A Canadian Pacific Hotel—Atop of Old Quebec

Where Canada Begins

WHETHER it's up the northland trail to game forest and trout stream. Or down the St. Lawrence to Europe. Or through the Dominion on romance or pleasure bent. The place to begin—and end—is Chateau Frontenac on its historic rock. . . . Below, old Quebec. Atop, the castled hostelry. . . . There is rest here—New World comfort amidst Old World peace. Change here—new things-to-do amidst quaint Normandy things-to-see. Recreation here—modern gaiety and sports in a medieval environment. . . . Stop awhile and play in this nook of Europe in America. Only an overnight ride. Good motor roads. Make reservations now. Information at Canadian Pacific Office, 629 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, or Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.
