New Year's Day, 1877, was ushered in by the denizens of Clearfield with the booming of cannon and the ringing of all the Church bells in town.

To prevent tobacco chewers from being imposed upon, Lorillards have put a tin stamp in every plug of their tobacco. Take none unless as stamped. Lytle is sole agent for Clearfield county.

A two weeks' term of Court opens in Clearfield on Monday next. We expect a regiment of our subscribers to call and square up, so as to start out even with the new century. Friends, call when in town.

James F. Milliken, Esq., who was removed from the Colonelcy of the Fifth Regiment, N. G. of Pa., by Governor Hartranft, for issuing his famous "Order No. 9," was re-elected to that position on Wednesday, the 29th ult. How is that for elevation?

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending January 1, 1877:

Armstrong, Ida B. — Stoner, Peter
Bojer, J. D. — Smith, Jacob
Glassmire, C. E. — Welsh, Olivia A.

P. A. GAELIS, P. M.

There has been a larger quantity and better quality of ice put up by our citizens this winter than was ever stored away in any one season within the history of Clearfield. Our citizens will be enabled to keep cool next summer without the aid of palm-leaf fans.

The exhibition given in the Opera House on the evening of the 22d ult., by the members of the Leonard Literary Association, of Clearfield, was a decided success financially and otherwise. The recitations, tableaux and orations, were well rendered by the participants.

Mr. Thos. Mills, of this place, has a sleigh of his own manufacture at his shop on Second street, which is as handsome a piece of workmanship in that line as we have ever seen. It is well and strongly built, and is withal very light. We venture to say that it is far superior to any sleigh ever brought into this place from a foreign market.

Christmas passed off much in the usual way in Clearfield. There was but little stir, all persons feeling very keenly the ill-effect of the hard times. Most of the business houses were closed and there was nothing going on to indicate that the day was anything more than a quiet Sunday.

The Methodists had a prayer-meeting at 6 o'clock on Christmas morning. A large number of persons were present to participate in the exercises, which were of a very pleasant character. This congregation also had a "watch-meeting" service, commencing at 9 o'clock on New Year's Eve and continuing until midnight. The congregation on this occasion was quite large and the services were very interesting.

Mr. Leander Denning, of Lawrence township, wants the two Hayes men who are in the habit of helping themselves to corn out of his crib to leave their vile work ere they come to grief. To be more explicit, he informs us that one of them keeps two small pigs, and the other an old horse. Also, the chap who appropriated his buffalo robe must return the same before the winter is too far gone, as he would like to receive some benefit of it himself while the sleighing lasts.

The Teachers' Institute, held in the Opera House during last week, was well attended by teachers and others. The evening lectures were interesting and instructive, and were listened to with marked attention by large and appreciative audiences. The day sessions were of special interest to teachers, many of whom took active part in the exercises. Supt. Gregory deserves credit for the able manner in which he fills his office. We expect to publish the proceedings in full for the benefit of those interested.

The residence of John F. Weaver, Esq., on Second street, this borough, narrowly escaped destruction by fire, on Saturday night, the 23d ult. A pan of hot wood ashes had been deposited in a barrel in the coal shed, which adjoins the rear part of the house, and about 12 o'clock of the night above mentioned fire was discovered in the shed. It had made considerable progress, and but for its timely discovery would have been attended with a disastrous result. The prompt application of a few buckets of water extinguished the flames.

Several intoxicated individuals indulged in a knock-down in this borough on Christmas day. No blood was spilled, and no damage was done to any one.

It took two engines to bring Conductor Irwin's train over from Tyrone to this place last Saturday, and then it was nearly three hours behind time. The heavy fall of snow did it.

APPEALS.—The Co. Commissioners will publish their appeal programme next week. The appeal day will open about the 1st of February and continue until the middle of March.

We [illegible] 1,000 cords of Hemlock [illegible] highest market price.

LEFT FOR HARRISBURG.—Aaron C. Tate, Esq., our member of Assembly, left for the State Capital last Friday, where he should be addressed by his constituents and friends until the adjournment of the Legislature.

MERCANTILE APPRAISER.—The County Commissioners, on Friday last, appointed Mr. Jas. A. Moore, of this borough, Mercantile Appraiser for 1877. Mr. Moore is fully competent to perform the duties for which he has been selected.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON.—Senator Wallace spent last week at home with his family. He left again for Washington on Tuesday morning, where he expects to remain for several days. He expects to be present at our next Court, at least during the first week.

About a foot of snow fell in this region on Friday and Friday night last, and the sledding is now considered very good by those who have the means to enjoy it. Young America don't like this heavy fall of snow, because it covers up the ice and spoils the skating.

Some fun-loving persons expressed the defunct carcass of a coon to the editor of the Journal, in this place, on Christmas, and he utilized it by sticking it out at his office window. His coonship, dead though it is, looks very much ashamed of the company it is forced to keep.

THE ASSESSMENTS.—The several Assessors of our county are making their returns to the County Commissioners, and from a glance at their work it looks as though the value of property in Clearfield county would be far less in 1877 than it was three years ago, notwithstanding the improvements.

IN JAIL.—Our new Sheriff, Andrew Pentz, Jr., came to town last week with his family, and was looked up in prison by Sheriff McPherson. The latter, however, was glad to get clear of the scrape on Monday last, when Andy succeeded in getting out and was sworn in as Sheriff, and hereafter he will carry the keys to the "Stone Palace."

SLOW TRAVELING.—On the 11th of June, 1873, Treasurer Wilson sent a letter enclosing a tax-bill to a party in Bogue township, and addressed the same to Clearfield Bridge P. O. Last week the letter was returned through the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C., to Treasurer McGaughey, with its contents (tax-bill) all right.

LOST!—A lady, while attending the Teachers' Institute at the Opera House, in this place, on Wednesday night of last week, lost her pocket-book. It contained some silver coin, several dollars of paper money, and a ticket of admission to the Institute, but no papers of any kind. The finder will be appropriately rewarded by leaving the same with the editor of the REPUBLICAN.

ANOTHER.—Mr. Geo. J. Akers, formerly local editor of the Altoona Evening Mirror, has commenced the publication of a new paper in that city called the Sunday Globe, the initial number of which was issued on Sunday last. The newspaper undertaking in that city seem to hold peculiar views of success and enterprise, notwithstanding they keep their business kettle constantly on the boil.

"BOTH SIDES OF LIFE."—Miss Anna M. Baker will deliver a lecture at the Court House in Clearfield, on Tuesday evening next, January 9th. Her subject is, "Both Sides of Life." Miss Baker has lectured in quite a number of places, and is highly spoken of by the press. The following notice of her lecture is taken from the Quincy (Ill.) Whig:—

"The lecture delivered last night at Elm Grove Chapel, by Miss Anna M. Baker, was a masterly effort. Her subject, 'Both Sides of Life,' was presented with force and depth of thought. She held the audience for two hours with her earnest appeal in behalf of woman's mission. The unanimous sentiment of the audience last night was that Miss Baker is the equal of any, and the superior of many, speakers of the present day."

THE GUNS AT FAULT.—Several of our champion hunters, who spent a month or more in a deer campaign out on the mountains without drawing blood, denounce the single-barreled guns as a humbug and are determined to equip themselves with breech-loaders by the time the next canvass for venison opens, that will shoot not less than sixteen times in rapid succession. One centre-shot Nimrod remarked: "If I only had had a breech-loader, I could have killed no less than five deer in one day. Four of them nearly ran over me; but I had no load in my gun." It is queer how these guns do act in the woods. A single-barreled hunter informs us that he killed eleven deer with his one-holed fusee during the December canvass. Of such is the hunter's luck. Guns and deer are always to blame, but the hunter never.

CLEARFIELD COAL TRADE.—Statement of Coal and other freights sent over the Tyrone & Clearfield Division, Pennsylvania Railroad, for the week ending Dec. 23d, 1876, and the same time last year:

ALL A MISTAKE.—There are many Assessors, besides other people, who entertain the idea that if real estate happens to be omitted or overlooked at the tri-ennial assessment, it cannot be legally placed on the assessment-books until another tri-ennial season comes around. This fallacy is dispelled by the following section in the Act of Assembly approved the 29th day of April, 1869, (Pamphlet Laws, page 105,) which reads as follows:—

"Whenever any taxable real estate shall be omitted to be assessed at the tri-ennial assessment the Assessor, on notice thereof, shall forthwith assess and return the same to the proper office; which assessment shall be subject to appeal, and shall continue until the next tri-ennial assessment, and its proper proportion of all taxes to which such real estate is liable, levied after such assessment, shall be laid thereon."

The Week of Prayer appointed by the Evangelical Alliance commences next Sunday, January 7th. We have not learned of the arrangements for the observance in Clearfield, but we presume no heretofore appropriate services will be held in our Churches. The order of exercises is as follows:

Sunday evening, January 7. Subject: "Christian Fellowship."
Monday evening, January 8. Subject: Thanksgiving and Confession."
Tuesday evening, January 9. "Prayer for the Holy Spirit on the whole Church."
Wednesday evening, January 10. "Prayer for Families."
Thursday evening, January 11. Subject: "Prayer for the Nation."
Friday evening, January 12. Subject: "Prayer for Missions and the Second Coming of Christ."
Saturday evening, January 13. Subject: "Prayer for the Observance of the Christian Sabbath and for the Promotion of Temperance."
Sunday, January 14. Subject: "The Word of God."

HORSE THIEF SHOT.—From the Lewisburg Journal of last week we learn that Mr. Ritter, one of two sons of Wm Ritter, residing on a farm of the latter in White Deer township, Union county, was awakened by the barking of his dog. He arose, and taking a double barreled gun proceeded to see what was wrong. He saw the dog was barking at the door of the barn and the barn door was open. In a few moments a man hurriedly come out of the door and attempted to escape. While jumping the fence Mr. Ritter fired at him, but did not follow at once as he thought there was another in the stable. Calling his brother, they both then made a thorough examination. The best horse in the stable was found bridled and ready to be driven away. On the fence there was bloody marks and across the field to the main road there was blood, which showed that the thief had been wounded. The track was lost at the road, which proved there was a buggy or some conveyance in which the party escaped. Since then nothing further has been heard of the scoundrel.

NOTIFYING THE TAX-PAYERS.—It is the duty of the Assessor to notify every citizen at least five days before the day of appeal, of the kind of property with which he is assessed and the value thereof.

We notice that Wm. Reed has received another large stock of dry goods, notions, etc., although receiving new goods is a daily custom at his store. The constant rush of customers keeps the door on the swing nearly all the time, necessitating him to get another store to keep his room warm. He is doing business in a live manner, and persons in need of goods will do well to patronize him. Room in the Opera House.

HEALTHY [illegible] Telegraph says that Union county boasts of four "boys"—brothers—whose united ages foot up [illegible] Philip Rudy, at Buffalo township, almost 80; John C. Ruhl, of Lewis township, about 84; George Ruhl, of same township, 82; and Jacob Ruhl, same township, 80. The most cheering fact is, they are all good boys. And well they might be, for they were a rule to themselves.

ATTENTION!

The friends of the Sabbath-School cause are once more called upon to rally to the work. The Bennett's Branch S. S. Convention will hold its regular semi-annual session at Hickory Kingdom (in Huston township), beginning on Friday, the 19th of January, 1877, at 7 o'clock P. M., and holding three sessions, adjourning on Saturday, at 12 M. This place is eight miles west of Penfield, and all persons coming from east or west will stop at Penfield, where conveyances will be ready to carry them to place of meeting gratis.

W. J. KING, Secretary.

RELIEF MEETING.

In accordance with a previous call a number of the citizens of this borough assembled in the Court room on Thursday evening, December 21st, for the purpose of taking some action to relieve the wants of the poor and indigent in our midst. The meeting was called to order by Col. Barrett, on whose motion Mr. Jonathan Boynton was elected President, and Wm. M. McCullough, Esq., was chosen Secretary. After the President had stated the object of the meeting, Mr. Wm. W. Betts moved that the President appoint a Visiting Committee, of three citizens, who should canvass the borough for the purpose of ascertaining how many there are in our midst who deserve assistance. Rev. H. S. Butler, Rev. B. F. Stevens and C. Howe, Esq., were appointed as said Committee. The names of Messrs. S. J. Row and P. A. Gaulin were afterwards added to the Committee.

On motion of Col. Barrett, a Finance Committee was appointed by the President, consisting of Messrs. Jas. B. Graham, Geo. L. Reed and Walter Barrett, to devise a plan for raising the necessary means to carry out the object of the meeting.

After some suggestions from various parties, it was agreed to adjourn over until Saturday evening following, and that the Committees indicated should make their reports at that time.

SATURDAY EVENING, Dec. 23d.—According to adjournment, Mr. Boynton, the President, called the meeting to order. The former Secretary not being present, Mr. Wm. W. Worrell was elected to fill the vacancy, after which the Visiting Committee reported verbally. During the recess this Committee had sub-divided the borough, and each member canvassed a certain portion of the town, to see if there were any necessitous cases. The whole number of persons reported were twenty-five, one-half of whom would support themselves if they could get work, and were not yet in want; but the rest were found to be needy and most have assistance immediately.

The Finance Committee made a written report, which resulted in the appointment of a Committee of seven, viz: Messrs. A. M. Hills, Geo. L. Reed, J. B. Graham, C. Kratzer, C. Howe, G. R. Barrett and James Irwin, who were empowered to take the whole subject under advisement, and appoint one or more sub-committees to carry out the views of the meeting.

On motion of Mr. Betts, a resolution was adopted, calling upon the borough authorities to give employment to such as were out of work, by quarrying and breaking stone during the winter, preparatory to putting them on the streets in the summer.

After a miscellaneous debate, and a score of suggestions about how to prevent poverty, etc., the meeting adjourned.

To show that there is some get-up in the Committee last appointed, our neighbors and ourself have been furnished tickets, calling for a $15 contribution from each. It is no difference whether a fellow is the owner of one or half a dozen houses and lots, it is all the same—$15.

TRUE MERIT WILL WIN.
A few year since the proprietors of Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound introduced it here. It was not puffed, but sold on its merits. Our people soon found it to be reliable, and already it has become the most staple and popular pulmonary remedy in the market. It quickly cures the worst coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma and incipient consumption. Nothing sets so nicely in whooping cough, and it is so pleasant that children readily take it. Containing no opium, or other dangerous drug, it is as safe as it is sure. Trial size, 10 cents; large sizes, 50 cents and one dollar. Sold by C. D. Scarcity of Money.

There is no doubt but the present condition of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on when children are liable to Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Coughs and Colds will prevail everywhere, and Consumption, with other throat and lung diseases, will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected. Doctor's bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your Druggist, C. D.
