5. The College-Community
Chorus
6. The Bowling League
7. The Basketball League
8. I.C.G.
9. The Photo Club
10. Circle K Club

The Social Committee, and last but not least, by far, THE HIGH ACRES COLLEGIAN.

This list of activities, plus one or two more clubs such as the Math and Science Club and The Psychology Club, indicate the many various activities that one may join at Highacres.

There must be at least one of these many activities listed above that should interest YOU. Attend a meeting of any of the various clubs; find out if it's the one for you.

Let's get the real college spirit at Highacres, back your organizations. Have a well-rounded college life-Socially as well as academically.

LET'S JOIN
TODAY!

This Means YOU

When will we know civilization freed of Dark Age duplicity?
Brothers in arms (probably some co-ed's), we urge that you regard these pitiable lines as prophetic, hustle your little self to the nearest sporting-goods store and be shod with football shoes (this office has found them to be most effective although they are not entirely serviceable in evasive tree-climbing). Let us campaign for our rights of bachelorhood untrammled by feminine finery and aprons. Write to your congressman. If he is married you are certain to receive his justifiably-biased support. In this super-powered age of nuclear activity, let us not lower our guard lest we fall victim to a fate worse than that of raining ICBM's, ranting Castros, creeping socialism, and the motherhood of Brigit Bardot.
