PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF

$23,000,000.

AN ACT

To Create a Loan

FOR THE REDEMPTION OF

The Over-Due Bonds of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The bonds of the Commonwealth, and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to twenty-three millions of dollars, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;

And Whereas, It is desirable that the sums should be paid, and withdrawn from the market; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to borrow, on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice, (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient for the interests of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first of February and first of August, in the City of Philadelphia, which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever, for State, municipal, or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely: Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years: eight millions of dollars, payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years; and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, if orders, received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder; Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued, shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

SEC. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan, now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees, or other persons, holding in a fiduciary capacity, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act, who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust, may, without any order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

SEC. 6. That from and after the passage of this act, all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

SEC. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth, not yet due, shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation, after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall have been paid.

SEC. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

THE INSANE.

The Annual Report of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital—Dixmont—Interesting Information and Statistics as to the Insane.

We have received the annual report of the managers of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, for 1866, a neatly printed pamphlet of fifty pages, from the press of W. S. Haven. It contains an interesting exhibit of the workings of this institution during the year 1866, particularly of the Insane Department at Dixmont.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The expenses to the Hospital during the year amounted to $121,457 56; of this sum $48,928 07 was for hospital expenses, and $34,252 74 for a new hospital and improvements at Dixmont. Of this sum $24,679 72 was derived from the State appropriation, $23,628 88 from pay patients; $15,115 from individual benefactions; and $16,000 from the executors of Charles Brewer, Esq. The amount remaining in the treasury of the hospital, January 4, amounted to $25,451 76.

It is recommended that the rates for public patients be advanced (by authority of the Legislature) to $3.00 and $3.50 per week, as in the Hospital at Harrisburg.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Dr. Joseph A. Reed, Superintendent of the Insane Department, in his report, presents various suggestions with a view to the further improvement of the usefulness of the institution. During the year the institution has been crowded to excess, and it has been with great difficulty that patients who arrived could be furnished with comfortable quarters; to this may be attributed the fact that a larger number of patients have died than in any previous year. Another year will bring partial relief by the completion of the western extension of the hospital. Dr. Reed urgently recommends that separate provision be made for the criminal insane. Among the patients are persons of good family, members of the liberal professions, artists, merchants, artisans, who feel it an extreme hardship to be compelled to associate with criminals, whose insanity has only served to darken and exaggerate the most revolting features of their characters. The moral effect on the minds of those patients who are capable of reflection, and have never been convicted of crime, is extreme-

Hearing Had.

Peter Sutter, the man charged by Albert Holthouse with assaulting him on the Suspension Bridge, on Thursday night last, had a hearing before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday morning, and was held for court in the sum of $800. William Snyder was charged with being implicated with Sutter, but was discharged. An information against Holthouse, the prosecutor in this case, has been made before Mayor Morrison by Sutter, for assault and battery. At the conclusion of the hearing yesterday morning, Chief Long, of Allegheny, arrested Holthouse and took him before Mayor Morrison. Sutter alleges that he was passing over the St. Clair street bridge, at half past six o'clock on Thursday evening, when he overtook Holthouse, who was riding in a wagon, with a small dog in his lap. When near the other end of the bridge, Holthouse charged Sutter with striking the dog, and threatened to whip him if he repeated the offence. Sutter denied the charge, but Holthouse persisted that he had struck the dog. A short distance above the railroad crossing, on Federal street, Holthouse again accosted Sutter and demanded to know why he did so. The latter then stopped Holthouse's horse, when the accused committed the assault complained of. Holthouse also was held to bail for Court.

Brought Over.—On Sunday night officer Frank Campbell, of the Allegheny night police, was attracted by what seemed to be a large sized female row in progress on Federal street, Allegheny. He proceeded to the spot and found three women, who were not quarreling among themselves, but were venting their wrath in concert against some fellow who, as they alleged, had offered them indignities and then fled. The women were Belle Kelly, Caroline Black and Agnes Warne. From the nature of their demonstrations the officers judged that they would be better inside the lock-up than outside of it, and accordingly took them thither. Yesterday morning they were brought to jail for the period of ten days each.

Coming to Grant Hill.—On Saturday, in the United States District Court, upon application of District Attorney Carnahan, Hon. William McCandless granted an order for the removal of a man named Keister, now confined in the jail in Erie on a charge of passing counterfeit money, to the jail in this city. Keister is alleged to have been engaged in shoving one hundred dollar counterfeit bills in Butler county, and the Government detectives were in search of him. He was arrested in Erie county.

Ears Pulled.—Mrs. Katrina Linder yesterday came before Alderman Albrits, and made information against Mrs. Schneiderlocher, (we believe that is all the name,) for assault and battery. The parties live in the Ninth ward, and the prosecutrix alleges that her adversary caught hold of her little girl and pulled her ears severely. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Recovering.—James Dougherty, who was injured so severely last week by falling under a freight train on the Connellsville Railroad, is recovering very rapidly, we are glad to learn, from the injuries received.
