S.G.A. Keeps Active

By FRANK SAUL

Richard Bertolini, Harry Defina, and Glenn Schaeffer currently head Highacres S.G.A. as president, vice-president and treasurer respectively. They were elected during the S.G.A. election convention in May of 1961.

The S.G.A. for the 1961-1962 terms held its first formal meeting during the first week of classes. At that time members of the Executive Committee and subsidiary committees were appointed by the president.

Joanne Pretti, a first-term freshman, was appointed secretary; George Wanko was appointed chairman of the Social Activities Committee; Dick Adami was again appointed Commissioner of Fine Arts; Al Tencza was appointed Chairman of the Communications Commission; Sam O'Donnell was appointed Commissioner of Athletics.

Activities sponsored by the S.G.A. to date include the following: On September 22, the activities season opened with the well-attended Freshman Welcome Dance; on October 21, the S.G.A. sponsored a chartered bus excursion to University Park for those Hazleton Campus students interested in seeing the Penn State-Syracuse game; on October 27, the Beatnik Dance proved a tremendous success; and on November 3, the S.G.A. arranged a lecture by Representative Daniel Flood.

More recently, on November 10, S.G.A. presented two films, Ballet Theatre and All the King's Men.

The S.G.A., with the help of the O.S.G.A. has also been instrumental in organizing inter- and intra-campus athletics. A number of organized sports has proved successful in stimulating the much needed interest in student activities on campus. Football, with five teams and forty men, is a particularly successful example of such sports organization.

Operation Abolition Shown on Campus; Discussion Follows

By LOREN BITTNER

The controversial film, Operation Abolition was presented at Highacres Saturday, Nov. 11 at 8 p. m. The film, endorsed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, was brought here by the I.C.G. and was sponsored by Mr. John Bolton.

The guest speakers offered opposing views on the film, and on the work of the Committee. Mr. Bolton, who is the Personnel Director of Bundy Tubing, presented the case in defense of the Committee and its film. Prof. David Amidon, formerly an instructor at Hazleton Campus, and currently a graduate student at the University of Pittsburgh, presented the case against the film and the Committee.

The program in conjunction with the film consisted of a preliminary statement by each gentleman, during which each briefly stated his position. The film was then shown, and a question and answer period (Continued on Page 4, Column 1)

Worlds Affairs Club Begins Activities; Foreign Guests Talk

Armand Batista, student from El Salvador, Nora Zahave, student from Israel, and Arne Bruckhause, student from Germany participated in a panel discussion at the World Affairs Club meeting in the Main Building on Nov. 28.

The World Affairs Club is a new addition to the clubs at Highacres. Its first meeting, held on November 7, was a background discussion of the film Operation Abolition before it was shown on campus. The second meeting, held on November 14, was a discussion of opinions formed concerning the film.

In the second meeting, the extreme views on the movie were found by the majority to be lacking in objectivity. It was decided that there is need for more facts to be viewed from a less emotional point of view, and that there was a need also for education, rather than indoctrination.

The aims of the World Affairs Club are threefold: (1) to better inform our students on the prob-

Christmas Fete Opens Holidays

Social activities at the Highacres campus will bracket the vacation period with two dances, the first of which will begin tonight at 9 in the Student Union Building.

A Christmas affair, this evening's dance will feature live band music by the Rhythm Ramblers. Unlike the practice in former years, the rule restricting attendance solely to couples will no longer be in force. The dance will be an informal one.

Concluding the student social activities program for 1961 will be a "Highacres Ski Lodge" dance scheduled for December 30, also to be held at the Union Building. Further details have not yet been announced. Decorations are in charge of Bill Petruska.

Heading up the decorations committee for the Christmas dance tonight is Jill Faux, while Lee Zeisloft serves as chairman of the refreshment committee for the affair.

Las Vegas Night Recent Affair

By JUNE FIEL

The bandit milk machine in the Highacres cafeteria was joined by its chance-taking counterparts on the evening of November 24 when the Student Activities Association presented Las Vegas Night for the enjoyment of the faculty, students, and friends.

From 8 to 12 p. m. the S.U.B. was transformed into a nightclub to rival any west of the Mississippi. The dealers at each table were assisted by young lovelies dressed in appropriate attire, and a spectacular floor show was presented.

Tickets were exchanged for sums of play money ($2,500). Any money remaining after one left the tables could be used for chances on various door prizes which were on display.
