THE TRIAL ENDED.

The past week has been rather an exciting one in this vicinity. The trial of the striking miners was commenced in our Court, on Wednesday last and continued until Saturday evening, when Court adjourned until Monday morning, at eight o'clock, at which time the trial was resumed and continued until about three o'clock in the afternoon. The jury retired to their room, and in about three hours afterwards returned with a verdict of guilty in the manner and form as the Defendants (thirty odd persons) stood indicted. The charge of Judge Orvis was exhaustive and complete, covering the whole ground and sifting all the law bearing upon the case.

We have made arrangements to publish the charge in full, as soon as the short hand reporter can find time to write out his notes. The charge furnishes all the information necessary for the government of operators, agents and miners, and if observed will richly repay all.

The Court yesterday afternoon sentenced Ralph Park, John J. Maloney, Thomas Burchinell, John Joyce, George McGowan* and Matthew Moyer* to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $25 each, and undergo solitary confinement in the Western Penitentiary for one year.

John Eckert, Peter Malee, Theddeus Libertine, Thomas Reese, Thomas Kelly, Edward McDonnott,* John Barry,* Emanuel Eckert, Robert Campbell, Hugh Glendenning, Julius Vieheum, were sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $25.00, and sixty days in the county prison.

Sentence was suspended in the following cases: Patrick Malee, Peter McDermott, Wm. Dougherty, John Miller, Owen Lewis, Peter Hopkins, Joseph Shannon, John Argyle, A. Hall, V. Stonebreaker, Patrick Conner, Wm. McHenry, James Sabino.*

Xingo Park was in Court when sentence was passed, and sank down in his chair and wept like a child.

NOTE.—Those marked with a * were absent for some cause or other when called up for sentence. Bench warrants were awarded in each case.

Licenses if not lifted within fifteen days from the time they are granted, will be forfeited. Mind that!

Up to Friday last, the Philipsburg Banking Company acknowledges receipts for the Osceola sufferers to the amount of $6,424.67.

A little daughter of Harrison Pierce, of Gaskill township, Jefferson county, was burned to death on the 2d inst., her clothing having caught fire from the stove.

Rev. A. J. Hartsock, formerly of this place, but now residing at Boalsburg, Center county, made a short visit to this section on Tuesday.

IN FLOCKS.—The editor of the Punxsutawney Spirit states that he saw, from his office door, eleven candidates at one time on the streets of that town, one day last week.

Lytle has received at his grocery, in the Opera House, a new lot of Teas, and he thinks that he can please all tea-drinkers, both in quality and price.

ESTRAY COW.—A red cow estrayed from the premises of ex-Sheriff Miller, on Sunday a week. Any one furnishing information as to the whereabouts of the animal will be liberally rewarded.

THE MINSTRELS.—Simmons and Slocum's minstrels played here on Saturday evening to a full house. The performance was first-class and fully sustained the reputation of the troupe.

FISH.—James H. Lytle has just received a choice lot of Mackerel at his grocery and provision store in the Opera House, and can sell them lower than they were ever sold before. Call, see and price them.

PAMPHLET LAWS.—Prothonotary Bloom informs us that the Pamphlet Laws for 1875 have been received at his office. Justices of the Peace, and others entitled to them, will please call for them when in town.

ANOTHER LAWYER.—S. R. Peale, Esq., of Lock Haven, was admitted to practice at the bar of our Court last week. Mr. Peale is a leading member of the Clinton County Bar, and a gentleman of rare social qualities.

LOST!—A gold chain band bracelet, with sliding clasp, was lost on Market or Third Street, between the Allegheny Hotel and the passenger depot. The finder will be liberally rewarded for leaving it with George Leipoldt, proprietor of the Allegheny Hotel.

FINGER AMPUTATED.—On Saturday last, Benjamin Swartz, a young man employed in the Machine Shops of Bigler, Young & Reed, in this place, had the second finger of his right hand caught in the cogs of a wheel, and mangled in such a manner as to necessitate amputation.

The Tyrone Herald appeared last week much improved in appearance. The patent outside has been abandoned, which gives the paper a more handsome and enterprising look. We always admire enterprise in the right direction, and this the proprietors have shown in this instance.

IN TOWN.—Hon. George A. Jenks, of Brookville, Congressman elect in the Indiana district, is in attendance at our Court this week. Mr. Jenks is an able lawyer and a Democrat of the first water. His victory over Gen. Harry White last fall indicates the kind of a man he is, more fully than we can do.

RETURNING MISSIONARY.—The Huntingdon Monitor remarks: "We are sorry to learn that Rev. J. D. Brown, formerly a resident of our county, but for a number of years past a missionary in India, is in a very bad state of health. We learn that it is his intention to return to his native home, as soon as the condition of his health will permit."

A QUEER JOHN.—The editor of the Altoona Sun says:

"John Dougherty, who advertised in the Olive Branch, published in Ebensburg in 1819, as 'Taylor & Habit-Maker,' still follows the same occupation in the same town."

In our judgment, John has endowed some of the citizens of that mountain with very queer "habits," if he is the real author of that commodity up there.

WILLIAM F. AHEAD!—The Cambria Freeman says: "Mr. Wm. F. Johnston, of the firm of Finney & Johnston, the gentlemen who recently leased the well known Mellon mill, in Carroll township, tells us that he drove 29,000,000 feet of pine and hemlock timber from the mouth of Clear creek to the mouth of Clearfield creek, a distance of forty miles, on splash floods alone—a feat that has, perhaps, never before been accomplished in the history of log driving.

WE ARE DOWN ON SUCH STUFF.—The Philipsburg Journal, two weeks ago, published a "Horrible Outrage," and we notice that quite a number of our exchanges copied the article last week. Now, if the editors of the journals indulged such stuff in their parlors in the presence of their wives and children, all right. We shall not file any objections to such literature if confined to the parlors aforesaid, but we do protest against the general circulation of such stuff, either by the Police Gazette or any other journal.

THE TERRIBLE GRASSHOPPER.

S. A. Fulton, Esq., formerly of this county, but now a resident of Falls City, Nebraska, in a letter, dated May 26th, to the Hollidaysburg Standard, detailing the destructive character of the grasshopper, says:

"They are devastating 200 to 300 miles square of territory in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and southwestern Iowa. A field of wheat of one hundred acres or more will be green in the morning and knee-high—at night it will be bare as a well worn road. The corn has been taken, and a small detachment sit by every hill and eat the young shoots, fast as they push out of the ground. A week ago last Sunday I had as fine a looking garden as I could want. That day they came and left me nothing. Young trees and older ones are as bare as in winter, although they were nicely in leaf when the "hoppers" came. A fine blue grass lawn, around and in front of my house, is now as though a fire had been over it—nothing left but the old stubble. Eight days ago it was a foot high, when I had let it go to seed, and all out in head. I was so raving of it that I would not allow my ponies to eat it, yet the "varmints" took it all, and before I had time to pasture it after discovering their presence. How much corn would it take to sow an acre if you were to cover the ground all over? When you make the computation you will know about how many locusts there are on an acre, for one of them now has about the superficial measurement of a large corn grain. A swarm of bees is the only thing I could suggest as a comparison, by which to illustrate their appearance when they are huddled together for the night. When they have eaten our field or garden they hunt another, and can hop at least a mile a day. They all move in one direction, when they go, and if you stand and watch them closely the effect is similar to that of standing by a stream of water and watching it move by. Some persons get dizzy by watching them move in this way. They usually hop, and can "get on" from eight inches to two feet at once, according to their size and age; but they walk or crawl some times, and they go in this way for some distance after passing an obstruction when one does, all do; and when moving in this manner as they did across my door yard for two whole days, the appearance of the ground is as though it was covered with a brown carpet, which was very slowly drawn in the direction they are going.

"It may seem singular that, at present, the general wish and prayer of our people are for the good health, rapid growth, and general prosperity of the little "hopper;" but it is so, for in their speedy acquisition of full grown wings lies the only hope we have of saving anything. Whenever they can all fly they will leave us, and if they go soon a corn crop can yet be raised on second planting. The wheat fields are being prepared for corn, our farmers are all working hard in the face of great discouragement and disappointment. There never was so much wheat sown here as this year, nor did it ever promise a better yield, but for the pest that has devoured it."

COURAGE IN OFFICIALS.—This is the way the editor of the Germantown Telegraph puts it when alluding to the strikers in the coal regions. He says:

"The Sheriff of Clearfield county—we wish we had his name—has very clearly demonstrated the fact that all that was needed to suppress outlawry of the striking miners was a little courage and a proper exercise of the large powers with which he is invested. He at once placed himself in the front, arrested the violators of the law, imprisoned them for trial, and restored order. The Sheriffs of the three or four other counties, where similar crime and outrage prevailed, could have effected the same result had they possessed a grain of courage and understood and performed their plain duty. Let the name of the Sheriff of Clearfield county be produced and paraded around."

The editor of the Williamsport Sun says:

"W. Ross McPherson is the name of the brave and patriotic Sheriff of Clearfield county, we are happy to inform Major Frease, of the Telegraph. Sheriff McPherson, we are happy to say, is a very round Democrat, and the youngest Sheriff in Pennsylvania. We have now produced his name, and second the motion of our cotemporary, that it be put upon record and 'passed around.'"

We could select a few more extracts of the same tone, but we will defer and see whether those volunteer critics at a distance, who seemed to know all about the strike and the duties of the Sheriff, will condescend to notice them.

CERTAINLY A QUORUM.—Our Radical neighbors over in Indiana county have made their nominations for county officers. The rank and file had a goodly number to select from. Sixteen men, "true and loyal to the core," offered to sacrifice themselves for Sheriff, and seventeen desired to serve their country in the capacity of County Commissioner.

The ticket is as follows: Sheriff—William C. Brown, of North Mahoning township; Prothonotary—Albert Colyle, Esq., of Indiana; Commissioners—Fred. Cameron, of Cherrytree, and Fred. Butterbaugh, of Montgomery township; Treasurer—John Ebey, of Rayne township; Auditors—J. H. Diven, of Young township, and John G. Robinson, of Smicksburg.

The Vote polled for Sheriff was 4,628; yet the nominee had but 669. Three of the candidates had nearly the same number of votes. The White and Smith factions are pretty evenly divided. The nominee for Sheriff is a White man, and had only 28 of a majority over the Smith candidate. However, the two factions polled less than one third of the votes cast.

WE ARE NOT ONE OF THEM.—Numerous complaints have recently been made to us by citizens of this borough, in relation to broken and unrepaired pavements. That is right. We can endure as much annoyance on that topic as any other citizen, but we will just here inform "all whom it may concern" that we are not one of the "Borough Fathers," nor a physician, and therefore have no control over broken or damaged limbs, or unrepaired pavements. That business belongs exclusively to the doctors and the Chief Burgess—Israel Test, Esq.—and the members of the Town Council, whom we will take great pleasure in naming to those who feel aggrieved by skinned shins, lacerated corns and sprained backs, caused by the bad condition of the pavements in some localities. Now, let the complainants just make a memorandum of the "bad places" in the pavements, and give the names of the lot owners to the proper authorities, and we think the proper remedy will be applied. If not, let us know about it.

GENUINE ART ENTERTAINMENT.—In Pie's Opera House, commencing on Thursday evening and continuing for four nights, will be exhibited Tremaine's "Grand Tour from New York to Jerusalem," represented by colored sun pictures. This is no catch-penny show, but a genuine art entertainment. It is a tour of the world condensed—a grand world's exhibition of the sublime of nature, wonderful in architecture, memorable in history and beautiful in art. The exhibition is so extensive as to require four nights in its representation. It comes to us well recommended by the press of the cities and towns where it has been, and we bespeak for it large and appreciative audiences during its stay in our midst. Admission twenty-five cents to all parts of the house.

A SUBSTANTIAL FREEZE.—The frost on Sunday night, the 13th inst., proved nearly as damaging to this section as the timber blight, and more disastrous even than the Jay Cooke suspension, but the effects may not be felt so long after. Clearfield county, in addition to having a due share of the Jay Cooke blessing bestowed upon her, has inherited a serious coal strike, no sale for her timber, and a blighting frost. This is no ordinary load to carry, but another year of economy, contraction and sacrifices, must result in much good, and will demonstrate to our neighbors that our resources are inexhaustible and our mineral deposits will draw millions of capital, if properly guaranteed and protected, and in ten years make us one of the wealthiest counties in the Commonwealth.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT LUMBERMAN.—Florence M. Bingham, an old and active lumberman, died suddenly at his home, 636 North 11th Street, on Thursday night, the 10th inst., aged about 60 years. Mr. Bingham had been connected with the Susquehanna lumber trade ever since he was 16 years of age, and was well and favorably known to all dealers in this section. The news of his death will be sad intelligence to many of our readers, some of whom had implicit confidence in his integrity and judgment in timber affairs. It is reported that his estate is worth not less than one million dollars. He leaves a wife, but no children.

SCHOOLS CLOSED.—The term of our public schools closed on Friday last. Quite a pleasant time was participated in by teachers, scholars and visitors in the afternoon of that day, addresses being delivered by several gentlemen, declamations and essays by the scholars, and other exercises by members of the school. The rooms were decorated with evergreens and presented a fine appearance. From the appearance of the eyes of the scholars as they left the school house in the evening, considerable feeling must have been infused into the closing exercises.

NUMBER THREE.—This is the third week of our Court, and we hope the last one for a good while. For the first time in the history of our county, four Judges appeared on the bench, President Judge Mayer, Assistant Law Judge Orvis, and Associate Reed and Foley ornamented the platform of justice, presenting a rather formidable array of judicial talent for a backwoods capital. Without taking their personal appearance into account, we would not exchange our bench for any one in the State.

REPORT OF LEONARD GRADED SCHOOL.

GRAMMAR AND HIGH DEPARTMENT.

I desire, in closing these reports of Grammar and High School, to give a few statistics taken from the report books.

Whole No. of admissions to High School,.... 12
" " " Grammar " ,.... 123
Total,..... 135

Term percentage of High School, 95; of Grammar School, 82.

No. of pupils who missed no days during term: B class, J. F. Snyder; 2C class, George Orris; D class, Sophie Whitehill and Charles Johnson. Charles Bickel missed half a day. Sophie Whitehill and George Orris were never tardy.

I herewith append the report of the general standing of several members of the B class: J. F. Snyder, 99.86; Clara E. McGeorge, 99.71; William Hagerty, 97.1; Ada Alo, 96.38; Blanch Flegal, 96.

By accident, I have become dispossessed of the best averages of the other classes, consequently am unable to report this time. If the reports are preserved they can be registered and published at the opening of next term.

At the hands of Mr. McKenrick, I received the following:

No. of pupils enrolled—Miss Jamison..... 124
" " " Mr. Reed..... 114
" " " Mr. McKenrick..... 109
Total..... 347

To this add the number enrolled up stairs, and we have a grand total of 482.

The term closed on Friday afternoon, June 11, with a few improvised literary exercises, which, in the end, proved to be interesting and amusing to the many kind friends whose presence graced the "Study Hall." After the dismissal of the visitors, the reports of the month were given out, and our farewells said.

Before closing, I again embrace the opportunity of gratefully acknowledging the invaluable assistance rendered me by Mr. Schaeffer and Miss Swan in securing a satisfactory gradation at the outstart, and preserving the good order of the school throughout. It is with pleasure that I make this acknowledgment. I also thank the friends of the school for their support and encouragement.

G. W. FORYEY.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.

The following is the average in Scholarship and Deportment for the "A" and "B" grade of the Primary Department for the entire term. All pupils whose average in Scholarship, Deportment and general standing for the term exceeds 80 per cent. will have their names placed upon the "Roll of Honor:"

"C" and "D" grade, Mr. A. R. Read's Department, not reported to me, will appear next week.

The above report shows the average for the entire term, and we hope will prove satisfactory to parents and pupils. Owing to the fact that the "A" and "B" Department will not close until Friday, the 18th inst., a full report cannot be given at this time. Next week we will publish a recapitulation of the work of the entire Department for the term.

On Wednesday next, the 16th, we have set apart for literary exercises, and cordially invite all parents and persons interested to meet with us and assist in making our closing exercises as interesting as possible. Respectfully,

J. F. MCKENRICK,
Principal Primary Depart.

CONTEMPTIBLE.—This is the way some newspaper men improve on the truth:

"The Clearfield County Court had granted eighteen licenses for the borough of Houtzdale up to Wednesday. There are said to be thirty-eight applicants, which is pretty good for a town of that size."—Philipsburg Journal.

The facts are that eleven persons were licensed, and only eleven had applied. The latter fact the writer could have learned had he but turned his attention for a moment to the columns of the REPUBLICAN, or Journal of this place.

"Collins, the man who struck Saulsbury with a mining drill, and afterwards beat Moffat with a club, was arrested on board the northward bound train, Monday morning, by officer Funk. Collins claimed that he was then on his way to Clearfield to appear before the Court in the former case and his lawyers tried to persuade Funk that he had no right to make the arrest for the second offense, under the circumstances. But he thought he knew his duty better, and delivered him over to the Court, which told him that he had only performed his duty."—Philipsburg Journal.

Was it "Tom. Collins," officer Funk? What queer lawyers there are in the world, anyhow!

THE ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment given by the members of the Leonard Literary Association, in Pie's Opera House, on Tuesday night of last week, was a very creditable affair, giving general satisfaction to everybody. The performers were all well up in their parts, and, though amateurs, rendered their different characters with the precision and stage grace of professionals. The net proceeds were in the neighborhood of $45, which are to be applied to the purchasing of a library for the use of the Association.

Mr. J. W. Carner and wife and Mr. E. J. Field, of New York, assisted by members of the Philipsburg Dramatic Company, recently gave a theatrical entertainment in Philisburg, for the benefit of the Osceola sufferers. Messrs. Carner and Field are at present in this place, engaged in painting some new scenery for Pie's Opera House.

REMOVAL.—Again we call the attention of our customers that we have removed our grocery and feed store to Market street, north side, nearly midway between the Shaw House and the Mansion House. Chop, flour, feed and canned fruits are made a specialty in quality and price. Call and examine our stock.

June 2,-3t A. G. KRAMER & CO.

CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES FOR SALE.—Half a dozen new and second-hand buggies and carriages for sale, at exceedingly low prices.

Apr. 28-3m. JAMES L. LEAVY.

READ! READ!—At the store recently occupied by Mr. L. Flegal, and under the superintendence of the new proprietor, you will find the largest stock of Boots and Shoes, of the latest styles and greatest variety, at lower cash prices than before offered in Clearfield.

Ladies' fine French Kids a specialty.

Misses and children's gaiters, fine lasting, tipped and trimmed, 50 per cent. lower than heretofore.

Within the past week, in addition to our already large stock, we have opened $4,000 worth of new goods, bought at "bottom" prices, and will be sold the same way.

Our new Hats, just opened, cannot be excelled in the city, as we have purchased the finest fur and straw hats, of the latest summer styles, in the market. You need not go to Philadelphia to see the "Centennial," as we have it at the store, in the shape of the nicest little hat of the season.

We have just opened a new and complete line of Gents' Furnishing Goods. Gents' fine Shirts in every style, and if you can't be suited, you can select the goods from samples, leave your measure and have them made to order. A perfect fit guaranteed.

Of Trunks, valises, and umbrellas we have a splendid line, just opened.

It is easy to say that all these goods are sold low, but the skeptical are requested to call, and I will convince them of the truth of the assertion.

We shall take special pains to accommodate all classes of customers, but the farmer especially. We will take in exchange for goods wheat, rye, oats, corn and other grain, potatoes, butter and eggs; so none need complain they cannot buy goods for want of something to buy with.

To say that I feel thankful to the public for their large patronage extended in the short time I have been in the business, does not express my feelings. I am truly grateful for their custom. My sales having already more than trebled, I shall try to deal in such a way in the future, as to continue to merit the liberal patronage of the people.

Remember the place. Flegal's old stand. The old sign is still up, but it will shortly be replaced with a new one.

Your most obedient servant,

PETER MCGEORGE.

HARD TIMES

HAVE NO EFFECT

IN FRENCHVILLE!

I am aware that there are some persons a little hard to please, and I am also aware that the complaint of "hard times" is well nigh universal. But I am so situated now that I can satisfy the former and prove conclusively that "hard times" will not effect those who buy their goods from me, and all my patrons shall be initiated into the secret of

HOW TO AVOID HARD TIMES

I have goods enough to supply all the inhabitants in the lower end of the county which I sell at exceeding low rates from my mammoth store in MULSONBURG, where I can always be found ready to wait upon sellers and supply them with
