Married.

On August 15th, 1872, by Rev. M. L. Gandy, Mr. Thos. B. Lord to Miss Martha B. Wise, both of Bloomington, Clearfield county.

Communicated.

Mr. Editor:—It was a rare treat that we were permitted to enjoy last evening, through the thoughtfulness of a few of our public-spirited citizens, Dr. Reed's lecture comes up to the true standard of such performance, combining amusement with useful instruction. If one has not the time or the money for traveling, there is no more effectual and agreeable way of obtaining impressions of other scenes and countries than by such descriptions as those with which the reverend lecturer entertained us.

It is to be hoped that Dr. Reed may visit Clearfield again, and allow us to complete in his company the journey so pleasantly begun.

Specials.

Miss Swan's School.—The Fall Session of this School opens, on Monday, the 2d day of September next. As a teacher, she has few equals. Parents can send to no better school anywhere. An additional teacher will be employed, at the opening of the next term.

The eighth scholastic year of the Clearfield Academy, under its present efficient Principal, Rev. P. L. Harrison, will open Monday, September 2. Prof. Harrison is assisted by a corps of able teachers. The facilities offered by this institution are unsurpassed by any similar school in central Pennsylvania. Students from a distance will be boarded in the institution, or in private families.

Free Thought Lectures.—B. F. Underwood, Esq., will deliver two lectures in the Court House, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 3d and 4th. The subject for the first evening will be, "The Influence of Christianity on Civilization." For the second evening the subject will be, "Some of the Reasons on which Modern Unbelief is Based." Mr. Underwood has made the study of free thought a specialty, and is perfectly familiar with the subject. Ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to be present. Lectures to commence at half past 7 o'clock. Admission free.

Found.—On the turnpike, near the residence of Benjamin Hartshorn, on the 28th of July last, a bundle containing a clouch hat and a pair of shoes. The owner can have them by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

New Goods.—Kratzer & Lytle desire to notify the public generally, that they are now receiving and opening one of the largest stocks of seasonable Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., ever brought to this town. Call, see and be convinced.

A great many people have asked us of late, "How do you keep your horse looking so sleek and glossy?" We tell them it's the easiest thing in the world; give Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders two or three times a week.
