A Heavy Shipment.—Williamsport last week shipped eight men to the Eastern Penitentiary and two boys to the House of Refuge.

Dr. S. Porter Shaw again announces, through our "Special" column, a reduction in prices in the line of his profession.

Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong returned to his home at Williamsport on Monday of last week, after a brief trip to Europe.

A game association has been organized in Huntingdon county. The object is the protection of all kinds of game and fish, and to see that the game laws of the State are respected. We would like very much to see an organization of this kind in Clearfield county.

Extensive Courting.—We understand that Judge Mayer and Orvis have so "blocked out" the legal business of this district that Court will be in constant session until the 1st of January next, five weeks of which is to be held in this county. Judge Mayer will preside next week at our Court.

New Law Firm.—Elsewhere will be found the card of Messrs. Murray & Gordon, who have entered into a co-partnership in the practice of the law. They are both young and energetic, and must succeed if they devote their time and talents to their profession. Any business entrusted to them will receive proper and prompt attention.

Whoppers.—Mr. Joseph Owens, of Lawrence township, has our thanks for a lot of the "biggest" potatoes we ever saw. They are of the Peerless and Early Rose "persuasions," some of them actually weighing from one to two and one-half pounds. Those of our readers who want to take lessons on the potato subject, should apply to Mr. Owens.

A New Postoffice.—The Philipsburg Journal, of Saturday last, states that the Postoffice Department has established a new Postoffice at Morrisdale Mines, and the mail will soon be carried by the train twice each day. This will shorten the Kylertown stage route which will hereafter extend only to Morrisdale instead of Philipsburg.

A Step to the Front.—It will be observed by our "Special" column that Messrs. T. A. Fleck & Co. have successfully driven "hard times" out at the back door, and have filled their rooms with as fine a stock of goods in their line as were ever exhibited in this place. If you are in need of anything handsome, read their specials and you will be sure to get it in your eye, and by going to their store you can have the privilege of handling the article.

Election of Officers.—At a meeting of Clearfield Lodge, No. 198, I. O. O. F., last Saturday evening, the following were elected officers for the ensuing term:

N. G.—Aaron C. Tate.
V. G.—A. M. Row.
Secretary—Noah B. Lee.
Assist. Sec.—John C. Smith.
Representative to Grand Lodge—R. A. Green.

Bank Suspension.—We are grieved to note the suspension of the Banking House of Moffirk & Perks, which occurred on Monday. They expect to make such arrangements with the creditors as will allow a resumption in a short time, and in any event the assets represent a sum sufficient to cover all liabilities. The depositors, therefore, feel secure, and the majority are satisfied that if a little time is granted the institution will regain its standing. This, we hope, may be the case. The times called for an exercise of leniency, and we have no doubt that if the proper spirit is manifested on the part of creditors nobody need lose anything in the end. A strong policy, however, may lead to sacrifice.—Philipsburg Journal.

At Rest.—After a journey delayed by various causes to eleven days, Jackson Hagerty arrived in this place on Monday with the remains of his brother George, whose death we noticed last week. The body was in an excellent state of preservation, and was viewed at the family residence by hundreds of persons previous to interment, which took place Monday afternoon. The funeral ceremonies were conducted at the house by Rev. H. S. Butler and at the grave by the Masonic fraternity, which had taken care of him during his illness at Denver, and had his body prepared for shipment and delivered it safely to his friends, although his death occurred among strangers nearly 1,800 miles from his home. He has crossed the River and is forever at rest. Peace to his ashes!

Postponed.—At an informal meeting of the citizens of Clearfield, held at the office of Dr. Wilson, on Friday evening, Sept. 11th, and afterwards at a joint meeting of the Board of School Directors and the Committee appointed at the citizens' meeting, consisting of Dr. R. V. Wilson, W. W. Betts, J. J. Pie, G. R. Goodlander, E. A. Rigler, S. J. Row, and Rev. Wm. H. Dill, it was agreed to make the necessary arrangements to dedicate, in a proper manner, the magnificent Leonard School building on Saturday evening, the 26th inst. It having been ascertained that it was impossible to secure the services of State Superintendent Wickersham at that time, the dedicatory services were postponed until some time during the month of October. Public notice will be given of the date of the same when full arrangements have been completed.

Expelled.—John R. Smith, the minister whom we last week mentioned as being wrented over in Sugar Valley to father a babe recently born there out of wedlock, put in an appearance at the recent camp-meeting at Pine, and reported to the Presiding Elder of the circuit for duty. Mr. Smith's reputation preceded him or got there with him, for he was charged with the act, and tried for it. He first denied it, but afterwards confessed and was expelled from the ministry. Less pretentious, but more honest and virtuous than Plymouth church, the Evangelical church, through her ministers, examined with a determination to get the truth, and their efforts brought it out, and the church has the satisfaction of having rid itself of a wolf in sheep's clothing, of having done its duty, and christianity is all the better for it. If Smith had been a Beecher the principle would have been the same, and the result should have been just what it was.—Clinton Democrat.

MEETING OF THE FARMERS OF PINE GROVE DISTRICT.

At a meeting called by the farmers of Pine Grove district, on Thursday evening, Sept. 24th, 1874, the following persons were chosen as officers of the meeting: President, J. R. Read; Vice Presidents, Wm. A. Read, J. J. Read and David E. Bloom; Secretaries, W. T. Spackman and W. P. Tate.

The meeting was called to order by the President, after which John A. McBride, of Montgomery district, stated very ably the object of the meeting. He was followed by M. L. Gulich, Esq., who stated what had been done at the previous meetings of the township, and urging the farmers who were present at this meeting and of the entire community to unite with the people of the recent districts in adopting some system by which the farmer can be protected in his labor. Robert Porter was then called upon to give his views respecting the building of a market house, and responded, stating that if it was necessary in all regulated towns to have a market house, a market day, and a market price for the convenience of both the farmer and consumer, it is just as essential that the people of Clearfield have a market house. Addresses were then delivered by the following persons: Miles Read, W. P. Tate, W. P. Read, J. B. Shaw, J. R. Read, Morris Owens and J. J. Read.

There seemed to be an interest manifested by the farmers at this meeting equally as great, if not greater, than at any of the previous meetings held in the township, and every one present seemed to think that as the lumbering interests of the county were being dispersed with to a great extent that the people were turning their attention to farming, and that the one great thing needful for the convenience and protection of the farmer is a market house, a market day, and a correct market price for their produce.

The President then appointed W. P. Read, Miles Read and M. L. Gulich, a Committee to draft resolutions.

The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, as farmers of Pine Grove district, are strongly in favor of a market house being erected in the borough of Clearfield, for the convenience of the farmer and consumer; and that we ask the editors of the county papers, as well as the citizens of the borough, to publish through the columns of the papers, the condition of the market by, and in what manner can a building be erected, and by whom.

The Secretaries were then instructed to note a few of the leading farmers of the district; but to do justice to the meeting, we might say that the farmers of the entire community were present as well as farmers from other districts. The following is a list of some of the farmers present: Miles Read, Eole Porter, J. J. Read, W. P. Tate, J. R. Read, J. B. Shaw, James Mullen, David E. Bloom, Morris Owens and John A. McBride.

Adjourned to meet at Mt. Calm school house, on Saturday evening, Oct. 3d, where all the farmers who are interested in this movement are invited to attend.

W. T. Spackman, W. P. Tate, } Sec'ries.

In Session.—Court opened precisely at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Monday last, Judges Orvis, Foley and Read on the bench. The turnout was large, and a great amount of Commonwealth business seems to be on hand. Nearly every good man we meet is here trying to help "settle up" some miserable case of but local importance brought into court from his neighborhood. As there were no civil cases set down for this term the Commonwealth will of course monopolize the business and will give the District Attorney, Mr. Fielding, and the Grand Jury a busy time.

A Bell Wanted.—We have plenty of bells in town, but they are not where most needed just now. We have a splendid new school building, a full corps of teachers and two hundred and seventy-five children occupying the building, but no bell to call them to duty. A bell may be ornamental, but there is a good place to put one and we hope the Directors and citizens will score one at an early day.
