Go and See It.—Those of our citizens who have up to the present failed to visit the new Park, have missed a grand sight. The old field, which but three months ago lay spread out to view in a very uninviting manner, is so grandly reconstructed that one becomes nearly lost upon entering the Fair Grounds. The buildings, grading of track, and other improvements, are all substantial and expensive, and of themselves are worth a visit to the grounds.

Nearly Ready.—Messrs. Bigler, Young & Co., have almost completed their second light house for the Government. The cage weighs about 61 tons, all iron, and it will take about ten cars to transport it. The vessel in which the former one was shipped from Baltimore was wrecked in a storm and went to the bottom. It has, however, been rescued, with the exception of a few pieces, which fell overboard. It is well that the Navy has learned where to get a good job done and on time.

Dedication.—The U. P. Church of Lumber City will be dedicated to the service of Almighty God on the fourth Sabbath of September, (being the 24th day,) 1871. Service to commence at the hour of 11 o'clock, A. M., under the auspices of Rev. J. C. Grier. The following ministers are expected to be present: Revs. McLane, Burchfield, Ganoe, Newell, Ferguson and Grier. Also, services in the afternoon, commencing at half past three o'clock. By order Committee.

A Foundling.—Some inhuman mother left a female child on the back porch of the Smith House, on Thursday night. The proprietor, Mr. Bradley, was awakened about three o'clock by the cries of the child, and on repairing down stairs found it wrapped in some loose clothing on the porch, with a slip on, and apparently about six days old. We understand Mrs. Bradley is giving the little castaway every necessary attention. Such inhumanity is closely allied with barbarism, and does not speak well for "the progress of the age." No brute would thus desert its offspring.

Swindlers by the Load.—Our county has been invaded by a gang of sharpers, who are ostensibly engaged in putting up humbug lightning rods, not worth anything except for old iron. They also insure property in a moonshine insurance company, and lie and plunder generally. Let every person shun them as they would horse thieves. They will perhaps not steal your horse, but they will take a note from you for $100 or $150, and make you pay it without giving you an equivalent, which amounts to about the same as taking a horse. There are four or five in the gang, and they travel on the circus plan—fine horses and wagons, are full of gab, and will cheat everybody that trades with them. They have already defrauded our citizens out of five or six thousand dollars, and they should be arrested instead of patronized.

Base Ball.—The following is the score of the last of a series of games between the Star club of Kylertown and the Morrisdale club of Morrisdale, which was played on the grounds of the Eureka club at Philipsburg, on the 9th instant. The game resulting in favor of the Stars, they were presented with a ball as a trophy.

Eloped.—Two of Sheriff Pie's family—Johnson and Lytle—made their escape from limbo on Thursday night. They had torn their bed tick into shreds and manufactured a rope out of it, and then attacked the flue in their room, which was in the second story, and removed brick enough just below the garret floor to allow them to crawl in, and then worked upwards until the flue was taken down far enough above the floor to admit them to the garret, from which they made their exit through a small window in the gable by fastening their rope to a bed slat, inside the window facing, and then lowering themselves to the ground. Both escaped with their bobbles on, which was evident from the tracks and marks they made in the mud and sand down the alley.

Their escape was not discovered until after dark, at which time, it has since been ascertained, they were at a house over on the creek, and with two axes were cutting off their bobbles, where they left them for the Sheriff, who offers a reward of $500 for their apprehension or $300 for either. It really seems as though the thieving and vagabond portion of mankind were becoming very smart and shrewd for the better disposed portion.

LETTER FROM NEW WASHINGTON.

New Washington, Sept. 11th, 1871.

Mr. Editor:—After a long silence I once more stumble into the corresponding circle. The reason for my silence was because there was nothing to write about, and I had other objects in view which occupied all my spare moments. But while I peruse your columns I see that other places are flaming with the corresponding fire, and it gives me a strong inclination to try and say something in behalf of this part of the county. As we lead out very strong when it comes to polling votes for some good Democratic candidate, who is seeking an office through the honor of the party, we should not stand hidden in the dark, while our sister villages are sounding their trumpets through the columns of your paper; but we should be heard from a more able writer. There is not much to write about at present, but I might mention some of the entertainments given in this place. We were entertained for three successive evenings by Prof. G. W. Dale, who lectured, or tried to lecture, on the science of Phrenology. He also treated extensively the science of Magnetism. On the last evening I witnessed something connected with magnetism which I think was a sure remedy for the blues. As no one felt disposed to be hurled into Broadway, New York, or to the top of the Rocky Mountains, in a moment, no candidate presented himself to be operated upon. But in obedience to his request some of the young gents tried the operation on the Prof., which resulted in a grand sell for the boys and a hearty laugh for the audience. A public school examination was held in the town hall on the 7th instant, which was well attended by spectators, and the County Superintendent was also present. The day seemed to be one of interest to all. The candidates defined and answered very promptly all questions given them, and to the satisfaction of him who was present to judge wherein they failed or come short of fulfilling his law.

The business men here have all got logging "on the brain." Messrs. S. M. & W. M. have purchased a large timber tract at the mouth of Chest creek and are operating very heavily at present. I judge from the present indications that for the Dec. the coming season must look favorable, as his attention is all in that direction. The campmeeting held on the river, in Bell township, about six miles from this place, notwithstanding the rain and the bad weather during its progress, was well attended, and I learn was a success. The accommodations were good and the people were made comfortable. Two stages were run daily from this place by that little gentleman called G. W. D., who is keeping a livery stable in this place and is always prepared to accommodate whoever may wish to take a pleasure ride, with a very fine horse and buggy. Our Newburg friends had a picnic on Saturday last. I was not present, but learn they had a very pleasant time. They had different means of enjoyment, so that nobody was confined to one thing alone. A platform was erected in a grove near town, where those who loved to engage in a hop "on the light fantastic toe" were accommodated. They are also to be favored soon with an Indian show. Whether our friends will appreciate a show as feelingly as they do a ball, I am unable to say. Well, I have said enough for this time, so I will bid you adieu. GOSSIP.

LETTER NO. 2.

Roughs on a Rampage—Letter from the Seat of War.

New Washington, Sept. 12th, 1871.

Mr. Editor:—There is a society in this part of the county, which, for convenience, call the "picnicers." They are a peace-loving, inoffensive and unassuming people, who wish to pass quietly along time's rugged pathway, enjoying life as best they can, and allowing others to do the same without let or hindrance. On Saturday last, for the purpose of whiling away an idle hour and forgetting, if possible, all financial and other troubles, these people repaired to a shady nook on the banks of Wilson's Run, where the youngsters had raised a platform, refreshment stands, &c.

Early in the day spruce young men and bright-eyed maidens were whirling in the "mazy dance," discarding all thought of care or feelings of malice—thinking of nothing but the enjoyment of the moment—when the startling announcement was made that a band of Roughs were coming down on them.

Gen. Mike saw the situation in a moment, and began immediately to get his forces in position. In a very short time he had his men in line of battle, well disposed, his right resting on the platform and his left on the run, a good natural position, not easily flanked. The enemy in the meantime were preparing to attack. They had formed their line, the right resting on Fort Granger and their left on the Lumber City road, a few yards west of the bridge across Wilson's run. Soon the unmistakable sounds of war were heard, apparently emanating from the the rear of Feltwell's potato patch, and a volley of oaths and obscene language reached the ears of the ladies and gents at the platform. Immediately after, Hasken's (Rough) Battery poured a galling fire into the Picnicers, directed principally against Shook's Battery, which stood firm without returning the fire. Clark's and Hasken's Batteries, (both of the Roughs) by some mistake it is supposed, became engaged with each other, and amid the confusion consequent upon this little escapade, Keating's New Washington Battery, by a well directed fire, silenced Hasken's Battery and caused him to retreat in disorder. Clark, seeing the route of Hasken, turned tail and fled, thinking doubtless with the poet, that

"He who fights and runs away
May live to fight another day."

A little later, and Col. Ramey, with his Infantry, charged on the Roughs' left center, but after giving and receiving some hard knocks was compelled to retreat with slight loss. Thus matters stood for some time, when Col. McMasters' brigade made a fearful onslaught on the Rough's center, where Col. Michael's brigade was posted, routing him completely and forcing him back across the stream. In this action Bildad was badly wounded and put in his "little bed."

The Picnicers were now masters of the situation. Dancing was resumed and all went "merry as a marriage bell," until midnight, when the party dispersed, it being composed of conscientious and law abiding citizens. The ladies—God bless them—stood firm through this trying ordeal, and were as valiant as their Trogan sisters of olden time.

Yours, bravely, ICONOMY.

CLEARFIELD, PA.
Putting of the natural teeth in a healthy, preservative and useful condition is made a specialty. Diseases and malformations common to the mouth, jaw and associate parts, are treated and corrected with fair success. Examinations and consultations free. Prices for partial and full sets of teeth much lower than in 1870. It would be well for patients from a distance to let us know by mail a few days before coming to the office. It is very important that children between the ages of six and twelve years should have their teeth examined. By Anæsthesia Teeth are removed without pain. feb15'71

DENTAL CARD.
DR. A. M. HILLS
Would say to his patients and the public generally, that, having dissolved partnership with Dr. Shaw, he is now doing the entire work of his office himself, so that patients need not fear being put under the hands of any other operator. Having obtained a reduction of the patent on the plate material, I am enabled to put up teeth much cheaper than formerly. I also have Dr. Stock's patent process for working rubber plates, which make a much lighter, more elastic and stronger plate for the same amount of material, and polishes the plate on both sides, rendering it much more easily kept clean. Special attention paid to the preservation of the natural teeth, and all work guaranteed entirely satisfactory to patients.
Office at the old corner, opposite the Shaw House. Office hours from 8 to 12, a. m., and 1 to 5, p. m. Patients from a distance should notify me a few days beforehand of their intention to come. Always at home, unless other notice appears in both the county papers. feb15'71

A safe, pure, pleasant and health-giving Tonic—strictly vegetable, and manufactured from the most pure and choice materials—is not a spirit drink nor substitute for whisky, but a scientific compound, for the protection of the system and the cure of disease, made from chemically pure spirits, entirely free from fusil oil or other irritating properties, and will not disagree or offend the most delicate stomach. A long private experience has attested its Superiority over all Ordinary Remedies.
No Bitters at present offered to the public contains so much medicinal virtue, and yet so safe and pleasant to take. Its use is to cure disease, and it will not create an appetite for spirituous liquors, but will cure the effects of dissipation.
