Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

The Lewistown Sentinel man was "werry phunny" last week.

The Clearfield Fire Clay Company are now manufacturing sewer pipe, said to be of superior quality and finish.

We learn that Mr. James Ardery, of Lawrence township, had his best cow killed by lightning, on Saturday last.

School Directors' Day.—The first Monday of June is the day fixed by law for the meeting and organization of the School Boards throughout the State.

The Destitute.—The number of rations issued daily by the Osceola Relief Committee averages about 1,150, the lowest being 1,100 and the highest 1,193.

We learn from the Altoona Sun that Mr. John O'Neil, of that city, who was quite severely injured at Sandy Ridge, a few weeks ago, is now able to be about again.

Bridge Certificates.—Persons desiring certificates to cross the Lower Bridge can be accommodated by calling on Wm. M. Shaw, at the County National Bank.

Messrs. Bigler, Young & Reed, of this place, have in course of construction an extensive addition to their Machine Shops, for the purpose of manufacturing large iron boilers.

Rev. H. S. Butler, who has been absent from his congregation for some weeks past, has returned home, apparently much improved in health, and occupied his pulpit last Sabbath.

Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Butler will be assisted on this occasion by Rev. O. O. McClain, D. D., of Lewistown. Dr. McClain is expected to preach on Friday evening next.

The first quarterly meeting of the present Conference year is announced to take place in the M. E. Church, in this place, next Sabbath. Preparatory services will commence on Thursday evening.

One Happy Man.—An exchange remarks: "The veteran Colonel Noyes, of Westport, is said to own seventeen of the finest cows in Clinton county. It is not stated whether he is a Granger or not, but it is clear that he is happy."

Convicted.—George W. Spencer, who was tried at Brookville week before last, for the murder of Ignatius Bruner, at Reynoldsville, was found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for five years and four months.

The Water Level.—Sandy creek, at the mouth of Fall's creek, in Jefferson county, is 1,364 feet above sea level, at Reynoldsville it is 1,326, and the Mahoning creek, at Punxsutawney, is 1,193 feet above sea level. So says the Reynoldsville Herald.

Progress.—We learn that Kylertown, "away out in the woods" a short time ago, is now blessed with a daily mail, being supplied from the railroad at Morrisdale Mines. This is certainly a great convenience to the people of Morris township.

Look Out!—We notice by our exchanges that the horse-thieves are at their annual Summer vocation—stealing horses all over the country. Keep a look out for these rogues, and if you happen to catch one astraddle of your horse cripple him—the rider, we mean.

Quarterly Meetings.—Rev. J. R. Lyon, Presiding Elder of the Clarion District, Erie M. E. Conference, gives notice that the fourth and last round of quarterly meetings will be held at Luthersburg, on the 17th and 18th of July, and at Reynoldsville, on the 31st of July and 1st day of August.

A Contribution.—We notice among the contributors to the Osceola sufferers, the name of Hon. Daniel Kane, of Uniontown, Fayette county. Mr. Kane stands at the head of the legal profession in southwestern Pennsylvania, and is among the few who have served the public with ability and integrity and to-day enjoys the confidence of his constituents.

Special Train.—In addition to the regular trains, Superintendent Blair has agreed to run a special train from Clearfield to Curwensville, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, for the purpose of enabling persons to attend the Sunday School Convention at the latter place. The train will leave the depot at about 6 o'clock, a. m., and if fifty passengers can be obtained between Clearfield and Woodland, the special will start from the latter place.

Rev. R. Crittenden, Missionary of the American Sunday School Union, writes to the Superintendents of the Sunday Schools in Osceola and vicinity, as follows: "Please inform me how many Sabbath Schools in your village and vicinity have lost their places of meeting and libraries by the recent fire; about how many expect soon to be in session again, and whether any need and desire aid in replenishing their libraries. I wish to make an appeal in their behalf to our Society and its friends in Philadelphia."

Rather Severe.—The new license law, now in force, provides that a husband, wife, parent, child, guardian, or employer, of any drunkard, may notify any person, in writing, not to sell such drunkard intoxicating drinks; if such notice is not complied with the person giving the notice may recover from the one selling, damages not less than $50 nor more than $500, as may be assessed by the Court or judge; a married woman may sue for such damages for her own separate use; if either party should die the action may continue without limit as to damages.

The Registry Lists.—The County Commissioners have had the Registry Lists for 1875 transcribed, and last week forwarded them to the several Assessors throughout the county. It is the duty of the officer in question, to take up the list on the first Monday in June and correct it by striking off the names of all non-residents, those who have died or removed from the borough or township during the past year, and add the names of those who have moved thereto or were omitted at the last assessment, and make return at as early a day as possible, but not later than the 1st day of July.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE OSCEOLA RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Philipsburg, May 22, 1875.

First meeting of the Osceola Relief Committee was held at the office of Chester Munson, Esq., Philipsburg.

Present, L. G. Lingle, T. R. Blandy, W. A. Crist, Geo. M. Brisbin of Osceola.
A. W. Lee, E. A. Bigler of Clearfield.
Chester Munson, O. P. Jones of Philipsburg.
P. Gray Meek, J. W. Furey, A. Sternburg of Bellefonte.

On motion Mr. L. G. Lingle was made President, Geo. M. Brisbin, Secretary, W. A. Crist, Treasurer.

The following members appointed were not present: Curwensville—Zachariah McNaul, J. P. Irvin. Tyrone—D. D. Wood, D. T. Caldwell, A. B. Hoover. Huntingdon—Wm. Cunningham, H. G. Fisher. Bellefonte—Gov. A. G. Curtin.

On motion a committee consisting of L. G. Lingle, E. A. Bigler and J. W. Furey, were appointed to prepare a circular setting forth the object of the meeting and notifying the public of the necessity of immediate relief for the sufferers by the great Conflagration on the 20th inst. at Osceola.

The committee retired, and upon returning, reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

CIRCULAR TO THE PUBLIC.

Fellow Citizens.—The fire fiend has been once more abroad in the land, and a whole community are mourning over their desolate hearthstones.

A terrible conflagration has swept over the prosperous and happy town of Osceola, Clearfield County, Pa.

Between twelve and fifteen hundred people have been made houseless and homeless by this great calamity, one-half of whom are entirely destitute, not only of food, but of the commonest clothing, likewise.

These people must be assisted, and helped to re-establish their former homes and re-build their ruined town.

The object of this circular is to direct the attention of all charitably disposed persons and communities, to the great necessity of prompt and immediate measures for the relief of the sufferers.

Six hundred people, deprived of everything they possessed, and destitute of all means of subsistence, appeal with hopeful hearts, to the sympathies of their fellow-citizens of other places, and ask them for food, clothing and money. Shall not this appeal meet with a generous and a cheerful response? Let the people answer as one man, and let supplies pour into these deserving and unfortunate citizens.

All moneys should be sent to the Philipsburg Banking Company, at Philipsburg, and all other supplies to the Osceola Relief Board at Osceola.

"The Lord Loveth a Cheerful Giver."

J. W. Furey,
L. G. Lingle, } Com.
E. A. Bigler.

On motion the Committee's reported circular was adopted and the Committee discharged.

George M. Brisbin reported having received a contribution of seven dollars from the citizens of Bigler.

The committee then adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

Geo. M. Brisbin, Sec.

Osceola Mills, Pa., May 27, 1875.

Pursuant to a call of the President, the committee met for the second time. Place of meeting, Methodist Church, Osceola.

Present—D. D. Wood, D. T. Caldwell, Tyrone, Pa.; Zachariah McNaul, Curwensville, Pa.; O. P. Jones, Chester Munson, Geo. H. Zeigler, Philipsburg, Pa.; L. G. Lingle, T. R. Blandy, J. P. Hale, Geo. M. Brisbin, Osceola, Pa.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The President, L. G. Lingle, then stated that his object in calling the meeting, was to advise with it as to the manner of further distribution of supplies and donations, and the course to be pursued in rebuilding the town.

On motion of D. T. Caldwell, it was

Resolved, That a Committee of five, the majority of which shall be mechanics, be appointed to direct the construction of the houses of those who are going to re-build through the funds at the disposal of the Relief Committee, and said Committee shall have charge of this portion of the Relief Committee's duty, and report from time to time to said Relief Committee, and receive instructions from same.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Rev. W. H. Dill, and adopted:

Whereas, There might be some misunderstanding in regard to the distributions of all kinds, made for the relief of the sufferers by the disastrous fire of May 20, 1875, be it hereby

Resolved, That, as the sense of this Committee, this distribution be made among the citizens of Osceola, and the region of country surrounding, who have incurred losses.

On motion of E. A. Bigler, the following preamble and resolution was adopted:

Whereas, It is necessary for the accommodation of the traveling public, that some place for supplying them with meals should be furnished, be it

The Committee here adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

A Household Treasure.—We welcome with undisguised pleasure, the advent of the first number of a new illustrated serial publication, entitled "A Century After; or, Picturesque Glimpses of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania," which is published by Allen, Lane & Scott and J. W. Lauderbach, No. 233 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia.

"This imperial work," as we learn from the prospectus, "now being issued, after years of careful preparatory effort, will consist of abundant and magnificent views, completely illustrating Philadelphia and its surroundings, and the finest scenery and most interesting cities and towns of Pennsylvania, with copious and entertaining descriptive letter-press. The enormous advance made, during a century of self-government, in civilization, the arts and sciences, will be illustrated in the case of a selected metropolis. No city in the whole world has ever been celebrated in a work so magnificent as this will be."

"These be brave words," and if the glorious promise of the first number be maintained in those which are yet to come, the publishers will have proven their claim to the favor and thanks of the public; for he who produces a really good book is a public benefactor.

As an earnest and conscientious effort to attain the highest standard of excellence, not alone in the department of art and literature, but in the presentation of a book which, in typographic beauty, is a credit to the city from which it emanates, "A Century After" may fairly rank with the finest illustrated publications of the day.

The complete volume, we understand, is intended to contain about two hundred and fifty superior wood engravings, which will be produced with the greatest care and without limitation of the expense necessary to make them perfect specimens of their kind.

It is a commendable feature, in connection with this work, that the publishers have thoughtfully limited the numbers to be issued, so as to place the book within reach of all.

It will be completed in fifteen semi-monthly parts, at fifty cents each, and is for sale only by subscription.

A New and Important Book.—The Political, Personal, and Property Rights of a Citizen of the United States—How to exercise and how to preserve them: by Theophilus Parsons, LL. D. Jones Brothers & Co., publishers, Philadelphia, Pa.

This work is the most important which has ever been issued from the pen of this distinguished author, both because it contains the result of his life long labor and study, and because it is written for the great mass of American citizens, giving clear, plain and authoritative information with regard to those rights and duties upon which their success and prosperity depend.

The work embraces a popular commentary on the Constitution of the United States, section by section, explaining its principles, purposes, and the rights and powers it confers, and also a full and complete compendium of the laws and rules which pertain to the management of property and the transaction of all kinds of business. The book is a marvel of completeness, and of its accuracy the name of the author is the best possible guaranty. His language is simple throughout, and the subjects treated are brought within the easy comprehension of those unlearned in the law.

We cannot too highly commend this volume to our readers. It is a book of which every intelligent man will feel the need as soon as he has examined it. The amount of blundering and litigation that would be avoided by a general knowledge of its contents cannot well be overestimated. It should be in the hands of every man who has any desire to understand his rights, or any care to conduct his business safely and without expensive legal helps. It will undoubtedly meet with a very large sale.

It will be sold only by subscription, and any one desiring an agency should apply to the publishers. Read the advertisement in another column in this issue.

Entertainment.—The Leonard Literary Association will favor the citizens of this place with an entertainment, on Tuesday evening next, June 8th, in Pie's Opera House, consisting of Dramas, Tableaux, Music, etc., assisted by the Clearfield Orchestra. The performers have been busily rehearsing their various parts for some time, and a first-class amateur exhibition may be anticipated. The proceeds are to be applied to purchasing a library for the use of the Association. The object is a good one and should receive the countenance and support of all. Tickets for sale at the Postoffice. Doors open at 7 o'clock, p. m.; performance commences at 8.

The Low Grade Railroad.—The Reynoldsville Herald, in alluding to the new train put on the Low Grade Division of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, says:

"The Company has placed a new train on the road styled the 'Reynoldsville Accommodation,' which is a little the best feature in railroad travel we have ever had. By this train persons visiting Pittsburgh can leave here at five o'clock in the morning, arriving at Pittsburgh without change of cars at eleven o'clock and twenty-five minutes, have a stay of four hours and fifteen minutes in the business portion of the day, leave Pittsburgh at three o'clock and forty minutes in the afternoon and arrive in Reynoldsville at ten o'clock and thirty-five minutes. Thus making the trip to Pittsburgh and back on a train with first-class accommodations without change of cars in one day. The train is composed of two elegant coaches and a smoking car, and its speed is greater than that of the mail trains. Messrs. Joseph Winch and John Blair are the conductors, who go on duty alternately, and more genteel, affable officers we never met. We hope this train will receive encouragement enough to suffice the company to keep it on the road. Every one should patronize it."

A Centennial Apple Tree.—On the farm of Mr. Samuel Sedam, in Washington township, stands a venerable apple tree, which tradition says was planted about the close of the Revolutionary war by one of the early pioneers. It is a tree of thrifty and vigorous growth, the trunk measuring twelve feet in circumference, and it bears a good crop of apples nearly every year. Mr. Sedam reports that it keeps growing right along, having gained eight inches in size, by actual measurement, during the past four years. Several years ago twelve barrels of cider were manufactured from the fruit produced in one year. As this is the accepted time for hunting up centennial relics, Lycoming county is determined not to be outdone, and modestly steps to the front with a thrifty apple tree which has withstood the storms and tempests of a century. It is to be regretted that it cannot be exhibited at the great exposition next year. The fruit, however, may be placed in the proper department and appropriately labeled.—Williamsport Bulletin.

We are the fruit of that tree forty years ago, but it was much less in body and yields far more cider now than at that time.

A Strange Incident.—A reporter of the New York Sun relates the following:

About seven years ago a party of hunters from Allegheny City, Pa., went to Erie to hunt ducks on Presque Isle peninsula. One of the party, Mr. Chas. L. Hutchinson, lost a valuable gold watch and chain among the numerous little ponds that intersect the peninsula. Long and diligent search was made, and no trace of the watch being found, the search was given up as a hopeless one. Mr. Hutchinson went back to Allegheny City, but could not forget his loss, the watch being a gift from a deceased friend. Seven years have passed since then. Last week, while in Erie on a visit, he felt a strong inclination to renew the search, and alone he again went over the ground formerly traversed by him. While sitting down among the bushes to empty his boots of the sand that had just got into them, he chanced to cast his eyes upward, when to his intense surprise and joy he saw the watch and chain hanging to the limbs of a small sapling, just as they had hung there seven years before, when the young twig—now grown quite large—had jerked them from his pocket! The wood of the sapling had grown over and about the chain, holding it firm. "Mr. Hutchinson cut off the branch within which the chain was embedded. The watch has been cleaned and repaired, and is now keeping as good time as in former years.

LETTER FROM BECCARIA.

Glen Hope, May 21st, 1875.

Mr. Editor:—Aware of the interest you take in educational pursuits, I would hereby inform you that sequestered Glen Hope is not altogether behind the times, for on last Tuesday evening a "Spelling Bee" came off in the school house. The idea was suggested and carried into execution by two or three of our young men, who, I believe, have made arrangements to keep it in operation for several weeks longer.

The exercises of the first evening were instructive and pleasing to all present. All went home much more elated than they would have been, had they, as usual, spent the evening in lounging upon "the corner," commenting upon the hard times, the dark future, &c. An interest in orthography has now been awakened, and if they attend, we augur at least one pleasant evening each week for the people of Glen Hope and vicinity. The judges, Dr. G. W. Colwell and G. W. Rex, as well as the pronouncer, Mr. H. A. Wright, performed their duties in a very satisfactory manner.

Hoping to be able to send you a more extended account of these proceedings, I remain yours, Rusticus.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Susquehanna District Sunday School Convention will hold its next session at Gettysburg, Indiana county, Pa., June 10th, 1875, commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m. Afternoon session at 1:30; Children's jubilee at 7:30, p. m.

The leading topics for discussion will be:
1st. The educational facilities and power of the Sunday School.
2d. Influence of the Sunday School on the community.
3d. The claims of the Sunday School on the community.
4th. The church's responsibility in connection with the maintenance of the Sunday School and what is taught therein.

Additional topics and questions will be presented through the Drawer.

Everybody cordially invited. Let there be a general gathering of workers and friends of the Sabbath School cause.

Pastors and Superintendents do not fail, if possible to come! Respectfully,

S. F. Crowther, Pres't.

Grant, Pa., May 27th, 1875.

The Truth.—Some malicious blockhead furnished the daily papers last week with a dispatch to the effect that the editor of the Watchman had contributed $500 to the Osceola Relief Fund. We notice that Mr. Meek corrects the statement in this way:

An Error.—In a late issue of the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin, there appeared an editorial notice highly complimenting the editor of the Watchman for his liberality to the Osceola sufferers, and stating that he gave five hundred dollars toward their relief. He does not desire to receive credit for what he had not done or is unable to do, and would therefore take this opportunity to correct the erroneous impression of the editors of the Gazette and Bulletin, and to relieve the Osceola Relief Board of the necessity of accounting for money which it did not receive.—Bellefonte Watchman.

The Naval Cadetship.—It give us pleasure to chronicle the fact that Congressman Mackey has appointed Master William T. Humphrey, son of our esteemed friend, Abram Humphrey, of Lawrence township, to the Naval School, Annapolis, Md. Will, as we learn, was not ahead in all the branches in which the boys were examined, but he presented the best mental and physical average, and for that reason carried off the prize in the midst of vigorous competition. He will leave for the front about the 12th of June. Will., behave yourself. Mind there is a Commodore's commission ahead, and the best man will carry off that prize, too.

Saw Mill Burned.—The saw mill belonging to the John Irvin estate, situate on the west bank of the river, at Curwensville dam, was destroyed by fire on Thursday morning. But little lumber was up the ground, and, therefore, but little damage was done except the loss of the mill, which was fully insured. Had there been any wind at the time, great damage would have been done. It is suspected that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

Court Week.—We are in the midst of a week of Common Pleas Court, with Judges Orvis, Read and Foley on the bench. Time was called at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, but too many jurors and witnesses being still absent to do any business, an adjournment was ordered until 2 o'clock, p. m. The attendance is but slim in comparison with Quarter Session week, and the contrast in the conduct and personnel of the attendants is still greater.

Ross & Co's Plan.—It will be observed by their advertisement, in this issue, that Messrs. T. L. Ross & Co., of Curwensville, have just received a full supply of boots and shoes, which they propose to close out at a discount of 20 per cent. less than old prices. Call and inquire how they do this thing. Low know, and he will tell you for nothing.
