VOICES FRIENDSHIP OF FRANCE FOR U. S.

Count Chambrun, Lafayette's Great Grandson, Speaks at West Point

By Associated Press

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Count de Chambrun, Minister Plenipotentiary and Charge d'Affaires of France, who is a great-grandson of the Marquis Lafayette, voiced his nation's true love of America in an address here today at the celebration of Lafayette's birthday conducted by the Sons of the Revolution.

Count de Chambrun pointed out that the "affinities" of the two nations were not "base, solely upon the ordinary considerations and forms," but were "of higher order and conception and enthroned in the hearts of our peoples." He cited France's aid to the Colonies in the American Revolution, the influence shortly afterward of the Declaration of Independence in the French Revolution, and the aid of the United States in the World War as proving "the enduring power of those ties woven in liberty for humanity's good."

"It seems as though at moments of liberty's need," he said, "that millions of human voices would echo on either side of the Atlantic Ocean.

"If your freedom is threatened, count upon us. Here we stand, champions of your cause; your life in danger means liberty imperiled.

"We salute, on this day of rejoicing, a brotherhood in arms twice renewed and the unparalleled historic friendship between France and the United States. We hail, as well as the glorious past, the bright prospect of a future of peace."

BLIND CHILDREN TRAMP FAR. MENACED BY TURKS

Youngsters From U. S. School at Harpoot Arrive at Aleppo, Syria

Aleppo, Syria, Sept. 6.—(By A. P.)—One hundred blind children from the American School for the Blind in Harpoot have arrived here safely after a 500-mile hike across the Turkish interior, during which they passed through mountains infested with bandits and over long stretches of desert, where camels carried water and provisions.

The children are from seven to fifteen years old. Their pilgrimage is part of the plan of the Near East Relief to remove several thousand Armenian orphans from Asiatic Turkey. The journey from Harpoot took a month. On the last twenty miles the children floated down the Euphrates on barges. They now are housed in Aleppo, which is the capital of Syria under the French mandate.
