Allegheny Valley Railroad—Stockholders' Meeting.

At a special meeting of the Stockholders of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, last week, held at the office of the company, W. S. Bissell, Esq., in the chair, and Felix R. Brunot, Esq., Secretary, the President of the Company, Wm. Phillips, Esq., read for information an act of Assembly, on which the meeting was called to take action. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the provisions of the act of Assembly entitled "an act to authorize the Allegheny Valley Railroad Co. to issue additional stock and bonds, and to repeal the act entitled 'an act to authorize the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company to mortgage its road and branches to complete the same,' and approved the 8th day of March, A. D. 1867," which act was approved the 11th day of April, 1867, be, and the same is hereby accepted and adopted.

The President, William Phillips, Esq., offered resolutions looking to the early completion of the road, which, on being discussed, passed unanimously.

Whereupon the stockholders proceeded to vote upon the resolutions by shares of stock, the result of which was, as announced by the tellers, Messrs. T. P. Rowley, Thomas Logan and William Simons:

For the Resolutions .... 19,404 shares.
Opposed to the Resolutions .... 1,377 shares.

Majority in favor of Resolutions 18,067 shares. On motion adjourned.

Dwelling Burned in McClure.

Saturday forenoon about ten o'clock the dwelling house of Mr. W. D. McCallum, in McClure township, near the Passenger Railway terminus, took fire accidentally and was entirely destroyed. A son of Mr McCallum, aged about five years, went to the attic in search of some toys, and having matches, lighted one to aid him in his search. The flame communicated to some light clothing, when the little boy became alarmed, and ran down stairs, but in his high state of excitement was unable to make himself understood to members of the family as to what had happened. Very soon men at work in the neighborhood discovered smoke issuing from the attic windows, and gave the alarm, but the fire had obtained such headway that it was impossible with the means at hand to extinguish it. With the aid of citizens, attracted by the occurrence, the furniture was speedily removed from the house and thus saved. The dwelling was owned by Wm. Bakewell, Esq. The Hope steam fire engine was on the ground in due time, but no adequate supply of water being obtainable, could perform no service toward subduing the flames.

United States District Court.

Before Hon. Wilson McCandless.

On Saturday, District Attorney Carnahan filed a libel against ten barrels of whiskey, sold a few days since by Edwin R. Boor, of Philadelphia, to R. A. Carson, of Allegheny, for a less rate per gallon than the government tax. Under the act of Congress passed March 2, 1867, all whiskey sold at a less price than the tax of two dollars per gallon, is liable to seizure and forfeiture, such a transaction being deemed prima facie evidence that the tax has been evaded. The District Attorney therefore asks that the whiskey aforesaid be seized, condemned, and forfeited to the United States.

A decree was ordered to be entered by Judge McCandless against six barrels of whiskey shipped by Charles Grove, of Columbia, Pa., to William Carr, of this city. The whiskey is forfeited, the government tax not having been paid.

Larceny as Bailee.

Ida Howard appeared before Alderman McMasters, of the Third ward, and made information against Elizabeth Reed, of Roberts street, Seventh ward, charging her with larceny as bailee. The prosecutrix had been boarding with the defendant and some time last week went to the country, leaving her trunk with Mrs. R. intending to sent for it the next day. She alleges that on sending for the trunk, which contained clothing to the value of twenty dollars, the defendant refused to give it up. A warrant was issued and placed in officer Sharp's hands.

Sanitary Measures.—On Saturday last Health Officer J. B. Williams appeared before Alderman Morrow and made information against Robert Montooth and Robert Lafferty, of the Eighth Ward, charging them with keeping a leaking cess pool, on their premises. The parties were each fined five dollars and costs.

An Awning on Fifth street, in front of C. Blume's music store, took fire on Saturday afternoon, and created some excitement. An individual gave the alarm from the nearest signal box, although the fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water ere the fire department steamers reached the spot.

Sent to the House of Refuge.—Henry Filson, charged, on oath of Julia A. Powell, with malicious mischief, before Alderman Butler, of the Sixth ward, was arrested on Friday evening and committed for a hearing on Saturday afternoon, which resulted in his being sent to the House of Refuge.

The Courts.—No business of general importance was transacted in either of the Courts on Saturday. It being the last day of the March term of the Quarter Sessions, a number of recognizances were forfeited.

☞ Additional Local Matters on First Page.

Caught at Last.—Robert Biers, John Brewerston and Thomas Williams were on the 23d of last January charged before Alderman Morrow with malicious mischief, on oath of William McPherson, keeper of a livery stable. The prosecutor alleges in his information that the accused hired a horse from him and by reckless and malicious driving seriously injured him. A warrant was issued at the time, but the defendants managed to elude the officers until a few days ago, when Biers and Brewerton were arrested and held for a hearing on Saturday, when they were bound over in three hundred dollars bail each for their appearance at Court.

Fight over a Game of Cards.—John Sullivan made information before Alderman Morrow, against Martin Flaherty, charging him with assault and battery. The affray occurred at Davis' Tavern, Four Mile Run, Oakland township, May 25th. The parties were engaged in a game of cards when Flaherty accused Sullivan with cheating. Sullivan replied by calling him a liar, which aroused Flaherty's "Irish" and a fight ensued, in which Sullivan came out second best. Warrants were issued and placed in officer Higby's hands.

Free Fight.—On Saturday night, about eleven o'clock, a fight occurred on High street, Third ward, in which Thomas O'Neil and Donavon, two of the participants, were severely injured. O'Neil was stabbed in the left side with a dirk or stilletto. Donavon received a severe kick or cut which nearly severed the end of his nose from his face. Dr. Donnelly was called on and dressed the wounds of the parties. He says the wound of O'Neil is a severe one, but not necessarily fatal.

Arrival.—General O'Neil, of Fenian notoriety, arrived yesterday on the 2:15 train from the East. He was met at the depot by Dr. Donnelly, late surgeon in the Fenian army, and several other friends, and escorted in a carriage to the St. Charles Hotel. He will remain here till Wednesday, and will address the Fenian Brotherhood at Glenwood this afternoon.

Free and Pleasant Excursion to the great sale of lots at Sharpsburg, by the free excursion trains, which leave both the Western Penn'a R. R. Depot, Allegheny, and the Allegheny Valley Depot, Pittsburgh, at the same hour (10 o'clock) on Monday, the 3d inst. Free for all. See auction advertisement.

Withdrawn.—In the case of Jerome Jones vs. his wife, proceedings in divorce, the application for a trial by jury has been withdrawn, and Alderman E. S. Morrow appointed Commissioner with full power, &c.

The Loss in the city by fire during the month of May just passed was two hundred and seventy-five dollars; insurance fifty dollars.

☞ HELMBOLD'S
Concentrated Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Eradicates ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE DISEASES of the THROAT, NOSE, EYES, EYELIDS, SCALP and SKIN,

Which so disfigure the appearance, PURGING the evil effects of mercury and removing all taints, the remnants of DISEASES, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by ADULTS and CHILDREN with perfect safety.

TWO TABLE-SPOONFULS of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla in certain affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.
