"Cut-throat" notes will be rather hazardous paper after the 4th of July next. Better get them before.

Read our new advertisements this week. They are numerous and impart information to every branch of business.

Gen. Robert Fleming, one of Williamsport's old and respected citizens, died in that city on Saturday last. Gen. Fleming was well known to many of our citizens, and his death will be regretted by them.

Up to Time.—A bundle of ten or twelve copies of the Legislative Record, containing the proceedings of the Legisture for the 5th and 6th days of May, came to hand on the 30th of the same month. The balance, we presume, will be along about the 4th of July.

Vendue.—An advertisement in this issue indicates that the Administrator of the estate of the late Judge Wilhelm will dispose of a large amount of personal property on Saturday, the 13th day of June, at the late residence of the deceased, in Graham township.

Assessor Appointed.—Mr. Thomas Leonard, Assessor of Girard township, having removed to West Clearfield, caused a vacancy in the office of Assessor in the township indicated. The County Commissioners have appointed Mr. Mitchell Shope to fill the vacancy.

To-morrow is the time and Bellefonte the place, for the great re-union of the Pennsylvania Reserves. Gen. S. W. Crawford is to deliver the oration. The village on Spring creek will be in a blaze of glory. But few corporations like it in the State—for age.

A grand ball will take place in Pie's Opera House on Friday evening, July 3d. Managers—O. B. Merrell, J. L. Leavy and A. W. Walters. The hop is for the benefit of the Park Association, and we hope it will prove largely remunerative. Lovers of dancing should engage their partners early, as no doubt the girls will all be picked up long before the time.

All Right Again.—The rebellion which had broken out on the Low Grade Railroad, and which resulted in the stopping of all trains on that road last week, was finally compromised on Saturday and the trains commenced making regular trips on Monday. The officers of the Allegheny Valley road settled with and paid nearly all their employes, or made satisfactory arrangements for doing so at an early day.

Three at Once.—We learn that Mrs. Silas Stugarts, of Woodward township, gave birth to triplets on Thursday, the 28th ult.,—two boys and one girl, the smallest one weighing seven pounds. All are doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances. It is very evident on every hand, notwithstanding the tightness of the times, that the population of our county is greatly on the increase.

Tate's Furniture Story.—Brother Tate of the Williamsport Sun, relates the following fact:

"It is well after all for our farmers to know that there is some virtue in sawdust. A contemporary mentions that a near-sighted hen which mistook sawdust for Indian meal, ate heartily thereof, then laid a nest full of wooden knobs, and in three weeks hatched out a set of parlor furniture."

It is a little tough, but then he is an old man and evidently knows all about it.

Registering Voters.—The Registry law requires the several Assessors in each county to take up the list of voters on the first Monday of June annually, and proceed to make a complete enrollment of all the voters in each borough and township, striking off the names of all who may have removed from the district since the last assessment, or who may have died, and add thereto the names of all who may have removed into the district since the last assessment was made. Last week the County Commissioners sent a copy of the list of voters to each Assessor in the county for the purpose indicated, whose duty it is to proceed and make the enrollment at once and make return of their work to the Commissioners' office at as early a day as possible, not later than the first day of July.

A Busy Session.—Court opened precisely at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, with the new Assistant Law Judge, Orvis, and Associate Judges, Foley and Read, on the Bench. As but few jurors and witnesses seemed to be present, the argument list was proceeded with until 12 o'clock, when a recess was had until 2 o'clock, P. M. After the opening of court in the afternoon, the list Constables of was called over, and twenty-eight answered and made their proper return. The list of jurors was next called when nearly all answered, after which several causes were tried and court adjourned at 6 o'clock, P. M., until 8½ o'clock on Tuesday morning. The balance of the proceedings will be given in our next. The new Judge adapts himself right well to the change which has come over him since he last appeared in our court-room among lawyers and clients at the bar.

A Lightning Rod Case—Another Warning.—At the present term of court there was tried the case of Battles & Webster against John A. Miller. In the summer of 1871, a company of men passed through this section of country vending and putting up lightning rods; also, representing themselves to be agents of an Electrical Insurance Company. They represented to our farmers that by giving a note they would be required to pay the interest on it for the term of five years, then have it returned—paying only that amount for the insurance and the lightning rods thrown in. They succeeded in procuring from Mr. Miller and others negotiable notes.—These notes were endorsed by the payee and carried to Girard, Penn'a, where they were sold to a Banking House conducted by the plaintiffs. They, the plaintiffs, supposing the notes to have been fairly obtained, paid about eighty cents on the dollar for them. His Honor, Judge Orvis, held upon this showing that the notes being negotiable and having passed into the hands of innocent holders must be paid by the makers—that when one of two innocent persons must suffer it must be him who sets in motion the instrument by which the injury was accomplished. This, no doubt, is a proper exposition of the law, and this case is a warning to our people to patronize home men and home institutions whose reputations have become established, and to shun all traveling speculators.—Clinton Democrat.

—Cremation of caterpillars is suggested as opportune just now. They have not yet gone on their predatory excursions but are making preparations in the nests for the devastating work.

—The estate of Col. Philips, deceased, is considered worth nothing. Previous to his death he was President of the Allegheny Valley Railroad and supposed to be worth two million dollars.

—Williamsport had another lumber fire last week. Nearly $40,000 worth of lumber was destroyed in the yard of Ganet Tinsman. The barn attached to the Dickinson Seminary was also burned, together with a horse and spring-wagon. All the work of incendiaries.

Duty of Township Officers.—Those interested should not lose sight of the fact that a law has been passed by the legislature requiring the auditors of the several townships, boroughs and cities, immediately after their annual meeting on the first Monday in June, to advertise in one or more county papers, an itemized annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the borough councils, road commissioners, supervisors, overseers of the poor, and school directors, for the year preceding the annual settlement for their respective districts. Said advertisements are to be published within ten days after such settlement; and further, it shall be the duty of said auditors to file a copy of the same with the town clerk, in their respective districts, and also with the clerk of quarter sessions, which will be at all times subject to inspection by any citizen thereof. Provided, that where two of said offices shall be exercised by the same persons only one statement shall be required. Also provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with the present law, which requires annual statements of the receipts and expenditures of the borough councils, road commissioners, supervisors, overseers of the poor, and school directors, to be advertised in the daily and weekly newspapers published in the respective localities. For neglecting or refusing to comply with this act the auditors shall pay a fine of $20 to be recovered by law, as debts of a similar amount are recoverable, by suit instituted in the name of the school directors on the complaint of any tax-paying citizen. Said penalty to be paid into the school treasury of the district.—Harrisburg Patriot.

—The next annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd-Fellows will be held at Williamsport.

Specials.

William Reed is receiving an assortment of new Dress Goods at the Keystone Store.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of John P. Irvin, Curwensville, who has become the successor of R. A. & W. D. Irvin in the "Corner Store," and will no doubt keep up the reputation of that old and well established business emporium.

T. M. Robinson calls the attention of farmers and others attending court, to his stock of Harness, which he is offering at rates that must insure its speedy sale.

Business is lively at the Keystone Store, as the goods are so cheap people are bound to buy.

The Place to Buy.—The place to buy is at the new Hard ware and Tin ware establishment of Watson, Nichols & Co., Curwensville, who have made a new departure in that line of trade, and will no doubt command the respect and trade they are entitled to from the public. Their advertisement in this issue, particularly details their business. Read it, and then go and examine their stock.

The New Firm.—Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of the firm of T. J. Hubbard & Co., who have launched their bark on the business sea. The members of this firm are practical men, in fact experts, in their line of business, which will enable them to make exceedingly liberal offers to their patrons. Look for the big sign, and then drop in and look at things and satisfy yourselves.

Store for Sale.—As indicated in our advertising columns, there is a rare opportunity offered to parties who wish to embark in the mercantile business, at the flourishing village of Woodland.

The Park races coming off soon, it behooves those who intend to participate to be preparing their harness, saddles, &c., for the occasion. T. M. Robinson is fully competent to give assistance in this matter, and has a large stock of all necessary articles to select from.

Have you seen the fine Harness at the New Saddlery of Crain & Mitton, next door to the Keystone Store?

The best Harness in this country is made at Crain & Mitton's New Saddlery, and sold cheaper than it can be bought in the city.

Buggies For Sale.—R. Newton Shaw keeps a full supply of Fredonia Buggies and Platform Wagons for sale. To be seen at the Shaw House yard. Call on or address him at Clearfield Pennsylvania. may 13-tf.

House for Rent.—A new house, containing six rooms, with good cellar underneath. Apply to the undersigned at his furniture warerooms.
may6 JOHN GULICH.

If you need Harness of any kind, don't fail to call and see home made work at the New Saddlery of Crain & Mitton, where you can buy warranted work at wholesale prices.

Competition defied at home or abroad in the prices and quality of Gold, Silver or Rubber covered Mounted Harness, at Crain & Mitton's New Saddlery, next door to Keystone Store.
