HUGH McKELVY, P. M.

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

This Court met at ten o'clock Friday, Hon. Thomas Mellon on the bench, Col. I. B. Duff, District Attorney.

VERDICT RENDERED.

In the case of David Chess and Jacob Cryan, indicted for assault and battery, on oath of Patrick Keenan, the jury rendered a verdict "not guilty," the defendant paying the prosecutor each to pay one-half the costs.

A BASTARDY CASE.

Elizabeth Marshall, eighteen years of age, unmarried, of Indiana Township, appeared as prosecutrix against her cousin, Samuel P. Marshall, residing in Allegheny, in an indictment for bastardy, alleging that he is the father of her child. Before its birth her defendant, after being prosecuted, appeared at the magistrate's office and made overtures to settle the matter. Marriage was out of the question, the defendant having a wife, and an agreement was arranged, but not completed, that he should pay to the prosecutrix the sum of four hundred dollars in instalments. Defendant failed to appear on the day appointed for signing the agreement, and consequently the case came to Court. The jury found a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine to the Guardians of the Poor of five dollars; to pay, for filing his recognizance, the prosecutrix, twenty-five dollars; to pay to the prosecutrix, for the maintenance of the bastard child, the further sum of one dollar and twenty-five cents per week, from the date of its birth, September 5th, 1866, until it is seven years of age; and to enter into recognizance, bound with sufficient security, in the sum of $500, to the Guardians of the Poor of the county, conditioned for the performance of this order, or such other order as the Court may direct for the maintenance of said bastard child.

LAWRENCEVILLE BURGLARY CASE.

Frank J. Otto was placed on trial on an indictment charging him with burglariously entering the house of Adam Stein, on Irwalt street, Lawrenceville, in the latter part of April last, and taking therefrom a variety of articles. The prosecution established the fact that a burglary had been committed in the house of Mr. Strelb's dwelling having been broken open, a clock, window blind, a quantity of flour, a coat, a kettle and steamer, pair of shoes, mitts, some tinware, two umbrellas, a woolen shawl, screw driver, knife, chisel, two pocket knives, three boxes of tea and coffee and extract of coffee, &c., were taken, a number of these articles were produced and identified, and it was proven that they were recovered in the house of the defendant, about "two acres" from the prosecutor's residence. The articles were found in different parts of the house—the window blind and shirts in a bed occupied by defendant's father-in-law, a blind man, under his head and part between the sheets and under his back. There were three searches made by Constable Irwin. On the first search only a bucket was found; the other articles were subsequently discovered. Defendant was present at the second search, when all the articles identified were found. Officer Irwin said there was another man in the house, and he had a warrant for the arrest of this other person, charged with the burglary, on oath of Otto, defendant in this case. On the morning of the burglary tracks of bare feet were traced from Strelb's house to and were traced from Strelb's house to and from that occupied by defendant. The case for the Commonwealth closed with the fact of the burglary established, and also that the stolen goods were found in the possession of the defendant, or at least in the house occupied by him. The defense set up was that the burglary was committed by another party, who lived in the house with Otto, and who disappeared about the time of the robbery. This man's name was given as Otto Forstinger. Quite a number of witnesses called testified to the defendant's good character for honesty; he had been in the army, and was awarded a medal by the State of West Virginia for good conduct.

It was argued on behalf of the defense that the Commonwealth by showing the possession of the stolen goods in the defendant, had not made out a prima facie case of guilt. The possession had not been shown to be exclusive, and the circumstances indicated that suspicion could properly rest upon the man Forstinger, who lodged in the house of Otto. Jury out at adjournment.

BILLS RETURNED YESTERDAY.

The Grand Jury returned the following indictments yesterday:

James H. O'Neil and John W. Pittock, libel; Daniel O'Neill, prosecutor. True bill.

John W. Pittock, libel; Daniel O'Neill, prosecutor. True bill.

John Lang, forcible entry; Catherine Bingham, prosecutrix. True bill.
