RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Rev. A. D. Yocum, Pastor.—Public Service every Sabbath at 10½ A. M., and 7½ P. M.
Sabbath School at 9 A. M.
Prayer Meeting every Thursday, at 7½ P. M.
Communion Service, first Sabbath of every month, at 10½ A. M.

Presbyterian Church—Rev. H. S. Butler.—Sabbath services morning and evening—Sabbath School at 3 P. M.—Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening.

St. Francis' Church—Catholic—Rev. P. J. Sheridan.—Mass at 10½ o'clock A. M., on the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Worthy of Imitation—Sheriff Miller's awning and window "fixins."

Messrs. Thompson & Co., of Curwensville, have changed their mode of doing business—selling goods at cost for cash.

The Administrators of the estate of the late Geo. J. Yoas, it will be noticed, propose to sell a large amount of personal property, including a large amount of lumber and shingles.

For the Races.—Several fast horses have arrived for the races next week. From present appearances, these races promise to surpass anything of the kind we have ever had here.

We are reliably informed that "Comical Conley," the greatest mimic and humorist traveling, will give two performances in Pie's Opera House, on the 24th and 25th of July next.

James Flynn, formerly a citizen of Penn township, died suddenly at Lock Haven, on Monday a week. He had but recently embarked in the hotel business in that city, and was doing a good business.

Ambitious.—Our neighboring county on the west, Jefferson, has no less than three Democratic candidates for Congress, viz: George A. Jenks, Robt. J. Nicholson and R. R. Means. We could vote for all of them.

According to the Bellefonte Republican, the act passed last winter to repeal the charter of the Karthaus Turnpike and Bridge Company, and making the bridge free, is still in the hands of the Governor.

Henry McKee's hotel at Clark's Ferry Dam, on the Dauphin county side, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday, the 9th inst. The contents of the house on the first floor only were saved. Loss about $2,000, and fully insured.

Church Service.—We have been requested to state that divine service will be held in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, in this place, by Rev. George C. Rafter, on Monday evening, June 29th, and on Tuesday morning following, at 10½ o'clock.

The Park Hop.—A grand ball, for the benefit of the Clearfield Park Association, will be held in Pie's Opera House, on Friday evening of next week, July 3d. As this is to be a grand affair, trippers of the "light fantastic toe" should make a note of it.

The Philipsburg Journal says that "six hundred tons of coal were shipped from the Sterling mine of the Powelton Coal and Iron Company, on the Moshannon branch, on Tuesday. This is probably the largest shipment from a single drift ever made in this region."

The Brookville Jeffersonian, of last week, says the high water in Bennett's Branch washed away about one hundred feet of a heavy fill on the Low Grade division of the Allegheny Valley road, near Tyler's Station, on Thursday night last, causing the stoppage of trains for several days.

In Search of Health.—Mr. George Hagerty, who has been connected with this office for nearly nine years, left his home on Thursday last for Colorado, for the purpose of recuperating his declining health. Harry C. Adams accompanies him on a similar errand. We hope they will both find speedy relief and live many years.

In a New Field.—Rev. A. J. Hartsock, who has filled the pulpit in the Lutheran Church in this place for several years past, has severed his connection with this congregation. He preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening a week, and left on the day following for his new field of labor, which we understand is Boalsburg, Centre county.

Pic-Nic at Frenchville.—The fourth annual pic-nic for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, at Frenchville, will be held in the grove near the Church, on Wednesday next, July 1st. The pic-nics held at this place are proverbial for good cheer and hospitality, and we assure our readers that they can find no better place for the spending of a day in pleasure than with Father Gerbigier and his congregation.

A Failure.—That crazy villain, McGuire, who missed the Penitentiary and landed in the Asylum, two weeks ago, made several attempts to break out of prison previous to his final. He broke the glass out of his window and with the pieces cut a hole in the floor of his cell, intending, no doubt, to escape by way of the sewer. But after cutting through the boards, he must have been mortified when he discovered an iron plate beneath, one inch in thickness. The loss did not injure the iron very seriously.

Fatal Accident.—We are sorry that we are compelled to chronicle the sudden death of an esteemed young man, named I. Warren Goon, eldest son of Joseph Goon, of Pike township, which occurred in Morris township on Thursday afternoon. Young Goon, with another man, was cross-cutting saw logs in the woods, and while sawing, a tree fell in the rear of him, striking him on the head and otherwise injuring him, from the effects of which he died in about three hours. The other man having faced the falling tree, saw it in time to escape injury.

Examination of Soldiers' Orphans' Schools.—J. P. Wickersham, Superintendent of Schools, has issued a circular to Principals and Teachers of the Soldiers' Orphans' Schools and Homes in the State, notifying them that vacation for the year will commence on Monday, July 20th, and continue till Tuesday, September 1st—six weeks. The Superintendent orders that "all the children must return promptly at the end of the vacation, as a reduction will hereafter be made in the case of those who remain away even for a short time. The 'thirty days' will no longer be applied to this class of absentees."

Bridge Committee.—We understand that the County Commissioners have appointed the following named a committee to contend the erection of the Deer Creek bridge, viz: Thomas H. Forey, Patrick Curley, L. M. Gerrel, John J. Picard and Francis Bugar. The gentlemen are requested to meet the board at their office in Clearfield, on Monday, the 6th day of July next, for the purpose of taking steps for the immediate erection of the bridge, provided a sufficient amount of money is subscribed or guaranteed in the neighborhood to complete the structure, in addition to the $4,000 appropriated by the county.

Philipsburg as it is.—The editor of the Journal accidentally turned up at church last evening, and in his paper of Saturday gives "for" the young men, as follows:

"We have marched past a line of gaping idiots on passing out of church before now, but never on Sunday did we have to break through a solid column stretched across the very pavement. It is a disgrace to any community that tolerates such a nuisance, and it would be a christian duty to the young men—(we beg the pardon of all well-bred young men in town for speaking of such creatures as "young men," but to avoid lying we do so,)—who make a practice of exhibiting their lack of breeding if the members of the church were to take active legal measures to break up the abomination."

Goodworth, that's a pretty good sermon; but will you revert "the young men?"

A Relic.—Mr. J. B. Runk has placed in our hands a copy of "A Bill of Rates for to regulate Carpenter work in the Town and vicinity of Philipsburg, Centre county, agreed upon by the undersigned subscribers the eighth day of July A. D. 1826," which was picked up, strange to say, fifty-eight years after it was signed, in Kandiyohi county, Minnesota, by W. O. Graham, and by him given to Mr. Runk. It is an exhaustive schedule giving the price for making each particular timber required in building a house, and but for its length we would reproduce it entire. A few selections may possess a novelty, for instance: "Quartering rabbiting weatherboarding, per sq. $2.00; ditto without rabbiting $1.12½; panel doors with six panels, double worked, per sq. yard $1.50; ditto with four panels 75c.; putting on locks each, 12½c.; ditto latch 6¼c.; cutting doors and windows each 50c.; sawing down corners of log house, per story $2.00; water troughs for eaves of houses pr. ft., R. M. 6½c.; framing Yankee fashion pr. sq. 50.; planking Yankee fashion $2.25." The paper shows that even in that early day they had systematized things and that combinations for the better protection of artisans were no uncommon things. It is signed as follows:

James Kinnear,	John B. Meek,
George Rawl,	Wm. M'Clelland,
Jacob F. Senser,	Christopher Kretzer,
Thomas Tate,	Samuel A. Merrell,
John Shimmel,	John Kinnear,
George Livier,	Christian Ama,
William Waterhouse,

Of these old residents, most of whom have gone to their graves, but one now resides in the place, Mr. Wm. McClellan, and when the paper was shown to him he recognized it at once, and recollected as if it were but yesterday the night that it was signed in a back room of the brick hotel, now the Moshannon House, then kept by the venerable James McGirk. The sight of those names brought to Mr. McClellan's recollection incidents of the olden time, and he had something to say of each one. James Kinnear was Justice of the Peace, a stern inflexible administrator of the law, before whom Sabbath-breakers and profane swearers were arraigned and fined. Mr. McClellan relates that when he was overseer of the poor with Hardman Philips, they levied only a light tax because the receipts from fines imposed for swearing, which went to the overseers, was almost sufficient for their purpose.—George Rawl was a genius. Jacob F. Senser was killed at the corner of Front and Presquesile streets while moving a house. John B. Meek was a Greek and Latin scholar, and a mathematician. Christopher Kratzer, now living in Clearfield, made the wood-work (the screw being made by Isaiah Jones, father of Jos. Jones who carries on the blacksmithing business here now) of the first printing press ever brought into Clearfield county—so Clearfield is indebted to Philipsburg for something, at least. Christopher Kratzer, Wm. McClellan, George Livier and Samuel Merrell constitute a quartette of the only known living ones of the thirteen whose names have come to us from the far west so long after they were written. Half a century may not find the same proportion of those who read this sketch "in the land of the living."—Philipsburg Journal.

Death of Rev. John A. Gere.—This eminent veteran of the Cross departed this life at Shickshinny, Luzerne county, on Wednesday evening, June 3, after an illness of three days, and in the fifty-second year of his ministry. At the time of his demise he was serving his third year in the pastorate of Shickshinny charge, Central Pennsylvania Conference, and it may be said of this distinguished servant of Christ that he ceased at once "to work and live." He entered the Baltimore Conference in 1823; was the oldest effective minister within the bounds of the Central, which, in his youthful ministerial career, formed part of the former conference. He was a plain, forcible speaker, and a deep and sound reasoner, and for his decided administrative and scholastic abilities had been intrusted with important offices in the gift of the church, such as delegate to the General Conference, representing both the Baltimore and Central, and Presiding Elder. He was also the author of a work in regard to family government, which had great merits for he was abundantly competent to write upon the subject—his own household being a model of beauty, order and propriety, and the theme of admiration of all who sojourned within its sacred precincts. At the session of conference at Chambersburg in March, 1873, he preached, at the request of that body, made the year previous, his semi-centennial sermon. He was present last March at the conference in this city, and evinced a power of vitality and vivacity in conversation and debate that was wonderful for one of his years and labors. He was a safe counsellor, a deep man in things that pertained to God, and a tower of strength to Methodism in her early days. Of him it may be said that he preached the Gospel out of pure love for fallen humanity, and not with a view to personal or earthly gain, for he died poor, but rich in faith. He had his treasures laid up above, and when the Great Master comes to make up his jewels, none will sparkle brighter than Father Gere. He leaves a widow and several daughters to mourn his death, among whom is the estimable wife of Rev. A. D. Yocum, stationed at Clearfield. But like a full shock of corn he has been garnered in the great store house of the skies. A good man has fallen in Israel, and the church has sustained a great loss. We do not know his exact age, but he must have been verging on four score.—Altoona Tribune.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

The Brady Township Sunday-School Association held one of its most successful Institutes at Rumbarger, on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The hall being insufficient to accommodate the large number in attendance, the sessions on Thursday afternoon and evening were held in John Rumbarger's orchard, where a spacious platform and seats were constructed for the occasion. In the evening the grounds were splendidly illuminated by torch-lights suspended among the trees. The people of the place showed a most commendable interest. Everything necessary for the comfort of the delegates, as well as for the success of the Institute, was cheerfully done.

The conductor, Mr. S. G. Kunts, kept the sessions in good order, or rather, the good order kept itself, for there was an appreciative attention throughout.

In addition to the officers of the Association, the following speakers were present: Revs. Mangis, Wampler, Landis, and Sabbath-School Missionary Crittenden.

Rev. J. W. Landis and S. G. Kunts were appointed delegates to represent the Association at the next Institute of the County Sabbath-School Association. Reporter.

Daring Burglary.—Some very awkward scoundrel entered the store of Richard Mossop, in this place, on Monday night, by means of an augur and gouge. The entrance was made through the back doors. The bolts and latches of no less than three doors were bored and gouged off before the thief could enter the main store room. Not knowing how to manage the patent money-drawers, two of them were broken to pieces and emptied of their contents, amounting only to a few pennies and some nickel, as Mr. Mossop always empties the cash drawers in the evening. It is not known what amount of goods was carried off. Some shoes were found in the alley near Mrs. Irvin's stable, and some tobacco was picked up in the back yard. It would be well enough these "idle times" for merchants to keep a nightly watch in their stores, or set traps for this class of customers.

On the Fourth.—We, the undersigned, merchants and business men of Clearfield, hereby agree to close our respective places of business on the Fourth of July, 1874, being a national holiday. We not only wish to enjoy it ourselves, but to give our employes the same privilege:

ANNOUNCEMENT

OF THE GREAT

REDUCTION OF PRICES!

BY S. PORTER SHAW, D. D. S.

IMPORTANT TRUTHS:

Having succeeded in getting a lighter tariff on material, hence the few and moderate charge for partial and full sets of Teeth. I use the best manufacture of teeth and other material. All operations registered and warranted to give service and satisfaction.

Friends, reflect that my charges for the insertion of artificial and the saving of the natural teeth are now the most reasonable in Pennsylvania. Preserve your teeth and you preserve your health.

Putting of the natural teeth in a healthy, preservative and useful condition is made a specialty. Diseases and malformations common to the mouth, jaw and associate parts, are treated and corrected with fair success. Examinations and consultations free.

It would be well for patients from a distance to let me know by mail a few days before coming to the office.

It is very important that children between the ages of six and twelve years should have their teeth examined.

Anæsthetics are administered and Teeth removed without pain.

Dispositions and character are judged by all the world by the expressions of the face, hence how very disastrous may it therefore be for persons to indulge an expression of distorted features, even apart from a hygienic view. Now, to enjoy natural (not artificial) comforts and pleasures, respect and obey natural simplicities and instinct.

DENTAL CARD.

DR. A. M. HILLS

Would say to his patients and the public generally, that, having dissolved partnership with Dr. Shaw, he is now doing the entire work of his office himself, so that patients need not fear being put under the hands of any other operator.
Clearfield, March 20, 1872-pd20mch73

J. M. STEWART, D. D. S.,

Office over Irwin's Drug Store,

CURWENSVILLE, PA.

All dental operations, either in the mechanical or operative branch, promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Special attention paid to the treatment of diseases of the natural teeth, gums and mouth. Irregularity of the teeth successfully corrected. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of Ether, and artificial teeth inserted of the best material and warranted to render satisfaction. april26'71:1y
