QUEBEC, CANADA

A Canadian Pacific Hotel ~ Atop of Old Quebec

Modern Romance Atop Ancient Ramparts

HISTORIC ramparts,—these. Walk them, and you command an Old World while in the New. . . . 300 years ago, French soldiers built the Fortress of Quebec. Put a quaint French town below, cannon atop. Then kept the French tricolor waving for 150 years. . . . Today, this famous battlement still stands. Still lords it over St. Lawrence and the 17th Century town. But its shot-scarred stones are now a promenade. Its garrison—a pleasuring throng. A band plays Broadway airs. . . . The castle is a Canadian Pacific hostelry. Its reign is one of hospitality and cordiality, of modern comforts and modish cuisine. . . . Come up this summer. Good motor roads. Or overnight in a Pullman. Make your reservations now. Apply to Canadian Pacific Office, 629 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, or Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.

Enjoy this Wonder Cruise

On the Lower St. Lawrence and Saguenay

Six Glorious Days Without Change of Steamer!

Nowhere in all America can you find a vacation trip so rich with romance, so filled with scenic grandeur and the thrill of adventure.

From the deck of a modern steamship you can behold the mighty panorama which struck Jacques Cartier speechless with amazement, four hundred years ago. And Spirits of the mighty men of old—Cartier, Champlain, LaSalle, Roberval and his lost legions—still brood over these vast solitudes.

Every Saturday, from July 8th to the close of the season, the luxurious steamship Cape Eternity will leave Montreal for Quebec, Murray Bay—the Newport of Canada—Tadousac, where Jacques Cartier first landed, and the world-famed gorge of the Saguenay—River of Mystery. Six golden days amid scenes of beauty that have been famed for centuries—deep into the storied past: a veritable Voyage of Discovery on the road to yesterday.

Come—and see Quebec, rich in imperial memories: the plains of Abraham where was shattered the grandest dream of empire ever conceived on this continent. See the miracle-working shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupré; the Falls of Montmorency, higher than Niagara; then the swelling climax of the stupendous gorge of the Saguenay. See Cape Eternity, unchanged since Cartier's day, and higher than Gibraltar; feel the solemn spell of Cape Trinity, whence the statue of the Blessed Virgin looks down in compassion upon the dark waters below.

Take this unforgettable trip this summer. All the way in comfort. All the way in safety.
