Temperanceville in Court.

The borough of Temperanceville was well represented in the Quarter Sessions yesterday, men and women from that locality being in large attendance, some as witnesses, but the greater portion for the purpose of hearing the details of the trial of John Chess, a resident of the borough, for an alleged attempt to outrage Mrs. Ann Lewis, also a resident of the vicinity. Not only were the Temperanceville people out in full force, but there was also a large attendance of members of the bar, court-house attaches, and others, and at the afternoon session the court-room was literally packed with spectators, and the case listened to with eager attention. Messrs. Marshall and Kirkpatrick were the counsel for the defense, and the cross-examination of the prosecutrix by the former was extremely rigid, and occupied considerable time. She testified to enough to fully establish the charge, and from what she stated the offense must have been committed in the presence of her children, six in number, the eldest sixteen. For the defense it was alleged by counsel that the prosecution was brought for the purpose of levying black mail, and witnesses were called who testified that the character of the prosecutrix for truth and veracity was not good, and also contradicted her in some statements she had made. It appeared that subsequent to the alleged commission of the offense, and previous to prosecuting, the prosecutrix had visited several times the house of the defendant, appeared on familiar terms with him, and pressed him to visit her at her residence. The case occupied the entire afternoon, and was concluded at adjournment. The jury will return a verdict this morning.

Quarter Sessions Court.

Judges Sterrett and Brown presiding.

WEDNESDAY, June 20.—The following business was transacted:

In the case of Herman Ritzert vs Richard Bong, surety, the Court ordered each party to pay one-half the costs.

Gerhart Schmoll, convicted of assault and battery, on oath of his wife, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and the costs, and required to enter into bonds in the sum of $300, conditional for his good behavior for the period of one year.

Joseph Dierstein, William Einstein, Conrad Eberhardt and John Loetterle, Troy Hill saloon keepers, indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, were tried and found guilty. Sentence deferred.

John Chess was put on trial for assault and battery with intent to outrage the person of Ann Lewis. The defendant resides in Temperanceville, and the prosecutrix testified that he came to her house, in Union township, forced his way into her room where she and her children were in bed, and endeavored to outrage her. In his attempts he bruised her about the body very much, and was compelled to desist from his purpose by a boy, son of the prosecutrix, threatening to strike him with a brick. This occurred on the morning of the 15th of April last. Mrs. Lewis said she had six little boys, and earned her living by washing. Her husband is in England. The information was made about a month after the transaction.

Common Pleas Court.

Hon. Thomas Mellon presiding.

WEDNESDAY, June 20th.—In the case of Wm. H. Sutton vs Jake Hill—action to recover the value of a boat—the jury found for the defendant.

D. B. Kirk & Co. vs John O'Neal & Co. This is an action to recover damages, laid at $2,711.50, sustained by an alleged breach of contract on the part of defendants. The plaintiffs allege that they entered into a contract with defendants to deliver them one thousand barrels of oil, one-half at $6.75, and the other half at $6.80 per barrel. This oil the defendants, it is alleged, refused to receive, and the action is brought to recover the amount. The defendants, in their affidavit of defense, allege that they had sold the amount of oil in question, but when the purchaser demanded it the plaintiffs refused to deliver; that subsequently the plaintiffs sold the oil on defendants' account and retained the proceeds, and that the failure of plaintiffs to deliver the oil at the specified time deprived them of the opportunity to make a sale. Messrs. Rogers and Mellon appear for the plaintiffs, and Messrs. Brown and Moreland for the defendants.

Reasons for a new trial in the case of Winstone vs George Lysle et al were filed.

The petition of James Mateer for a divorce from his wife Margaret Mateer, was presented, and a subpoena awarded.

An Editor Sued for Libel.

Before Alderman Strain yesterday, Capt. Casper Kauffman appeared and made information against N. P. Sawyer, whose name appears at the head of the Republic newspaper as editor, for libel, alleged to consist in the "local" of that paper, in its Quarter Sessions court report, this speaking in reference to the Troy Hill Sunday liquor cases: "several of the cases of the lager beer sellers, who used to make an excursion to Troy Hill so pleasant on a Sunday, were next taken up. The Commonwealth put a villainous array of witnesses upon the stand. It seems as if two despicable creatures, named Kauffman and Broerman, were mainly relied upon to establish the accusations made. They belonged, of course, to that most degraded class of informers, but the jurors, before whom they testified, were also of that inferior grade of intellectual capacity which can be moulded by the last argument addressed to them." Capt. Kauffman served his country honorably and faithfully during the rebellion, in the 61st Pennsylvania Regiment, and is highly respected in the vicinity where he resides. Mr. Sawyer appeared and entered bail to answer the charge.

Western University — Commencement Exercises.

The first exercises connected with the commencement of the Western University, of this city, will be an address to the Irving and Philomathean Library societies, by Rev. Dr. Howard, this evening, in Mozart Hall. Friday evening, in the same place, the second annual contest of these societies will take place. The annual examination will commence on Monday, the 25th, and continue until Friday afternoon. Tuesday at eleven o'clock A. M. the Baccalaureate address will be delivered in University Hall, by George Woods, LL. D., President of the Faculty. Friday evening, the 29th, the exercises of the graduating class and the conferring of degrees will take place in Christ Church.

Boy Killed—Coroner's Inquest.

John Beltzhoover, a young lad of about twelve years, residing with his mother, Mrs. Mary Beltzhoover, on the old Washington pike, three miles from the city, was almost instantly killed, yesterday, by the accidental discharge of a gun. The deceased, with a companion, was out gunning. Having but one gun between them, he endeavored to take the gun from his companion, when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the forehead of young Beltzhoover immediately above his left eye, and lodging in his brain. Dr. Donaldson was instantly summoned, but the boy survived only an hour after the occurrence of the accident.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest, when a verdict of accidental death was given.

Temperance League Officers.

The National Temperance League of Allegheny, at a recent meeting, held an election for officers with the following result: President—Rev. William Lynch. Vice Presidents—Rev. J. B. Clark, D. D., C. Yeager, Esq., David Blair, Esq., Rev. Thomas Sproul, D. D., M. R. Trevor, M. D., Rev. V. Lucas and T. Myler, Esq. Secretaries—J. R. Titzell, Esq., W. W. Brown, Esq., Robt. S. Smith, Esq. Corresponding Secretaries—Rev. A. K. Bell, D. D., Rev. S. J. Wilson, D. D. Treasurer—Isaac Charles, Esq. Executive Committee—Thomas Smith, Esq., B. Heckert, Esq., Prof. L. H. Eaton, S. Landes, Esq., W. G. Warner, Esq., M. McGonigle, Esq., William Askins, Esq.

False Pretence.—R. Fredrick, formerly proprietor of a hotel in the First ward, was arrested and brought before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, charged with false pretence, on oath of J. F. Snyder. It appears that the accused sold a two years' lease of the house to Snyder, for $300, representing that the present occupant of the house—a German, named Antoine—would be forced to quit the premises on the 10th of the present month, the term for which he had rented expiring on that day. On going to take possession of the house on the day mentioned, he learned from Antoine that he had the house rented until the first of next April, and therefore would not give it up. A hearing will be had in the case to-day.

A Rioter Apprehended.—An officer from Clarion county arrived in the city yesterday and took into custody a boy named Daniel Davis, employed as bar-keeper at the Eagle Hotel, against whom, with others, a charge of riot had been preferred. Recently a difficulty arose between the pupils at the Callensburg Academy, in Clarion, culminating in a general row, during which considerable damage was done to the school building. The officer having Davis in custody left with him for Clarion yesterday.

Threatened to Kill.—Bridget Harkins yesterday appeared before Alderman Donaldson and made an information against Eliza Louse for surety of the peace. Bridget stated that the accused threw a spittoon at her from a second story window, and also threatened to kill her. Officer Smith was despatched to arrest Eliza, but she was found in such a helpless state of intoxication that all idea of bringing her before the magistrate was abandoned for the time being.

Bill Ignored.—At about the close of the March term of the Quarter Sessions John Davis, of Birmingham, was committed to jail on oath of John Showalter, to answer a charge of having committed an assault and battery with intent to ravish a little girl ten years of age, daughter of Mary Polling, of Birmingham. Yesterday the Grand Jury returned the bill ignoramus, and Davis was discharged from prison.

Watch Thieves.—One William Robinson was arrested on Tuesday night, by watchman Lawrence Dower, for the larceny of a silver watch from Thomas Frith, while he (Frith) was asleep in the saloon of [illegible] England, No. 691 Penn street. He was held to bail for trial.

A man named Robert Gray was also arrested by the Mayor's police for the larceny of a watch from S. Kay. He was committed for trial.

Nuisance.—James O'Hara was yesterday fined five dollars by the Mayor for maintaining a nuisance in the Ninth ward.

TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

President Johnson and the Fenians—Speech of Head Centre Stephens—He Repudiates All Connection with Roberts, Sweeney or the Senate—The New Tariff Bill—Consul General to the Danubian Principalities—Serious Illness of General Grant's Father-in-Law—Release of the Notorious Dick Turner—Distribution of the New Five Cent Coin.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Herald's Washington special says: The reports that President Johnson gave the Fenian leaders assurance that they should not be interfered with in their projected Canadian raid are not true. The Government never promised directly or indirectly to even wink at any violation of our laws.

James Stephens has succeeded in thoroughly reconstructing the Fenian organization in Washington. The meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall last evening was attended by several hundred Centres and members of Circles. Mr. Stephens spoke at great length, and was listened to with the deepest attention. He concluded by repudiating all connection, directly or indirectly, with Roberts, Sweeney or the Senate, and denounced all men who would endeavor to use the Irish people on this continent for any other purposes than the liberation of Ireland. The audience afterwards formed in procession and escorted the C. O. I. R. to the Metropolitan Hotel, where he was serenaded shortly after midnight.

Felix O'Byrne, who arrived in Washington yesterday with a resolution on the Fenian question, has been arrested upon a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. He was examined this morning before Mr. Barnacle, when some amusing scenes took place. The case stands adjourned until ten o'clock to-morrow.

Although the Constitutional amendments which recently passed the Senate have been published officially by order of the Secretary of the Senate, it is rumored that Mr. Seward will decline the responsibility of sending it to the Governors of the States except by the President's direction.

The Ways and Means Committee held a protracted session to-day over the Tariff Bill, which will probably be reported about the last of the week. The Committee have not yet reached the iron clause of the bill. It is understood that the wool-growers will carry their point in the Committee, but the result is doubtful when the question comes before the House. The Committee after finishing the Tariff bill, will take up the adjournment resolution, which was referred to it by the House.

There is a strong lobby influence at work to get the Committee on Ways and Means to give six months notice of the proposed new tariff so that it shall not go into effect until six months after the passage of the bill. The Committee, however, it is understood, are nearly unanimous in favor of putting the law into immediate operation. This is also, it is believed, the temper of the House. What is known as the Colwell tariff bill, now before the Committee of Ways and Means, is being slashed to pieces by the Committee.

The name of Dr. Czapkay, of California, has been sent to the Senate for confirmation as Consul General to the Danubian Principalities. Hitherto the United States has not had a representative there, but the impending war in Europe renders it necessary that our Government should have some one there to look after American interests. Dr. Czapkay was a commissioner to the exhibition at Stetin, Prussia, last year.

Mr. Dent, father-in-law to General Grant, lies dangerously ill of the cholera morbus at the General's residence in this city, and, in consequence of his advanced age and enfeebled condition, but little hopes are entertained of his recovery. The General and Mrs. Grant were informed to-day by telegraph of his condition, and are doubtless returning to this.

The notorious Dick Turner, turnkey of Libby Prison during the war, was yesterday released from confinement by order of Secretary Stanton. Turner was captured shortly after the capture of Richmond, and has been in confinement ever since.

The Committee will report in favor of transferring the Philadelphia navy yard to League Island. There will be a majority and minority report on the Memphis riot case.

Mr. Schenck's army bill will no doubt pass the House, but it will be so amended in the Senate as to send the whole question to the Conference Committee to be finally settled.

As to the time the new Tariff Bill will go into effect, there is no doubt importers will have the usual sixty or ninety days to make their arrangements.

The Conkling-Fry Investigation Committee concluded the taking of testimony to-day, and will commence to review the evidence on Thursday.

The House Military Committee to-day instructed their chairman to report the Senate bill for the establishment of an armory and arsenal at Rock Island, Ill.

The Treasury Department commences to-day a small disbursement of the new five cent coin recently authorized by Congress.

FROM FRENCH WEST INDIES.

Fatal Ravages of the Cholera—Eleven Thousand Negroes Die of the Disease.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Advices from Port a Pitre, Guadaloupe, French West Indies, of May 26th, says: The sugar crop has almost failed. [illegible] together.

So fatal had been the ravages of the cholera among the colored population that about eleven thousand of this class of the inhabitants had died of the disease on the island.

The city of Port au Pitre was free from the disease when the Susan Janes left. The weather was warm and dry.

Unitarian Conference.

BUFFALO, June 20.—The annual Conference of the Western Unitarian churches begins here to-day. About one hundred and fifty members have already arrived, and by tomorrow it is expected that as many as two hundred and fifty delegates will have assembled. Many prominent Unitarian ministers from the East, including Dr. Bellows, Rev. Mr. Hestworth and others are now here. The conference lasts five days.

Fire in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—The clothing store of Moyer, Friedman & Co., on Fourth street, between Locust and Vine, and the millinery rooms of Federlin & Cohen, second floor of same building, was burned last night. The total loss will be about $25,000. Fully insured in Eastern offices.

Destructive Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 20.—The buildings and machinery of the Chicago Rolling Mill Company were destroyed by fire last night. Loss two hundred thousand dollars; insured for forty thousand dollars.

The Fenian Prisoners to be Hung.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Times' Montreal special says: Two thousand volunteers came in from the front on Monday. [illegible] telegraph asserts that the Fenian prisoners will be hanged.
