—An act was passed last winter changing our June Court from the third to the first Monday, and to continue two weeks, and jurors have been drawn accordingly. The abruptness of the change looks to us as though but little business will be done, because the cases which went over from the March term were continued to the 3d Monday, and all the writs and precepts issued are to that week. We presume, however, that the "Court Runs itself," and the change may be for the best after all.

Primary Election.—Our Democratic friends generally, and the Chairman and members of the County Committee in particular, will, we hope, bear in mind the fact that our Primary Election will be held this year on Saturday, the 11th day of June, next, and it will therefore be in order to announce the names of candidates on and after the 10th of May. We hope good men will be selected by the county Committee and placed upon the Vigilance Committees in the several districts. The offices to be filled this fall are Assembly, Sheriff, District Attorney, County Commissioner, Jury Commissioner, Coroner and Auditor. The election will therefore be held on the Saturday of the first Court week, and the Return Judges will meet in this place on Monday of the 2d week of Court.

The fees for announcing the names and printing tickets will be as follows: For Assembly or Sheriff, $10., District Attorney or County Commissioner, $5., and $3 for the balance. No name will appear in the Republican until the fee is paid.

A Horrible Accident.—John Hoover, employed at Gaut's Mill, of this place lost his life on Wednesday last while at work on Goodfellow's Saw-Mill, under the following circumstances: He went to the mill about nine o'clock, and not coming to dinner some one repaired to the mill, about one o'clock, and there found him corded on the bullwheel, dead and mangled in the most horrible manner. It appeared from the surroundings that the first thing he done after he went on the mill, was to draw a log out of pond; and in attempting to prevent the rope from "piling up" on the wheel, he was evidently caught by the hand and drawn upon the wheel, and the rope wrapped around him. His legs head and arms were all pounded into jelly, caused by striking the timbers while revolving around with the wheel. The rope had broke, but he was still held tight to the wheel when found. Mr Hoover was a single man about 30 years of age. It is not long since a death was caused at Messrs. Bigler's Mill, near this place through similar carelessness.

Communicated.

Editor Clearfield Republican,

Dear Sir: With your permission I take occasion to say a word through the columns of your widely circulated journal, concerning the loss of lumber occasioned by narrow schutes along the Susquehanna river. You are doubtless aware that it has been customary for a number of years to run two rafts "abreast" from below the "Falls," but at Queens' Run and Lock Haven Dams great crowds collect from being compelled to "single out" to run the narrow schutes, and so at all the dams having a narrow schute; and it often happens that rafts break loose and go over the dams, and in some instances are lost to the owner. We were delayed this spring near three days at the above named points, on this account. Now, Mr. Editor, we know there is a remedy for this grievance if it was enforced. In 1867 an act of Assembly was passed requiring all schutes to be made sixty feet wide, which law is to be found in the Pamphlet reports of 1867, page 1368, No. 1284, entitled—

AN ACT

Regulating the width of schutes in the Susquehanna river.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the owners of all dams, whether individuals or corporations, which are now, or may be hereafter, erected in the Susquehanna river, from the mouth of Sandy run, on the West Branch, in Clearfield county, to Marietta, in Lancaster county, shall be required to make the schutes in said dams, at least sixty feet wide, thus enabling the safe transmission of rafts and lumber.

Sec. 2. That all individuals, or corporations, who shall refuse, for a period of three months after the passage of this act, to comply with the provisions of section one of the same, shall be liable for all damages sustained, either to person or property, caused by their refusal so to comply; the damages aforesaid, to be sued for and collected as other debts are now, by law, recoverable; and in all actions brought for damages, received at any of said dams, proof of failure to comply with the provisions of the first section of this act, shall be conclusive evidence that such damages were caused thereby. JAMES B. KELLEY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DAVID FLEMING,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved—The seventh day of January, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. A. G. CURTIN.

Now Mr. Editor, I write for information—if this is a law, why cannot it be enforced? It would be productive of great good, as it would entirely do away with the large "gams" which are now so common in those dams, and save two or three days on a trip. It seems strange to us that owners of lumber through our representatives do not have this act enforced, when it would be to the interest of the people of the entire county. Will it ever be done?

Respectfully Yours,
RAFTSMAN.

The complaints entered by our correspondent are just, and the facts so patent, in the loss of time and property, that we sometimes wonder how raftmen suppress their wrath on account of those damd dams; but our representatives have done their duty. A law has been passed by them for the protection of the lumbering interest, and now it remains for the people to demand their rights under it, and the Courts to enforce the law as engrossed on the statute book.

The Old Guard for May, has been received. It contains but one article of importance, and that is by its former editor, C. Chauncey Burr, entitled "Monarchism in Republics." It is one of the straightest and most pertinent articles we have read in many days. The articles Mr. Burr contributes to this magazine render it one of the recognized guides of the Democracy.

Sew, Stitch, Sew.—Through the enterprise of our friend Jos. S. Showers, our county has been blessed with quite a shower of Sewing Machines, to the great relief and benefit of housekeepers. Those in need of a good machine had better apply to him, because they cannot buy them any cheaper elsewhere; besides, he delivers them at your door. Read his advertisement.

Everything New.—The proclamation of Messrs. Hartsock & Goodwin, of Curwensville, which appears elsewhere in this issue, evidently means business. The new and downward tendency of prices, besides the other new features they present to the view of their customers, are attractions that will warrant them a liberal share of public patronage.

Fun Ahead.—It will be seen by programmes and posters about town that the renowned Eugene Blitz will give one of his comic exhibitions in Leavy's Hall this (Wednesday) evening. Go and hear him. Admission 25 cents. Commences at 8 o'clock.

Re-opened.—It will be noticed by a card elsewhere, that Mr. Drancker has became the host at the Eagle Hotel in Curwensville. "Jack" knows how to run a public house, and we have no doubt but that the traveling public will realize this fact by giving him a call.

The card of James C. Barrett, Esq., Justice of the Peace, and an experienced collector, appears elsewhere. He is prompt and reliable.

The Administrators of Godfrey Weaver offer some valuable real estate for sale. See advertisement.

The card of Mrs. Jones and Miss Geary, Milliners and Dress makers, will be found in to-day's paper.

The Virginia Troubles.—An effort is being made by Mr. Porter, a Congressional squatter from Virginia, to have some national legislation made for that State by the Reconstruction Committee on the account of the Mayorality troubles in Richmond. We hope Congress will be very chary in going into such business. The Republican party has secured the fifteenth amendment and brought all the States back into the Union very successfully on the reconstruction platform, and they now have other work to do. They have squeezed all the juice they need out of reconstruction and there is nothing left of it but the bitter. They can hope to get no more good out of it, and they must leave Virginia and Tennessee alone, as, ere this, they have found they should have left Georgia alone.—N. Y. Herald.

A "National" School Room Scene:

Instructor Sumner—Highest class in Republicanism, stand up. Give me the grand result of five years war, half a million dead, two hundred and fifty thousand maimed men, and twenty-five hundred millions of debt.

Class—(all at once with enthusiasm)—A Negro United States Senator!

Instructor—Right, my children—you may resume your studies on Taxation.—Albany Argus.

The Pennsylvania Legislature at sixty-five days. 2,168 bills were introduced into the Senate and 2,368 into the House. 1468 were passed and sent to the Governor. Hundreds of bills were passed by the mere reading of the title, the title being changed in many cases after the introduction of the bill, so as not to attract attention. Thus important measures were "naked" through, and this is called legislation.

Died in Prison.—Thos. F. Hamilton, sentenced by the Court of Quarter Sessions, August 23d, 1868, to 10 years and 6 months imprisonment, for larceny and felonious assault on Mr. Landis, of Manheim township, died of typhoid fever in the Lancaster Co. Prison. He was 38 years of age.

Two Sundays.—Westerly, R. I., has "two Sundays come close together." Nearly half the population are Seventh Day Baptists, and on Saturday half the mills, shops, and other places of business are closed, and half the churches are filled with worshipers, who on Sunday resume their secular occupations, while their neighbors take religion and rest.

The Cincinnati Volksblatt, a leading German Radical paper in the West, begins to see how the wind is blowing in Radical quarters, and says:—"Those leaders of the Republican party commit a great folly who believe that, since they have got the negro vote, they no longer need the Germans, and in respect to them no longer impose any restraint upon their nativism and hypocrisy." This cup of negro equality will yet be returned to Radical lips, with intensified bitterness.

The Press says: "The investigation of the charges against General O. O. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, is dragging along at a tedious rate, and every day the evidence becomes stronger that Fernando Wood is on a regular wild goose chase." Mr. Wood will make the Freedmen's Bureau goose carry a lower head before the investigation is ended. It is General Howard's friends who cause the investigation to drag. They are trying to tire the prosecution by delays.—Age.

The Age says: Negroes who will promise to vote the Radical ticket, are to be cared for, and their political rights protected by the Radical City Committee. Others must take care of themselves. This is what the Radicals call a "free ballot" for the colored man.

Hon. Wm. Montgomery, ex-member of Congress, died at his residence in Washington, Pa., on Thursday evening. Mr. Montgomery had been an invalid for a long period. He was at one time a very popular Democratic politician.

A Virginia planter, whose sheep disappeared very mysteriously, watched his flocks by night with a shot gun. Next day the doctor was busy picking buckshot out of a fifteenth amendment.

Senator Carpenter, of Wisconsin, who is an able lawyer, admits that Radicalism is the meanest client he ever undertook to defend.

The Louisana delegation are making a dead set upon the President and Mr. Boutwell for the removal of the collector at New Orleans, who is a brother-in-law to General Grant. Charges of corruption are now preferred against him.

Gen. Butler's negro cadet has been rejected because he is not old enough. A convenient way of getting rid of an ugly question.
